POLICE COURT, Sept. 30.—Sedley A. Lowd arrested for horse-stealing, plead not guilty, was bound over in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the S. J. Court. Committed to jail. It appears that about the first of September, Lowd stole a watch from a marine, and finding out by some means that the police were on his track, in order the better to facilitate his escape, he hired a horse and buggy of Mr. Henry R. Stoddard of this city, and drove as far as Exeter where he traded his carriage (worth about $150) for an old ricketty wagon, receiving $5 in cash, and then proceeded to Haverhill, Mass., where he disposed of the whole establishment for $30. It is proper to say in this connection, that after much trouble and travel Mr. S. succeeded in recovering his horse, harness and wagon. While in pursuit of his team, he found his buggy near a paint shop, taken apart ready for being disguised by the brush of a painter. After securing this portion of his property, he started on and found the remainder in Haverhill, as stated above.

For the larceny of the watch, he was sentenced to pay a fine of $10, besides the costs, $3.86, and pay treble the value of the stolen property, $36.00.

Emeline Langdon, for night walking, was sent to the House of Correction for 30 days and ordered to pay costs, $6.67.

☞ A man who takes good care of his horses, suggests that our city would do well to have a good stone watering place trough on the low land in Bridge street, near Concord Railroad Depot, and another on Pleasant street a little south of the Universalist Church, to be supplied by aqueduct. Such things are common in Manchester, and some other places.

☞ A large mail steamer intended for the Pacific line arrived in Lower Harbor on Friday evening from New York city, being on a trial trip. We acknowledge an invitation to accompany a party who visited her in the steamer Pioneer, but press of business would not permit us to accept.

☞ The steamer Emerald was beached on Saturday for the purpose of examining her bottom and boilers. The steamer Fox made the regular trips to and from the Yard.

☞ One of the most beautiful locations and fruitful spots in the town of Eliot, is advertised in this day's paper, for sale at auction. The sale is in consequence of the owner, Rev. Mr. Holmes, removing from the place.

☞ The Post office in this city opens at half past 7 in the morning, and closes at half past 7 in the evening, from and after this day.

— Rev. E. E. Hale, says the Presidency of Antioch College had been tendered to and declined by Rev. Andrew P. Peabody, D. D., preacher to Harvard University.

☞ The employes of the Berkshire Woolen Mill, at Great Barrington, struck on Thursday of last week for a reduction of hours of labor from thirteen to eleven.—They were successful, and went to work again on Saturday.

☞ Rev. Henry D. Moore, pastor of Union Church and Society in Portland, has received a unanimous call to the Plymouth Congregational Church in Pittsburg, Penn., and has signified his acceptance. He will leave about the last of October.

☞ John Murray, a groom in the employ of George H. Bailey, was arrested in Portland on Thursday evening, on suspicion of having poisoned the mare Sea Foam. It is said that he is known to have secretly entered the stable where she was kept, on Tuesday night, and remained there several minutes.

☞ The New Orleans butchers, who have been charging thirty-five cents per pound for beef, are in trouble. Two droves of Texas cattle were brought to the market, for which they refused to pay fair prices, whereupon the Texans opened a market for themselves, and are slaughtering their own animals, and selling the meat at fifteen cents per pound.

WORK TO BE DONE.—"This is the white man's Governmen," exclaims Mr. Perry, Provisional Governor of South Carolina; "This is the white man's Government," respond Democratic journals at the North; which is equivalent to making proclamation that they who claim to be the Democratic party, not more by direct descent than by correspondent belief in what constitute the essential elements of personal freedom, have no aversion to liberated men passing again into bondage. To reaffiliate with the Southern Democracy (if it be not absurd to apply such a word to the late slave-driving rebels) is now the chief end of the anti-war Democrats of the North. No claims the South sets up to "regulate its own affairs in its own way," will henceforth be deemed presumptuous. None would be rejected, if it were now in power; and they who are consoling themselves with the belief that no obstacles lie between the Republican party and Reconstruction upon a proper basis, may dismiss the pleasing illusion, until such time as it becomes certain we are stronger than the anti-war party in the North and those in the South with whom they are striving to coalesce.—Statesman.

STOP THIEF.—The Democratic leaders in New York are very much in the condition of a company of burglars who have entered a gentleman's house and carried away the silver-plate. The trouble is, who shall have the largest number of the spoons! We have had letters from Haskin, editorials in the World, the News, the Express and Herald, and now a letter from Comstock. This last letter amounts to nothing. The evidence seems to be conclusive that Haskin was the first to open the windows, and so should have the spoons. As for Comstock, Marble, Tilden and the rest, they remained outside to run if the police came. Honest men see plainly that the whole thing is flat burglary, and that Haskin and his friends, and the Democratic party in general, have no more right to wear the Union colors than Mr. Jeff. Davis or Gen. Lee.—Tribune.

A bachelor returning one evening from the opening "jam" at the Olympic theatre, declared with a groan, that he had not the slightest objection to "rings on the fingers," but he had a most equivocal objection to "belles on the toes."

— A Mr. Prouty, formerly of Brattleboro', Vt., and who many years ago emigrated to Texas, was murdered by the rebels about the 1st of April, 1864. Mr. Prouty was suspected of having given information to the Federal troops stationed at Victoria, and immediately on the evacuation of the place by the Federal troops, he was set upon by the bell-hounds, pitched out of a two-story window, and afterward dragged with a rope by the neck through the town.

ARE THEY GOING ?—We refer, reader, to your teeth. Be careful. Next to your eyes, your teeth are the most precious of your facial organs. Use the Fragrant Sozodont. It will at once arrest decay, and prevent what are now but mere specks from being orifices. In brief, it will save and beautify your teeth. And it is the only thing that can save them. Reflect on this. o2eod1w 9

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and far more so than the tight band made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-base. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes are much lower than Hand made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

From the Portsmouth Journal

A BEAUTIFUL GEM IN LITERATURE & ART.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever:
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness."

Thus the poet Keats, with "music's golden tongue," gives expression to a thought which will perish only with beauty herself.

The good Dr. Channing once feelingly and fervently uttered—"God be thanked for Books. They give to all, who will faithfully use them, the society, the spiritual presence of the best and greatest of our race."

We are led into this train of thought by a "thing of beauty," in the department of belles-lettres, with which the reading public will soon be made most delightfully acquainted.

Miss Julia M. Furbish, the gifted artist and poetess, has compiled a work which is destined to create a great sensation in literary circles. The book is with singular appropriateness entitled "The Flower of Liberty,"—inasmuch as the contents thereof will consist entirely of patriotic poems, some of them stirring national lyrics, and others beautiful ballads, suggested by thrilling incidents and events which transpired during the late gigantic struggle between Justice and Tyranny.

The most eminent literati of our country are contributors to this elegant work, among whom are Oliver Wendell Holmes, whose exquisitely beautiful poem, "The Flower of Liberty," gives the book its felicitous title, J. G. Whittier, W. C. Bryant, H. W. Longfellow, R. W. Emerson, J. G. Holland, G. W. Curtis, T. B. Read, B. H. Newell, [Orpheus C. Kerr,] C. G. Halpine, (Miles O'Reilley,) Bayard Taylor, Wm. Ross Wallace, Theodore Tilton, Wm. Winter, John Neal, N. H. Brownell, H. T. Tuckerman, Rev. C. T. Brooks, Rev. John Pierpont, T. W. Parsons, Bishop Burgess, B. P. Shillaber, J. T. Trowbridge, David Barker and Henry Morford.

Some of the lady contributors, are, Lucy Larcom, Julia Ward Howe, Alice and Phoebe Cary, Mrs. J. T. Fields, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Kate Putnam and Mrs. Ann S. Stephens.

Our Portsmouth poets will be well represented in this charming book—Harriet McEwen Kimball, Albert Laighton and Edward P. Nowell having acquiesced in the desire that they should contribute appropriate poems thereto.

The work will be finely illustated with upwards of fifty superior colored lithographs, by Bufford, one of Portsmouth's talented "Sons,"—from Miss Furbish's elegant and elaborate designs executed in water colors, of national emblems, etc., brought out during the war.

This superb and unique book, which will not be surpassed in literary merit, mechanical execution and general attractiveness, by any work of the season, is to be published in the latter part of October by the enterprising house of Ticknor & Fields, and will undoubtedly prove a decided success in every respect, as liberal orders for the book are already fast accumulating.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—Tatting and crochet work have been for the most part furnished to the market by foreign labor; the slight duties on importation and the low prices for labor in Europe defying American competition. But we have had our attention recently called to the salutary effect of the increased protection to home manufactures by the institution of this branch of business in this city by Mr. Isaac Hahn. He furnishes to the market at the present time about sixty elegant varieties of edgings and insertings, and finds a ready sale, mostly at the West, for all he manufacturer, and at rates allowing those he employs a fair compensation for labor. He employs about one hundred young ladies and misses in Portsmouth and the neighboring towns, in what has heretofore been a pleasing and elegant employment for leisure moments, thus making it also remunerative. He is gradually increasing the amount of his business in this line, and intends to make it a permanent institution in Portsmouth

A Mr. Mercer of Washington Territory, (a part of Oregon originally) has engaged the passage of 700 unmarried young women of good character, mostly from Massachusetts, to go to this new country where the males are 5 or 10 to one female. Three hundred are orphan daughters of deceased soldiers. An excellent arrangement. Mr. M. pays all the bills and looks to the future to be reimbursed—though some few pay a part of the passage money. They will all find homes, if not all husbands to suit them. New England can well spare a few thousands—so great, in older settled portions of a country is generally the female preponderancy, though by a law of nature, the males of a generation exceed the females.

The Fish Commissions appointed on the part of Mass. to look at our rivers with a view to the introduction of Salmon, Shad and other fish to our waters are now in our State and upon our rivers at the north. Col. Theodore Lyman of Boston and two others with a gentleman from St. Croix river in Maine constitute the gentlemen from abroad. They have a bark canoe and will go to the head waters of our rivers. We shall look with interest for their report.

Four squares of Government unoccupied land in Washington have been "turned over" to the Freedmen's Bureau, to erect school houses for the instruction of the freedmen.

FENIANISM.

The Fenians profess to have some 250,000 members, at home, in the United States, Canada and England, with a fund of some millions at command. Their object is, boldly, insurrection, and the independence of Ireland. The English government are taking measures to frustate every attempt. They have established a Naval force in the Irish Channel. Some letter writers are attempting to frighten the English government into the belief that the Fenians here will suddenly overrun Canada.

THE FENIANS.—There was a large and very enthusiastic meeting of Fenians at Mechanics' Hall, Worcester, Tuesday evening. Addresses were made by Major McCorville of Worcester, P. A. Collins, P. A. Sinnott, Charles H. Blanchard, and Major Mahon, all of Boston. The latter said the time for secrecy and for words was now past, and the time would soon come when Irishmen would face British red coats, and he hoped that before the ides of January the Irish Republic would be recognized among the nations of the earth. He expressed the hope that our government would adopt the English mode of neutrality at this crisis, and intimated that the Atlantic cable had been injured by a Fenian, who hoped thus to prevent the transmission of their movement.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabiale, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,

Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not say the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease or management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Siee, and others.

GOOD.—A report comes from the United States Treasury saying that over two million dollars have accumulated in the naval fund since 1798. This sum is made up of unclaimed balances due persons who have been employed in the naval service, and from fines for desertion, &c. It is proposed to fund this accumulated sum, and recommend the passage of an act establishing a home for those who have been injured for life while engaged in the naval service, the institution to be supported upon the interest of the naval fund.

VIRGINIA.—The Lynchburg Republican says one of the most distinguished gentlemen of Virginia writes as follows in regard to the eligibility of the Congressional candidates:

"I regard it as absurd, not to say criminal, in the people under the present circumstances, to select such men. A man who feels and knows he is not eligible, ought not, in these times os trial and trouble, to thrust himself before the people; but if he does, the people ought to have the good sense to rebuke him."

GOOD ADVICE.—The ex-rebel Gen. Robert E. Lee in a letter to a friend in Petersburg gives the following advice to his fellow citizens:

"It should be the object of all to avoid controversy, to allay passion, give free scope to reason and every kindly feeling. By doing this, and encouraging our citizens to engage in the duties of life with all their heart and mind, with a determination not to be turned aside by thoughts of the past or fears of the future, our country will not only be restored in material prosperity, but will be advanced in science, in virtue, and in religion."

— At the Illinois State Fair at Chicago, representatives of two rival artificial leg establishments had a walking match. The victor made his mile in 19 minutes.

— A man with a dozen children, each wearing out a pair of shoes per week, is apt to think that his domicile is a leather wear-house.

An honest Hibernian, trundling along a hand-cart containing all his valuables, was accosted with—"Well, Patrick, you are moving again, I see." "Faith, I am," he replied, "for the the times are so hard, it's a dale cheaper hiring hand-carts than paying rents."

— It is said that the largest diamond in the world in the world is in the possession of the Rajah of Malan, in the island of Borneo. It is the size of a large hen's egg. The Governor of Batavia has offered him two large brigs-of-war, fully equipped and armed, and a sum of £150,000 for it, but the Rajah has said no.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1865.

MISSISSIPPI.—Gov. Sharkey has just issued a proclamation accepting the proposition of Col. Thomas, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau of Mississippi, transferring the right of trying all cases, in which the rights of Freedmen are involved, from the Freedmen's Bureau to the civil authority, upon condition that the Provisional Government will take for their mode of procedure the laws now in force, except so far as these laws make a distinction on account of color. The negroes are also to be protected in person and property. They can be sued, and are to have the right to sue. They are also to be competent witnesses according to the laws of evidence. The News, in an editorial, denounces the act as an encroachment upon the rights of whites, and says it will be repudiated by the people.

[If the people of Mississippi are so stupid or so reckless as the News here suggests, then they are not qualified to be American citizens, and should not be represented in Congress. But we suppose the News to be in error, and believe that the people there will go as far in loyalty as Gov. Sharkey, to say the least. They ought to go much farther.]

A BIG THIEF HANDSOMELY CAUGHT. The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says Brig.-General Briscoe of the 109th Pa. regiment, and A. W. Lackey, sutler, of Worcester, Mass., have been arrested for stealing a large amount of government funds from the post quarter-master's sale at Lynchburg. Briscoe was caught in the act. The plot appears to have been elaborately contrived, and only failed through Capt. Alberger, to whom the secret was confided, giving information to the government.—Briscoe himself took the impression of the safe key in wax, and sent Lackey to Philadelphia to get a duplicate made. When the day came for carrying out the scheme, detectives were on the watch. They saw Briscoe unlock the safe and load himself with coin and greenbacks. They followed him to his office and arrested him in the very act of counting his ill-gotten booty.

RAILROAD ENLARGEMENT. — The N. Y. Herald of Monday says that European capitalists now there have decided to lay a double track on the Erie railroad from New York to the junction with the Atlantic and Great Western railroad at Salamanca, shortening the distance on the Erie Road about 70 miles.

The building of the railroad bridge across the Niagara near Buffalo will cost $5,000,000, and the extension of the branches of the Great Western road from all the principal points with their original designs, will cause an expenditure of over $100,000,000.

THE DROUGHT.—It cannot be questioned that the present summer has been the driest of which we have any record. The Merrimack Manufacturing Company have kept a rain guage at their mills in Lowell during the last forty-one years. For the months of June, July, August and September, the average depth of rain during the whole period is 14.53 inches. The total quantity for the same months during the present year is 7.91 inches. The least quantity recorded for the same months, during the forty-one years, excepting the present year, is in 1829, when it was 8.16 inches. In 1846 it was 9.42 inches. The greatest quantity recorded for the four months is for the year 1860, when it was 29.21 inches.

— "Oh what is so rare as a day in June?" Why, a day in February, of course.

— United States stocks and securities in England have risen in price.

— Rev. Dr. Francis Wayland, President of Brown University, died on Saturday, aged 69—a ripe scholar, an eminent minister, honorable and honored.

— Judge Underwood, of the U. S. District Court, in Virginia, has refused to admit lawyers to practice in his Court who cannot take the test oath.

— The Fall Term of the N. Y. Medical College for Women will begin on the third Monday in this month and close the last of February. Efforts are making to establish a General Hospital for Women and Children in connection with this College.

— It is understood that, after the trial of Capt. Wirz is ended, and all the facts connected with the Andersonville prison ascertained, there will be an investigation of the Salisbury and other prisons of the South, in which Union prisoners were confined and maltreated.

— Rev. Wm. Allen of South Berwick, Me., preached his farewell sermon in that place on the 24th ult., to a very large and deeply interested audience. Mr. Allen is an attractive preacher and a talented writer. Whatever society secures his services in the future will find him so. We understand he is at present unengaged.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Judge Wm. Parker—Jail burnt, 1781 Confiscation.

The Honorable William Parker departed this life April 29th, 1781, aged seventy-seven. He was born in Portsmouth in the year 1703, received the rudiments of his education in one of the public schools, and, at the age of fifteen, became an apprentice to his father, who was a tanner. He made himself thoroughly acquainted with that business, but relinquished it soon after he came of age, and was employed for several years as master of one of the public schools. In his leisure hours he pursued the study of the law, and was admitted to the bar in the year 1732. When the commissioners met at Hampton in 1737, to settle the line between this province and Massachusetts, they appointed him their Clerk. He afterwards received a commission from Governor Belcher to be Register of Probate, and his knowledge of the law, enabled him to discharge the duties of that office with great ability. He was also appointed Surrogate Judge of Admiralty, and was for many years, the only notary public in the province. In 1765, he was elected one of the representatives to the General Assembly, and was re-elected every year afterwards until 1774. In August 1774, he received a commission, appointing him one of the Justices of the Superior Court of Judicature, for the province; which office he held until the commencement of the revolution, when the royal authority ceased here, and all who held offices under the King, were obliged to relinquish them. Judge Parker was esteemed a well read and accurate lawyer; he had diligently studied the law, not only as a profession, but as a science. While at the bar he was consulted and his advice relied on in the most important cases, which came before the Courts. But his studies were not confined entirely to the law. He gave much of his attention to classical literature, and the belles-lettres, in which the made great proficiency. In 1763, the corporation of Harvard College, conferred on him the degree of Master of Arts, and in their vote, they direct it to be expressly mentioned in his diploma "pro meritis suis, although he never had a public education." In his diploma it is expressed "licet non Academiæ instructum, Generosum, nihil omissus in rebus literariis scil: Classicis Philosophicis, &c., egregie eruditum. "He became very early a professor of religion, and was admitted a member of the north church, of which he was afterwards one of the deacons.

On the 15th of March, 1781, about noon, the town was alarmed by the cry of fire; which broke out in the barn of Nathaniel Treadwell, situated on Fetter-lane. It was kindled by some children, who were playing with fire in the barn. The flames communicated to Mr. Treadwell's house, which was entirely consumed. From his house they extended across the lane, to the gaol which stood at the corner of Prison and Fetter-lane, (now Chesnut and Warren streets) which was likewise consumed. The stable, wood-house, and other buildings of the honorable Woodbury Langdon, which stood near the gaol, took fire, and together with his dwelling house, were laid in ashes. The gaol, being built of oak timber, made the fire intensely hot; and it was with difficulty, that the engine men could support the heat a few minutes at a time to prevent Colonel Whipple's house from taking fire. But being frequently relieved, they kept a continual stream of water pouring on the end of the house next to the gaol, and by that means arrested its progress.—[Col. Whipple's house is still standing. Woodbury Langdon built of brick, a new house, now the Rockingham House.]

March 25th, 1782, the town gave permission to the Physicians, Ammi R. Cutter, Joshua Brackett, Hall Jackson, and John Jackson, to open a hospital on Henzell's Island, under such rules and regulations as shall secure the town from danger, provided said hospital shall be no expense to the town.

On the 3d of June the town remonstrated against the act passed at the last session of the General Court, for confiscating the estates of British subjects and absentees, as impolitic and unjust; and instructed their representatives to use their most strenuous endeavors to obtain its repeal.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— This is said to be an excellent year for chestnuts, and the crop in this State is a large one.

—— In Manchester the streets are dusty because the supply of water for the sprinklers is exhausted. Our streets are dusty because we have no sprinklers to use our abundant supply of water.

—— The Trustees of the Reform School held an adjourned meeting at that institution on Thursday last, and were much pleased with the condition of the farm, the buildings, and the school. Hon. H. D. Walker, of this city, President of the Board, appropriately addressed the school.

—— The editor of the Granite State Free Press has seen a cucumber which measured three feet and three inches in length. Cucumbers of double, and even triple that length, are common in the South, but we never saw any use made of them except to place them in the show windows of restaurants.

"THERE'S NOTHING LIKE LEATHER."—John Bass, Ezekiel and Abednego Leathers—all of Durham, died respectively in 1736, 1801 and 1802, at the ages of 103, 105 and 101.

☞ The following handsome notice we clip from the Manchester Union of Sept. 23:

Dr. Campbell will remain at the City Hotel only till Monday next, and can receive patients no longer than till noon tomorrow. His rooms have been thronged with patients during the few days past, and if there are still others who wish to receive the benefit of his treatment, they should call upon him at once. He has been remarkably successful here in the treatment of cases of catarrh and deafness. We hear every day of persons who have been cured, and who express much gratitude to the Doctor for the service rendered them. He will leave this place, as he has others, while many desire his stay, and will follow him with their gratitude and best wishes when he must depart.

We understand he will visit Portsmouth next week, taking rooms at the Franklin House. We advise all in that region who are suffering with catarrh and deafness to call upon him immediately.

☞ The stock of a Dry Goods store will be sold at Mr. Wendell's Auction Store, the sale commencing this morning at 10 o'clock.

☞ Capt. Hall, Provost Marshal of this District, is to bring his public services to a close on the 10th inst.

☞ We would acknowledge the receipt of invitation and tickets to the York County Agricultural Society's Fair, to be holden at Biddeford on the 10th, 11th and 12th inst.

COAL STRIKES.—A New York paper says there is a pretty general impression among intelligent men that in coal strikes the mining operatives are but the instruments of designing men, who make use of them for the purpose of exciting panics among consumers and thus forcing up prices. That such a role has often been performed there is scarcely a shadow of doubt; that it was performed as recently as last summer, in certain sections of the coal region, there is also reason to believe.

The same authority says that in spite of the blast-furnaces shortly to resume work and the slender stock of coal on hand, a decline in the price of two or three dollars per ton before the lapse of so many weeks is reasonably to be looked for.

☞ The following dispatch was received at the Freedmen's Bureau from Gen. Wayne, Commissioner of Freedmen, dated Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 29:

The Convention to-day, by a vote of 59 to 16, required the judicial officers and magistrates of this State to continue to act as agents of this Bureau, for the administration of justice under the regulations heretofore issued from this office, and republished by Governor Parsons, until other legal provision is made.

— A barn belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Jewett, at South Berwick, Me., together with 60 tons of hay and a quantity of corn, were destroyed by fire Tuesday evening, 26th ult. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Fully insured.

— It is believed that proof of criminality will transpire in the trial of Overton and his son, recently arrested in New York for counterfeiting U. S. currency. Overton, senior, is an old offender, and probably a partner in the manufacture of many of the most successful counterfeits in existence, and may be used in the detection and conviction of other parties but little suspected at present.

FAIRBANKS' IMPROVED SIFTER.

Indispensable in Every Family.

PATENTED JULY 11TH, 1865.

The King of all Sifters

For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and every other article requiring a Sieve. It is the great desideratum long needed in every kitchen, and will, by its cheapness, capacity of work, and durability, ever stand pre-eminent in every household.

RAPID.—(It requires but one tenth the time of the old method.)

NEAT.—(The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted.)

There is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers.

DURABLE.—(It is warranted to last for years.)

GROCERS.—Use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste.

DRUGGISTS.—Pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it.

It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.

For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place.

☞ Parties wishing to purchase City or Town Agencies, can by the investment of a trifling capital realize from $10 to $20 per day.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly safe to assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Burne's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 25 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. BURNS, P. O. Box 1285, New York City.

Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of what we do know, after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.

Price, Only 35 Cents per Bottle.

Apropos to the matter of which we are writing, we will mention the fact that a building is to be immediately erected adjoining the Mechanics' Reading Room and Nowell's Shoe Factory, corner of State and Pleasant streets, of the same size as the present structure, and we believe it is the intention of the projectors to merge the two upper stories together, relatively, and Mr. Nowell will thereby enlarge his borders and be furnished with the room which his steadily increasing shoe business demands. The lower floor of this new edifice is to be occupied by Mr. Rufus K. Oxford, of grocery fame, where he intends to launch out a little more extensively in that line, as his better accommodations will allow. The building is to be completed prior to the first of January. Mr. J. C. Carr is the gentleman who furnishes the oil to set this machinery in motion.

MUCH SMOKE AND BUT LITTLE FIRE. A sensation story was going the rounds of the city on Monday, to the effect that a man was brutally assaulted near the junction of the Middle and Rye Roads, at the "Willows," by a party of three young men riding out in a carriage Saturday evening. It was represented that the assailants, espying their victim, leaped from their carriage, and knocking the man down, kicked him in the face, head, back, stomach, legs, arms, &c., and then threw him over the wall into a pasture. Riding off a short distance—as if their revengeful desires were yet unsatiated—they returned and again went through the process of beating, kicking, and otherwise maltreating the unknown individual.

It proved, however to have been a man enjoying a drunken rest by the roadside, and the young men referred to merely touched him with their feet to discover whether there still remained in him a sufficient amount of consciousness to enable him to lay in the road during the night. Concluding there was not, they gently lifted the inebriate form over the wall, into the pasture, that he might be free from danger of being run over by passing teams.

☞ Died, in Greenland, Sept. 30, Mrs. NANCY R. WHITE, aged 56, wife of Mr. Nath'l White, formerly of New Castle. Mrs. W. was a native of Nova Scotia, but resided many years at New Castle, where she is well remembered as a steadfast friend of public worship, Sunday Schools, and general benevolence—whose decision and force of character gave her much influence for good.

NAVAL.—Lieut. G. R. Haswell has been detached from the Vandalia and ordered to the Vanderbilt.

Carpenter Mark W. Paul has been detached from the Tuscarora and awaits orders.

— From Mexico we have reports to Sept. 16,—unfavorable to the Liberals.

— In Minnesota there is a bounteous crop of wheat, and a large crop of corn, well ripened. In Western Minnesota the same. The wheat is thirty bushels to the acre.

— The number of guns of all classes manufactured by the Fort Pitt Works at Pittsburg, during a period of four years, foots up 2509, and the metal used in their composition amounts to 50,735,455 pounds, or nearly 25,368 tons.

— The ladies of Lynchburg were not allowed to hold their meeting to petition the President for the pardon of Jeff. Davis. The military authorities forbade the assemblage.

— Dr. J. B. Church of New Bedford committed a brutal outrage on the person of a little girl but eight years old, who went to his office for medicine one day last week. He has thus far escaped arrest.

— Orders have been received at St. Paul, Minn., directing the execution of Little Six and Medicine Bottle, the two Sioux chiefs who have been under sentence of death at Fort Snelling for a year past.

— The Presbyterry of Newark, N. J., has formally denounced the practice of horse-racing, especially in connection with fairs and agricultural exhibitions.

— The Nashville Press says: "The army of pardon-seekers seems to have been more successful than Lee's ever was, for it has captured Washington, and pretty well occupied the District of Columbia."

— Admiral Goldsborough's fleet is still at Cherbourg, and is not to proceed to the Mediterranean until the cholera on the coast is somewhat abated. The French and American ships and officials have exchanged many courtesies, and a cordial feeling is entertained and a friendly attitude always maintained between them.

— A milk company has been formed in Bangor, which will receive milk for several neighboring towns, and deliver the same to families in quart cans, for from 5 to 6 cents a quart.

— A New Yorker, living in Nineteenth St., discovered the other day that he had lived for two years on the same block with his brother, whom he had not seen for 12 years.

— Smelts are selling on the Kennebec river at five cents per dozen; in Boston they are given away at just six times that price. The carriage from down east is the cause of the difference—and at this rate is a little over two cents per fish, or somewhere about $2000 per ton.

— A coal mine has been discovered at the foot of the classic Mount Olympus, 30 miles from Salonica. It is a most important discovery for the Mitorranean steamers, which can obtain their fuel from it. The mine is already successfully worked.

TO MOTHERS.—Again let us say, don't be without Dr. BICKNELL'S SYRUP at this season of year. It contains no opiates, and is safe and reliable for cure of Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c.

ARE THEY GOING?—We refer, reader, to your teeth. Be careful. Next to your eyes, your teeth are the most precious of your facial organs. Use the Fragrant Sozodont. It will at once arrest decay, and prevent what are now but mere specks from being orifices. In brief, it will save and beautify your teeth. And it is the only thing that can save them. Reflect on this. o2cod1w 9

HORSESHOES,

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make more use of many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron is sold at a price at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

BLAIR ON LEE.—Montgomery Blair says in a late letter:

"Let me observe here it was the fall of Sumter that produced on the instant the ordinance of secession, and filled it with troops from the Gulf States to carry it before the people. Its effect upon ordinary men may be conceived by the influence it exerted over General Lee. My father was authorized by the President and Mr. Cameron, Secretary of War, to converse with General Lee and ascertain whether he would accept of the command of our army in the field. The letter was written, and he met my father at my house, where they conversed for an hour or more. It was a few days before the ordinance was passed. Gen. Lee concluded the conversation by saying that secession was anarchy, and added that if he owned the four millions of slaves at the South he would cheerfully sacrifice them to the Union, but he did not know how he could draw his sword on his native State. He said he would see General Scott on the subject before he decided. A committee from the Virginia Convention, while the General and my father conversed, were hunting for him through the city. They met him on his leaving the house. He repaired with them to consult with the Convention, as I have since learned, about some mode of settlement. The fall of Sumter settled the question for him and the Convention."

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (owing in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Babe, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blotches, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies for their cure, which, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain secret, Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUES,

Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this highly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1865.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

BOSTON, Oct. 2d, 1865.

On the retirement of E. B. Phillips, Esq., from the superintendence of the Boston & Worcester railroad, which event took place recently, the employees of that corporation presented him with a testimonial of their affection. The articles contributed were from the establishment of Mr. C. W. Kennard, (formerly at Portsmouth,) at No. 297 Washington street, Boston; and consisted of a dozen elegant table knives and a dozen dessert knives, two dozen silver tea spoons, a dozen silver table spoons, ditto forks, two carvers and steel carving rests, a dozen dessert forks, a large silver soup ladle, a pair of silver berry spoons and two silver gravy ladles—all in an elegant black walnut case. The greatest care was taken in the selection of these pieces, and the quality and finish are highly creditable to the judgment of Mr. Kennard, who, I am happy to say, is building up quite a business. In addition to the above mentioned articles, Mr. Phillips' present consisted of sixteen volumes of the American Cyclopedia, four annuals, one industrial biography, and a copy of Mitchell's Atlas.

Capt. Parington of the ship Golconda, which arrived at this port last week from Calcutta, brought with him as freight a Brahma cow, several Putnah goats, Ganges geese, East India Deer and Hindoo sheep, which he sold to Wm. Stark of Manchester, N. H. The statement that Mr. Stark imported them is not correct, as Capt. P. brought them over for any party who was willing to pay for them.

Maj. Gen. Banks, recently mustered out of service, has given up his idea of living in Louisiana, and arrived in Boston last Wednesday, stopping at Parker's. A supper was given in his honor on Saturday evening, at which a select few were invited. It is no secret what Gen. Banks came home for. It is his desire to go to Congress again, provided he can get the nomination. Mr. Gooch of the Sixth District took Mr. Tuck's (of Exeter, N. H.,) place in the Boston Custom House, and so there is quite a scramble for Mr. Gooch's chance. There are many contestants, but until the arrival of Gen. Banks the race lay between J. Q. A. Griffin, a prominent lawyer residing at Medford, and ex-Mayor Stone of Charlestown, with the chances all in favor of Griffin. Most of the delegates to the nominating convention have been instructed to vote for Griffin, but now there is a strong feeling among the people that they would like to return Gen. Banks to the scene of his former triumphs. A few days will decide the question; meanwhile the rival aspirants are each doing his best for the nomination.

Messrs. Anson Hardy and Charles Burley, iron safe manufacturers in this city, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Burley resides in Exeter, N. H.

A very extensive system of robberies at the Boston Post Office has been discovered. They were perpetrated by boys, who broke open letters sent by their employers to the office, and rifled them of their contents. L.

KENTUCKY.—It appears from the Washington correspondence of the Boston Journal that Gen. Palmer, Commander of the District of Kentucky, who has been at W., on business connected with military affairs in that State, recommends to the President that four thousand of the colored troops now on duty in Kentucky be mustered out of service. This will reduce the colored portion of his command to about six thousand men, which he thinks will be adequate to the task of maintaining order throughout the State. Gen. Palmer expects to receive the President's reply to-day.

State officials of Kentucky in connection with Gen. Green Clay Smith have for sometime past been trying to effect the removal of General Palmer from the command of the Kentucky department because of his thorough-going military measures against the institution of slavery, and especially of his pass system, under which slavery was being virtually abolished in that State. They also favor the withdrawal of all the colored troops from Kentucky. Gov. Bramlette and Green Clay Smith send letters of complaint to the Secretary of War on the subject. The latter gentleman bases his demand for the removal of Gen. Palmer on the ground that he (Gen. Palmer) does not recognise the fact that slavery is still in operation in Kentucky, and that he disregards the laws of the State for its protection. Gen. Palmer was permitted to come to represent his side of the case, which he has done with ability and satisfactorily to the authorities. The question, which has not been definitely decided, was referred by the Secretary of War to Gens. Grant and Thomas. Meanwhile Gen. Palmer retains his command.

JUSTICE'S COURT, Newington, Sept. 29, Before Justice Batchelder.—Elias Frink, for aggravated assault on Henry DeRochemont, waived examination, and was bound over in $600 to appear at the Superior Court, Oct. 17th.——Elias Frink, for assault on F. W. DeRochemont, jr., was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $20.16. ——Elias Frink, for assault on G. E. Coleman, was discharged on the merits of the case.

HOPELESSLY INSANE.—Our comic editor hands in the following, which he calls an epigram. His speedy exit, before we had mastered its contents, saved us the necessity of writing his obituary:

COMPARATIVELY GOOD.

The Yankee widow heaves a sigh, then (eminently practical) mayhap constructs a pie;
The Hindoo widow utters moan and cry, and then constructs a pyre.
The first from men evokes not e'en a "Ile!"
The last from stolid wood evokes a fire.

☞ It will be seen by a notice elsewhere that a movement is on foot for the early closing of stores in this city the coming winter. This is as it should be, (and those connected with morning newspapers are competent to judge of the fearful tax upon human endurance which late hours lay,) and we are glad to know that some of our first dealers are the originators of the plan.

☞ Father Kemp's Old Folks are to give one of their grand Concerts here on Saturday evening. Here, as everywhere else where they have appeared, they have too high a reputation in their line of music to need a word of praise from us. Miss Nichols, the charming ballad singer, also adds her attractions to the entertainment; while the costumes of our forefathers are faithfully duplicated in those of this troupe.

☞ We understand that an opportunity for learning to write a good hand, is to be afforded this season by the opening of a writing school in the Brick School House in State street, by Mr. A. C. Hoyt, who taught successfully last year.

DELICIOUS.—The splendid black Hamburg Grapes raised by Mr. Davis at Sagamore Creek, and sold by Mr. Avery.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Samuel Morrison of Windham, a graduate of Bangor Seminary, is to be ordained Pastor of St. Lawrence Church, Portland, Me., Oct. 19.

—— The Trustees of Dartmouth College advertise for proposals for building the new gymnasium, for which money was received this summer.

—— A couple of enterprising gentlemen have purchased about forty acres of the "tip top" of Kearsarge, and propose to erect a hotel thereon and to construct a carriage road to the top. This mountain has recently become a favorite resort.

—— The representatives of the City Government of St. Louis, who honored Boston with a visit during a few days past, left Boston Monday morning, and proceeded to Manchester in a special train, accompanied by Gov. Smyth and ex-Gov. Gilmore, Hon. Mr. Stearns of the Amoskeag corporation, Mr. Adams of the Stark corporation, and Mr. Smith of the Print Works. On arriving in Manchester about half-past one o'clock, a visit was paid to the Mills, after which the party dined at the Manchester House. Thereafter they witnessed the operations of a steam fire engine, and took the cars for New York at 4 o'clock. The St. Louis gentlemen expressed great satisfaction with the courtesies everywhere extended to them in New England.

—— On Sunday evening, at Manchester, there was a great Temperance Meeting at Smyth's Hall, and a petition was presented to the Mayor for the suppression of illegal liquor selling. This petition was signed by about 2000 women, and presented by one of their number. It was stated that 300 men, whose names and places were known, sold intoxicating liquors, and there were 450 such places in all, secret and open—selling at least $40,000 worth every month—making sots, paupers and criminals, and producing vice and misery. To close these shops would be to empty the jails and close the police courts. To counteract this influence, there were in the city proper about 12 common schools and 12 churches. Rev. Mr. Wallace, one of the speakers, said both Moral and Legal Suasion seemed to be needful,—as sometimes it was well to have two lines of Railroad—and he urged the Mayor to run on the legal line.

SALMON FALLS.—This little village, which suffered so much by the fire in July, 1864, Phœnix like has risen from its ashes and is assuming its former appearance and activity. A new and splendid mill has been erected upon the site of the one destroyed, and is nearly ready for the machinery. A nice and commodious house is in process of erection for the agent Joshua Converse, Esq., and will surpass, in many respects, any house in Strafford County. A. G. Haley, of the "Cattle Tie" celebrity, is as busy as a bee manufacturing his cattle ties, producing about 25 dozen daily, which are sent to all parts of the country.—Rochester Courier.

[From the Concord (N. H.) Statesman.]

THE ATTRACTIONS OF BOSTON FOR SICK WOMEN.—Mr. Editor:—A lady's letter is often valued by conductors of the press,—may I hope not from gallantry alone, but because it is apt to touch many responsive chords in the hearts of their readers. My own, that I now write you, is upon a matter that has deeply interested me. It is one of universal concern, about which we should all of us have heard long ago, had it not been far the all-absorbing claims of the war, and I am sure you will thank me for bringing the subject to your notice.

First and foremost among our earthly blessings we place our health; too often, however, valuing it only in proportion as it has been lost. Especially is such the case with us women, who in this country are confessedly prone to invalidism. In health, we are said to surpass all other nations in beauty, intelligence, activity and energy of character; but we early break down, and in many instances early die, from causes partly within and partly beyond our control. All this being generally acknowledged, it is the duty of each of us to do what she can to counteract the evil; and I know that what I am about to describe may be very new and very welcome to many of my sex.

In New York and in Boston, within a very few years, there have been established hospitals for the special treatment of invalid women; the one a State institution, the other chiefly a private charity, although within a few months it also has received a grant of several thousand dollars from the commonwealth. It is of the latter, that in Boston, that I wish to speak.

I have recently had an opportunity of visiting the New England Hospital for Women, as it is called—for it aims to extend its benefits not to Massachusetts alone—and have been surprised to find how much efficient work was there being done in a quiet, unassuming way. The hospital is situated upon Warren and Pleasant streets, not far from the centre of the city, and comprises four buildings, formerly dwelling houses, that have been altered and arranged with entire reference to their present use, so that the medical patient may be separated from the surgical, and these again from those lying-in. The charity has been in operation some two years, but has only lately removed to the premises it now occupies, which are much more convenient and suitable than its former single building. During the year ending in November last, I find from the report then published, there were entered as resident patients 127 women, of whom 66 were upon free beds, and the remaining 61 paid for their board, either in whole or in part; and that 1977 others were treated in the dispensary, coming regularly to the hospital for advice and medicines, though not ill enough to necessitate admission to the wards. There were also 69 children born within the institution during the year. Since that time, as the hospital has become more widely known, the demands upon it have largely increased, and I am told that not only is it always full, but that applications are often made weeks before admission can be granted. Of course this success may in part be attributed to the reputation of the physicians who have it in charge, but it is also partly owing to the immense need that everywhere exists for such a charity—a need that has been well described and explained by the attending surgeon, Dr. Storer, in a letter that was printed last year by the Trustees, and sparingly circulated, of which I was so fortunate as to obtain a copy. Were it not trespassing too much on your limits, I should beg you would publish it entire, it possesses such interest for the public at large. By the letter it is shown that—

1. "In a special hospital women naturally have more privacy; a most essential point to many.

2. "They find more sympathy, and experience much less offensive and impertinent curiosity from their fellow patients; and

3. "They are more likely to be under the charge of persons constantly familiar with certain forms and types of disease than can well be the case with most general practitioners. The argument being the same here as when applied to the treatment of other affections, of the eye for instance."

To this letter is appended an endorsement of its arguments by Drs. Channing, Bowditch, Cabot and Putnam, who are among the oldest and most respected physicians of Boston, and the first three of whom are connected with the hospital as its Consulting Staff.

I noticed that the hospital was partially under the charge of skilled ladies, who have been educated for this very work. The resident physician, Dr. Sewall, who lives within the hospital buildings, and who has charge more particularly of the maternity department, pursued her studies in Europe under the most favorable auspices; while the attending physician, Dr. Zakrzewska, also a lady, is a German by birth, and was formerly connected with the great charity hospital of Berlin.—The surgical cases are under the charge of Dr. H. R. Storer, who is said to have an extended reputation among medical men.

I was struck by the cleanliness and general orderly appearance of the hospital, and by its cheerfulness; elements of the very first importance for sanitary reasons.

As already stated, the hospital has very many more applicants for beds than can be accommodated, and it is intended for patients of little or no pecuniary means. There has always been need, also, for a wealthier class of female invalids, of better accommodations than can be afforded at hotels and ordinary boarding houses, attended, as these must necessarily be, by noise, confusion and other discomforts. Wealthy patients, or even those of more moderate means, would not of course be likely to be as contented at a public hospital as at a private house, even could they there receive all the attentions and all the comforts to which they have been accustomed at home. To meet the necessities of this class, the surgeon of the hospital, Dr. Storer, has opened a private infirmary of his own, in Boylston Place, near the Common, to which I was also permitted access. This is solely for ladies of means, who may require special treatment. The matron in charge seems a very pleasant and agreeable person,—one who is fully competent to her several duties, and the patients there resident were gathered from a wide circuit of country; Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Maine and New Hampshire being each represented at the time of my visit. Indeed, I learned that many if not most of the doctor's patients are sent to him by physicians.

To this class of invalids I have alluded only incidentally. It was of course the public hospital in which I was most interested, appealing as this does to every woman's personal sympathy. There are few institutions that promise to effect so much good for the people of New England; few that appeal so strongly for active material assistance to persons of wealth, who are anxious to use their means for the welfare of suffering humanity; and I cannot but think that strangers who are visiting the city will be well repaid, even if in perfect health, by an inspection of the various wards of the Woman's Hospital.

Is warranted to restore GRAY HAIR in all cases to its original color, whether black or brown.

It will not stain the skin or the finest linen.

It will instantly arrest the hair from falling off; cause hair to grow on BALD HEADS when fallen off by disease; and is a complete dressing for the hair, keeping it moist and glossy and perfumed longer than any other preparation in the market.

This article is warranted to do as represented, or the money will be refunded. It is positively the greatest discovery in hair preparations of the age.

On the part of the South can prevent the success of the Union arms. Grant and Sherman's policy, like

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE,

Everywhere establishes colors which are beautiful in the people's eyes. The hues of the National Flag are those of Heaven, but among all the dyes of Earth there is none save CRISTADORO'S that produces instantaneously perfect the simile of nature's every shade of black and brown.—Manufactured by J. Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from diseased nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammations, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to your selves and Relief and Health to Your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world. Price, Only 25 Cents per Bottle.

Local.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 3.—It is a well-known fact among the disciples of Æsculapius that the saline breezes of the ocean have a tendency to aggravate and render fatal that insidious and dreaded disease called consumption. Hence physicians having patients suffering from pulmonary complaints direct them to hasten to some inland residence, remote from the sea air, hoping that by the adoption of such a course, a cure will be effected or life prolonged, at least. These sanitary measures are also occasionally adopted by the police court justices of this city, and when a criminal has the consumption (of liquor) bad, he is directed to seek that rural retreat on the City Farm, vulgarly called the House of Correction. Sometimes this prescription effects a cure, but oftener does not. Now in the case of Amos A. Curtis, who was sent up a few weeks ago because he made an indiscreet application of liquor to his stomach, the reaction of which, or the sudden change of diet, climate, &c.,—more especially the &c.,—caused him to be almost insane, and he straightway left his boarding-place, came into town, and undertook to inform the inhabitants of Portsmouth of his return, commencing at the Franklin House on Congress street to announce the fact. But somehow the residents of that locality couldn't seem to appreciate the importance of his arrival, and through the chicanery of the law he was again remanded to the country to further test the effects of its scenery, air, &c., upon an almost hopeless case of the above described kind of consumption.

The case of Leonard Kennston, for larceny, or suspicion thereof, was postponed until Thursday. He was bound over in the sum of $500.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

Those suffering from these diseases will read the subjoined home evidence with interest. Such testimony speaks for itself.

CERTIFICATE OF MR. BLANCHARD.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 4, 1865.

Grateful to Dr. Campbell, now at the Franklin House for being the means of completely restoring me to health, I cheerfully make this statement of my case for the benefit of others similarly afflicted.

Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh in its most severe form; my head, throat and nostrils were badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health completely broken down, so much so that I was obliged to stop work at the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no help, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C. one year ago. In three weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the "fastening department" at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have remained there steadily ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and am a living evidence that by Dr. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH CAN BE CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, my sense of smell has returned acute as ever, and I can in this certificate but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I carried out my treatment at home without any difficulty or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice. Persons who doubt can call on me at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to verify this statement.

STEPHEN BLANCHARD,
Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsmouth, N. H.

☞ We understand that the Messrs. Laightons of the Appledore House, Smith's Isles, have recently refused an offer of $200,000 for their island together with the buildings thereon. It is also stated that they intend purchasing a steamer at a cost of about $15,000 to put on the line between Portsmouth and the Shoals during the coming summer.

☞ The fire which was so visible from this city on Tuesday afternoon was caused by the burning of scores of acres of woodland in Great Swamp, Greenland. If we don't have rain soon, we predict that wood will bring a good round price this winter.

☞ Mr. C. C. Salter of Portsmouth, a graduate of the Cambridge Divinity School, has received a unanimous call from the First Parish in West Cambridge.

A MILITARY PRISONER.—It has been several months since any person has been arrested in this Congressional District by the military authorities until within a few days past. A man by the name of Charles Scruton enlisted as a soldier at Concord, N. H., about a year ago, and secured as town, State and Government bounty the sum of $1100. After he was paid his bounty he received a pass for two hours to leave camp, when he embraced the opportunity and deserted, failing to return. He was arrested Sunday night last in one of the towns in the upper part of the District by J. Horace Kent, late U. S. Detective. Mr. Kent was especially appointed for this case and his appointment ceases with it. Several ineffectual attempts have been made heretofore by other parties to capture Scruton. He is in appearance very gentlemanly, but has been reported as rather a tough customer. He says Mr. Kent's style is rather more fore ble than polite, that is he breaks in doors in the middle of the night without knocking. Such abrupt manners as these he has a decided objection to. The prisoner was taken to Concord Monday night, there to await orders from Washington.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The President is strongly disposed to appoint a Provisional Governor for Louisiana, but looks with little favor upon Gov. Wells. He objects to some features of the present Constitution of the State.

An impartial suffrage meeting is to be held at an early day, probably on Thursday next. Gen. Butler and Senator Wilson are to speak.

The receipts from internal revenue Monday were upwards of $3,000,000.

The Richmond Bulletin, a vile Copperhead sheet, has been suppressed by Gen. Terry, in consequence of the publication of a treasonable editorial.

CONNECTICUT.—A Hartford dispatch says: Hartford gives 654 majority against the amendment allowing the negroes to vote. Greenwich gives a democratic majority for the town ticket, and 285 majority against the Constitutional amendment. 33 towns have given 2800 majority against the amendment, which is probably defeated by from 3000 to 5000 votes. Sufficient returns have been received to show that the majority against the Constitutional amendment will be several thousand.

☞ It is believed that upon Gen. Grant's return to Washington, which will be some time this week, important military measures will be initiated, among which the withdrawal of nearly all the volunteer troops in the South and the discharge of the Veteran Reserve Corps, it being held that recruiting for the regular army is brisk enough to enable that branch of the service to do all the work necessary to be done in that direction.

☞ We are indebted to N. K. Raynes, Esq., for late Texas papers.

☞ Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at South Hampton next Sunday.

☞ Gov. Andrew declines the Presidency of Antioch College, and will probably be at the head of a great emigration society for the South.

☞ The latest report from Mexico is favorable to the Liberals, who have captured Tehuacan, with $100,000, and hold the road between Monterey and Matamoras.

— A letter from Augusta, Me., states that on Friday last the freight shipped from Boston by the steamer Daniel Webster was burned while being transported from Gardiner to Augusta on the freight train, having been very injudiciously placed on a flat open car next the engine. The fire occurred at Hallowell. Nearly all the goods belonged to sufferers by the late fire. The value is estimated at over $20,000.

TO MOTHERS.—Again let us say, don't be without Dr BICKNELL'S SYRUP at this season of year. It contains no opiates, and is safe and reliable for cure of Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand-made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated nail hole, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the factory price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and sure cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsle and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. J. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK,

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid, 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the care of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines carefully packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Ceblalis, of Venezuela, who immediately took her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,

Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rhematic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots need for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron B. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

VOL. XXVII. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THURSDAY, OCT. 5, 1865 : 278. No. 82.

The Chronicle.

— The hop crop in England is excellent, and prices have declined in London 5s to 6s cwt.

— The Illustrated Annual of Phrenology and Physiology for 1866, is the best ever issued, with Counting House Calendar. Post-paid for 12 cents, by Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

— Coal in New York sells for eleven dollars a ton. In London, with a population of three millions to be supplied from fields two hundred and fifty miles distant, the price of coal is five dollars and a quarter.

— After the graceful manner in which, by their unqualified endorsement of Andy Johnson the Democrats manage to bolt down the Emancipation Proclimation, arbitrary arrests, military bureaus, courts martial, military governors, etc., a cotemporary thinks negro suffrage will soon go down with them.

— A Virginia lawyer, who had aided secession, asked to be admitted to the bar of the U. S. District Court, for that district, claiming that a pardon from the President cancelled all former acts of disloyalty. Judge Underwood denied his request. This was a test case, as there are many other similar cases.

— At the Gloucester Farms on Sunday, 24th ult, a man by the name of Sampson was leading a horse by a long halter, and put his hand on the horse's side to prevent his stepping on him, when the horse suddenly wheeled and kicked violently, striking the man in the head, injuring him so severely that he bled to death.

— The Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Village near Alexandria, Va., has reported to Gen. Howard that during the month of September there were near three hundred and nine freedmen subsisted at that village at a cost of $382.18. About one half this number are old and infirm people.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1865.

EQUALITY OF STATES.—The result of the Connecticut election is not favorable to impartial suffrage, nor to dealing justly with the freedmen, just yet. Nevertheless, justice will be done, sometime. It is highly probable that a move will be made in Congress, for an Amendment of Constitution, by which each State will have Representatives only in proportion to her voting population. This should be popular, and we think it will be; for how can any representative from New Hampshire or Connecticut face his constituents, after voting that South Carolina, with less than half as many voters, can have as many representatives as both these States? We do not pretend here to give exact numbers—but we make the gross inequality very plain.

Gov. Perry says this must be a "White Man's Government." And some copperheads and blockheads in Connecticut say Amen, So mote it be.

Did these men ever hear anything about State equality? It was a great cry only a few years ago,—and then it meant that the Slave States, whether many or few, should be a little more than equal in political power to all the Free States.

And now, the White Man's Government means, that the negroes in South Carolina shall be counted in when we say how many Representatives she shall have in Congress, but counted out when the people are to vote.

It means, in short, that one white man in Carolina shall be equal to two white men in Connecticut! Is any copperhead so perverse, or any blockhead so stupid, as to say this is equality? or democracy? We trow not.

Let the Amendment, then, be adopted by Congress and the States, so as to make a Connecticut white man equal to one in Carolina,—and we should soon see the Carolinas giving suffrage to the black man—not because it is right, but because they wish to keep their power.

And then, after Carolina does the deed, we may possibly see Connecticut go and do likewise! We have seen stranger things than these. A proud South and a selfish North,—the one wedded to slaveholding, and the other worshipping the slaveholder, fighting each other to the death—and in the midst of the contest destroying slavery, and thereby saving the Nation from absolute suicide.

Justice yet remains to be done. If we do it now, well: if not, we must pass again through some furnace of affliction, and then do it after all. Verily there is a God who judgeth in the earth, and from his judgments there is no escape.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Charleston News sums up the action of the State Convention at Columbia thus:

The Ordinance of Secession has been repealed; slavery has been abolished; property qualification for the Senate has been revoked; foreigners, after two years' residence, without citizenship, may vote; the principle of taxation, according to value, has been adopted; representation is to be upon the basis of white population; the Governor is to be elected by the people and serve for four years; no district is to have more than twelve representatives; and each district is to have but one Senator, and Charleston is to have three.

These changes are so rapid that people are too much bewildered by them to properly estimate their effects. The first two were anticipated, and though of enormous import, were so considered, that they occasion little concern. The State is again in the Union, if no difficulty shall be interposed by other parties, and the labor system of our State, and our relation to our colored population are changed

☞ The Eastern Railroad Corporation is about to build a new and substantial bridge across the Merrimack River at Newburyport, which is to be a great improvement. The carriage road will remain on the old bridge, we suppose with some changes for the better.

— Mary Eldridge, 15 years, has cut at Ashfied, Mass., this year, with a machine, over fifty acres of grass, for her father and the neighbors, without assistance.

— There is a brisk demand for lumber, and prices have still an upward tendency. Dealers who refrained from selling when prices were low and the market stagnant, are now realizing largely from their sales.

— Catania, a seaport, and one of the finest cities in Sicily, which has been several times desolated by earthquakes and eruptions of Etna, had recently again upwards of 160 houses destroyed by a severe shock of earthquake.

— It appears from the recently published foreign correspondence that the Chinese government, by proclamation, prevented the Alabama and other rebel cruisers from entering its ports.

— A man in St. Louis has sued for divorce on the ground that the marriage by which it is alleged he is bound was performed when he was under the influence of some stupefying potion the designing woman had administered to him.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— From Dover there comes a rumor that the Unitarian Society propose to level to the ground their present house of worship and build a new one only half as large, and of more modern style and convenience.

—— At Littleton, Sept. 29, Mr. Frederick Hazeltine fell from a wagon with a heavy piece of machinery, which, striking his head, crushed the skull, causing instant death. Mr. H. was widely known and respected as an estimable man and earnest helper in every good work.

—— Ethan, aged about 12 years, son of John T. Cutter of Plymouth, N. H., was accidentally shot last Saturday while out gunning. He had a double barreled shot gun, and had discharged one of the barrels, when, leaning upon the muzzle of the other, it discharged, and the contents passed into his side. He lived until about 12 o'clock Saturday night.

SUFFRAGE VOTE IN CONNECTICUT.—Every county in the State votes "No" on the Constitutional amendment question except Windham, which gives about 650 majority in favor of it. Hartford county gives 1700 majority against, New Haven 2000, New London 600, Fairfield about 1500, Tolland 400, Litchfield about 500, Middlesex about 600. The majority against it in the State is not less than 6000. The result is largely owing to the conservative Republicans. So says a Hartford dispatch.

It is estimated that there are two thousand colored persons in the State of Connecticut who might vote in New Hampshire, and that the vote denying them the franchise will show six thousand majority. The last vote taken in Connecticut on this question, in 1857, resulted in a majority against enfranchisement of 13,790 in a vote under 25,000. The Presidential vote of the State at the election of 1856 turned out 80,325 votes, so that less than one third of the people expressed their mind on the question in 1857. The vote of Monday is probably much heavier in proportion. Yet not heavy, nor any where near a full vote. Besides the "conservative" republicans, the nobodies are greatly responsible for the result, because they did not act. It is highly probable that every copperhead, and every worshiper of the "stump of Dagon," was out and voted.

INDIANS.—A dispatch from Lawrence, Kansas, says Col. Wells, Superintendent of the Southern Indians, has made an important treaty with the Osage tribe at the council ground on Friday. The Osages cede about one million acres, for which the Government pays $300,000. About two millions of acres were also ceded from the north side of their reservation, to be held in trust for the Indians. All these lands are in Kansas, and the rights of settlers on these lands, who are heads of families, are protected by the treaty.

CHOLERA.—At Aleppo, Beyrout and Alexandretta, in Syria, the cholera was making great ravages. Also at Damascus, where the deaths averaged 200 a day. This was the case at Jaffa. In the Dardanelles and at Constantinople it was on the decline. It is noticed as a general fact that the Jews have thus far been exempt from the plague, and it is said:

The majority of the plague-stricken have been the habitual drunkards and the unclean. The long standing dust bin, the stagnant sewer, the weighted clothes-line exhaling unwholesome vapors—such is the soil in which cholera sows its seeds with the greatest success; they spring up and quickly choke the enfeebled stems of health. Four hours have often sufficed to complete the fatal work, but some have held out for nearly forty.

LOUISIANA.—Gen. Canby has suspended Assistant Superintendent Calahan of the Freedmen's Bureau at Shreveport, pending an investigation into serious charges. Calahan is the individual who placed a whole court under arrest a few days since.

DEATH OF A DESERTER.—Frederick Wilson, Sergeant Major of the 24th Mass., regiment who was sent to Fort Independence as a deserter, died there on Sunday of delirum tremens.

— The new English House of Commons contains forty-four dissenters and thirty-four Catholics.

— The Gloucester Telegraph says: A single acre of land in Manchester, devoted to the cultivation of cranberries, produces six hundred bushels of those berries this season, which, at present prices, may be considered a profitable yield.

— The Cincinnati Commercial denies that the railroad disaster in Indiana last week was an attempt to kill Gen. Grant. It says a careful examination of all the circumstances favors the conclusion that there was no design whatever to kill the General.

— A sad accident occurred at South Framingham, Mass., Monday. While Mrs. Sarah Tuck was standing on the platform of the car, the engine started, throwing her upon the ground. The wheels passed over her body, killing her almost instantly. No blame is attached to the corporation or to any of its employees. The deceased was 75 years old, and resided in Beverly.

A BOSTON NOTION.—Richards's Wine and Spirit Bottling House—A Model Establishment.—Among the leading business establishments in Boston, we feel quire sure that none can claim more merit, or show more genuine enterprise, than the Wine and Spirit Bottling House of Mr. C. A. Richards, No. 29 Washington st. Comparatively few of our citizens really know what the establishment is, and still fewer are aware of the extent of business which Mr. Richards, by his own energy and sagacity, has built up. In some respects it exceeds, beyond all question, any similar house in the country; if indeed there is precisely any "similar" one that can be cited. The building itself is one hundred and fifty feet in length, and seven stories in height. Each of these stories is stocked with goods that go in part to make up Mr. Richards's trade. Besides this he has an extensive building at the South End, especially erected for the purpose, where a part of the bottling and labelling process is carried on. Still another portion of his goods is kept in the U. S. Warehouses, or in bond, from which he draws as demands require. Mr. Richards employs full fifty hands, who are kept constantly busy, and at times are incessantly driven by rapidly arriving orders. And adding to orders, we may state that they come from all quarters of the country. There is not a considerable city between Boston and St. Louis with which Mr. Richards does not hold business connection; and one of the largest orders he ever filled was but a few days ago to go to Mobile and New Orleans.

We need hardly state that the business with which Mr. Richards opened this establishment a few years since, was the sale of wines, cigars, sauces, pickles, the nicer condiments, and kindred articles, and that in these, so uniformly excellent were they, the enterprise was a great success. Everybody, apparently, went to Richards's, for they found profit in it. But within two years the business has taken a turn, as it were, which now forms the leading feature of the establishment, and towards which the live proprietor is especially bending his exhaustless energies. We refer to the bottling and casing of wines and spirits. This trade has become immense, and is every day increasing. Last year Mr. Richards put upon orders over one hundred thousand cases! These figures will be entirely eclipsed the present year. The articles forming the principal portion of this trade are Extract of Rye, Golden Sheaf Bourbon, and Dunster's London Dock Gin. The public have ascertained that these articles are positively pure and reliable, are sold at moderate prices, and accordingly are ordered from nearly every portion of the country. The Rye and Bourbon are manufactured at the West exclusively for Mr. Richards, and the quality is never reduced. The grade can always be depended upon. Each of these articles is put up in a most attractive form, which includes a handsome bottle, tasteful label, and a handsome box. Of itself, this is no insignificant expense or labor. Thousands of dollars have been expended in engravings, cuts, etc., alone. We need no more than make a passing mention of the utility of this form of preparing the articles enumerated, to say nothing of the agreeable neatness of the thing. These goods are especially designed for druggists and grocers, who in turn supply them to families and others for private use. It is precisely the channel—just as the goods are precisely the right ones—they have long been needed. Thousands of people have already, we feel sure, heartily thanked Mr. Richards for his well-directed energies in this field, and many more thousands will gratefully shower their benedictions upon him. It is one of those happy inventions of trade which, while it brings thankful renown upon the author, at the same time is attended with a just pecuniary success.

Mr. Richards has not and does not intend to lessen his efforts in the former specialities of the establishment:—for he loves the bridge which has borne him over the golden stream—but will, if necessary, increase them. He wisely means that old patrons, as well as new, shall have their calls answered. In this connection we may as well state that his trade in California wines, also a marked feature of the house, will be maintained. The bottling and casing feature is likewise carried on in this department. We venture to ask the judgment of the public on these Wines, and to suggest that no better are sold or used.

We need add but a word more. The establishment of Mr. Richards is well worth visiting. It is, in fact, an institution of very great interest, as we look upon it. The proprietor, who is proverbially one of the most courteous gentlemen in Boston, is always glad to receive and show visitors over his place; and visitors are sure to come away with their eyes and ideas much more opened than when they entered. They will see what enterprise can accomplish, when directed by a bold yet prudent hand. They will meet a man in the vigor of life, good-looking, well-dressed, active, with a kind, graceful word for everybody, and who is at the same time a sagacious business man; the sole head of an establishment known like a household word all over the land, and whose seal upon an article is a bond for its quality; a man who controls a great trade, but is familiar with all its smallest details; in short the visitor will see and very likely grasp the hand of one of the leading business spirits of Boston, and who adds to high mercantile integrity and force, the record of an honorable and efficient service in the councils of the City Government.—Bos. Post.

LARGE ROBBERY.—The store of Messrs. John Louty & Co., in Philadelphia, was robbed of $15,000 worth of silk goods on the 18th ult. On Wednesday last a young man named John Peacock was arrested on suspicion, and proved to be the thief. The biding place of the goods were ascertained and all of them recovered, but partly in a damaged condition. A portion of them were found in a tomb in a cemetery in Philadelphia, of which the prisoner had made a diagram. Peacock hired rooms next to the store and cut through the partition wall.

☞ Gen. John B. Clarke, ex-rebel Congressman from Missouri, has been arrested at San Antonio and sent to New Orleans. He confirms the report of the murder of the rebel Gen. Parsons, and three of his friends, while traveling to Matamoras. He says that the condition of Mexico is most unsatisfactory, the imperial Government exercising its powers with the greatest severity.

— The Stock Board of New York is the great gambling establishment of the country. Thus, in the month of September, the number of Erie shares sold was 229,725, which is nearly double the whole stock; of Reading, 198,305; of Michigan Southern, 139,940; and of Cleveland and Pittsburg, 141,032. These are merely speculative sales, hardly representing any transfers of stock. Of Michigan Central, only 10,256 shares were sold, and of New York Central, the greatest stock road in the country, only 47,999.

DR. TEBBETTS'

Physiological Hair Regenerator.

The Most Wonderful Discovery of the Age.

WILL POSITIVELY RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR, whether black, brown, or auburn; and being a delightful dressing, it imparts to its beautiful glossy and healthy appearance. It will also promote a growth of new hair on bald heads, where the glands or roots of the hair are not disorganized; and effectually remove all dandruff, itching and humors from the scalp. ☞ It is warranted to produce the above results, or money refunded.

PRICE—$1 per Bottle.

Sold in Portsmouth by THACHER BROS., and by Druggists everywhere. ap7sGmd

CLOCK'S

Excelsior Hair Restorer

Is warranted to restore GRAY HAIR in all cases to its original color, whether black or brown.

It will not stain the skin or the finest linen—it will instantly arrest the hair from falling off; cause hair to grow on BALD HEADS when fallen off by disease; and is a complete dressing for the hair, keeping it moist and glossy and perfumed longer than any other preparation in the market.

This article is warranted to do as represented, or the money will be refunded. It is positively the greatest discovery in hair preparations of the age.

For sale in Portsmouth by J. H. THACHER, Apothecary, opposite the Post Office, and at No. 12 Market Square.

Also by WILLIAM R. PRESTON, Apothecary, 3 Congress Block.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE,

Everywhere establishes colors which are beautiful in the people's eyes. The hues of the National Flag are those of Heaven, but among all the dyes of Earth there is none save CRISTADORO'S that produces instantaneously perfect fac simile of nature's every shade of black and brown.—Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. e29dawim 5

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1585, New York City.

Mrs. WINSLOW

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP

For Children Teething,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammations, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to your selves and Relief and Health to Your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.

Price, Only 35 Cents per Bottle.

Local.

SIGHTS TO BE SEEN IN PORTSMOUTH. One day this week, at Noon, Uncle Toby saw one young man, drunk and staggering, led away from a tavern door by another young man; and on Wednesday morning, about 10 o'clock, he saw pass up Pleasant street to the lock-up, a beer-cart, with the driver and three beer barrels in front, one man naked from his waist-bands upward, and another man with a shirt on in the centre, and policemen on the flanks and in the rear. On inquiry, it appears the two prisoners who were so appropriately laid out on the beer cart, were a couple of Englishmen, who had been drinking beer or something else, and were both drunk; said they could whip any number of —— Yankees, and all the policemen! Getting more and more excited, they stripped and fought with each other, near the corner of Water and Jefferson streets,—but were captured by the police, and conveyed as above described, to the lock-up, in spite of their valor, oaths and screaming.

It was a sad spectacle, and its moral to every drinker is—better not touch the stuff; and to the seller, and the advertiser, and all who aid indirectly such misdeeds, it should be—consider well your share of the blame.

COURTESY is the expression of kindness: it may be true or false, but it is always pleasant to those who receive it, and graceful and profitable to those who practice it. We had an article the other day on the trials of the Post Office clerks, one of which was the lack of good manners and civility in some persons who use the mails. It was well spoken. And so there ought to be courtesy in all officers and agents who serve the public. On the Railways, in the Custom House, Post Office and Telegraph office, civil answers should always be given to civil questions, not only for the sake of the public, but for the good name of conductors, clerks and operators. Generally we suppose it is so; but an officer complains of a breach of courtesy in a single case, where no such thing was expected,—as gentlemen always look for civility and politeness from ladies.

☞ On Tuesday evening last, as the Navy Yard workmen were leaving the landing at the Bridge, amid the general confusion usually prevailing at such a time, Mr. Samuel H. Kingsbury, in attempting to push the boat off, fell overboard into the swift running tide, but was immediately rescued without damage, save a thorough saturation of his garments by salt water. These accidents to boatmen on such occasions are not so uncommon as they are unpleasant, altho' it would seem that a little water wouldn't go amiss in such dry times as these.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The store 31 Market street, which has so often defied the flames, received such severe internal injuries at the last trial that it is now being remodeled. A granite front is being put in, the stories made loftier; and thus another of our old style buildings will become modernized.

An extension has been made to Piscataqua Wharf, and John P. Lyman has erected thereon a warehouse.

Mr. F. B. Johnson has a new house on Hanover street, near Vaughan, of two stories, well advanced toward completion.

☞ We noticed on Wednesday, at Mr. Clark's store, the following array of esculents:

100 ears of Corn, weighing 65 pounds.
12 Cabbages, weighing 164 pounds.
12 Onions, girt 14 ft. 1 in., weight 8 1-4 pounds.
8 Potatoes, weighing 8 1 4 pounds.
3 Cucumbers, " 8 1-2 "

They were all raised at the City Poor Farm, despite the drought. Mr. Norton thinks that with a good farm and a good season he could raise some very fair vegetables.

☞ On Tuesday last, Mr. Thomas Hones, brewer for Mr. Jones, by a misstep fell from the head to the foot of a flight of steps, severely bruising himself. At first it was thought his leg was broken, but on examination it was found that he had fortunately escaped such injury.

☞ The Rockingham Mills raised steam on Wednesday morning, and we trust will continue to run without further interruption.

☞ Capt. Mackay, of Gloucester, has in his possession one of the twenty-four ship's-buckets on board the ship Boston, commanded by him when she was burned, which was saved by Capt. E. D. Knight, then first officer of the ship. The bucket has been newly fitted up in the same style as when on board ship, and has the following inscription on the bottom: "Saved from the ill-fated ship Boston, Capt. H. C. Mackay, burned at sea, May 26th, 1830."

☞ By the latest news from England and Ireland, it appears the arrests of Fenians are continued, troops posted and gunboats cruising, to prevent the rising of insurgents and landing of arms.

GOLD, Wednesday, 145 3-4.

The opponents of negro suffrage pretend to believe that the negroes will not be oppressed by their old masters, or if they are, they will be able to obtain justice by appealing to the tribunals of the State. This is, as Sydney Smith has said, like giving a rabbit in the hands of a scientific dissector a right of appeal to the Zoological society.—Transcript.

— The night police force of Brunswick consists of one man, who acts as captain, sergeant and high private.

— At the recent fair in Burlington, Vt., Wm. Fuller sold his four year old black colt, sired by Draco, for $6500, to S. Hubbard, New York.

— If you have a cough, don't go to church to disturb the rest of the congregation.

To MOTHERS.—Again let us say, don't be without DR BICKNELL'S SYRUP at this season of year. It contains no opiates, and is safe and reliable for cure of Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave bearing surface. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

From the Well-Spring.

OUR BABY.

"To-day we cut the fragrant sod
With trembling hands asunder,
And lay this well-beloved of God,
Our dear, dead baby, under.
O hearts that ache, and ache afresh!
O tears too blindly raining!
Our hearts are weak, yet, being flesh,
Top strong for our restraining.

Sleep, darling, sleep! cold rains shall steep
Thy little turf made dwelling:
They will not know, so far below,
What winds and storms are swelling.
The birds shall sing in the warm spring,
And flowers bloom about thee:
Thou will not heed them, love, but O,
The loneliness without thee!

Father, we will be comforted;
Thou want the gracious Giver:
We yield her up—not dead—not dead—
To dwell with Thee forever.
Take Thou our child—care for a day—
Thine while the ages blossom:
This little shining head we lay
In the Redeemer's bosom!"

— English journals say: "Mr. Donald M'Kay, the well known American shipbuilder, is in this country, and in close communication with the Admiralty, on the subject of torpedoes, which are to be laid down on the channels leading to our harbors, in case of a war."

— Thomas Smith, Birmingham, has been killed by a singular accident. He had a long pipe in his mouth, as he was opening the garden gate it came in contact with the bowl of his pipe with such a force that the end of it which he had in his mouth went through his tongue. An abscess rapidly formed under the tongue and caused death.

— On the 13th ult. a sad accident occurred at one of the collieries near Wigan. Eight colliers and dwawers were ascending the shaft in the cage, and when within a few yards of the top the wire rope slipped from the drum, and the sudden jerk snapping it, the cage fell to the bottom, a distance of about 270 yards. The eight men, were, of course, killed instantly.

— The Continental folks, a day or two since, hearing of the whereabouts of a guest who had decamped without going through the usual formality of paying his bill, sent him a note: "Mr. ——, Dear Sir: Will you send the amount of your bill, and oblige," etc. To which the delinquent made answer: The amount is $80.62 1-2. Yours, respectfully."

— There are in Washington nine colored day schools whose teachers are supported by tuition fees. There are also twenty-five free schools supported by Northern philanthropy, and eight free morning schools, taught by clerks in the different departments. The city of Washington as a corporation pays nothing for the education of its own colored people.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syhilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Bites, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Starting disclosures. Dr. TELLER'S great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agent in America, for the sale of Dr. Michelon's Celebrated Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other Medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the per box,) these Celebrated Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 8 to 9 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialle, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rhematic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for lifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces converge all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

TENNESSEE.—Gov. Brownlow, in his annual message to the Assembly, congratulates the Assembly on witnessing the termination of the rebellion and the signal triumph of our arms. In regard to the new subjects of legislation, the wishes of the loyal people of the State should be consulted, for they are always right; recommends amendments and additions to the franchise law, but says I am by no means an advocate of its repeal, nor do the loyal people of the State wish any sweeping change. The restoration of the civil law has worked well, and prosperity is promised in every section. Guilty rebels should be treated with severity in proportion to their offenses, the mass of them with not less than ten years' disfranchisement, and the leaders with neither mercy nor forbearance. Emigration should be fostered and encouraged, and a Commissioner stationed East to secure the numerous foreign emigration and that of skilled labor; is convinced that the white and colored people cannot live together politically or socially as equals. He advocates the setting apart of some portion of the national territory, best adapted for the purpose, for a nation of freedmen. The testimony of the negroes is recommended to be taken in the Courts, on the same basis as white persons. President Johnson's reconstruction policy is endorsed as the sole hope of the country.

☞ At Petersburg, Va., Monday night, an immense meeting of the freedmen was held last night, the largest African church in the city being crowded to excess. Stewart Barns, of the Freedmen's Bureau, made an address, exhorting the freedmen to labor, and disabusing the minds of the blacks from the idea that lands of their late owners would be divided among them. The address was enthusiastically received. Addresses were also delivered by several colored speakers, all exhorting the freedmen to sobriety and industry and counseling friendly feelings toward the whites. The meeting adjourned at a late hour.

— Hon. George P. Marsh, our Minister at Turin, has forwarded to Washington the propositions of a company of Italian silk and grape-growers and wine manufacturers, to emigrate to this country in such force as would suffice for the cultivation of a million of grape vines and ten thousand mulbery trees.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.
His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, incident to female prompt attention.
Office, No. 22 Endicott street.
Persons at a distance can consult Dr. Briscoe, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. Briscoe, at No. 22 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secresy observed in every case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 15, 1864. ThSly
DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 22 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ A letter from Columbia, S. C., received at Washington, on Sunday, states that the freedmen in that State are circulating petitions praying the President not to order the withdrawal of the federal troops. The letter concludes by saying if the troops are withdrawn the colored people will be no better off than they were before the war. The only thing that prevents their reduction to slavery again is the presence of the boys in blue.

— Judge Long, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor in Ohio, thinks that if the Government bonds are not to be taxed, the Democracy will never support men for Congress who will not stand pledged to vote against the appropriation of a single dollar to pay the interest on the national debt." It is to be hoped, that Judge Long and his platform will be buried out of sight.

— Richmond papers say the report of the withdrawal of Douglass and Christian as candidates for Congress in the First District proves incorrect. In the Lynchburg District all the candidates having declared that they cannot take the oath prescribed for members of Congress, a number of citizens have issued a card requesting them to withdraw from the field and nominating in their stead Hon. J. M. Botts of Culpepper.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837, 76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any who are offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given Evince their none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary at a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR SPECIAL CATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board, medicine, &c. Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has spent eight hours daily for many years in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She improved at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Flatulence, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is lost in the register, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

A JEREMY DIDDLER.—An English gentleman, with good recommendations, appeared in Indianapolis about six months ago, wearing the latest style of clothing, fine jewels and several medals of ancient stamp. After a short delay in sounding his victims, he succeeded in gaining an interview with the Governor, who, anxious to heal up the gap between this country and England, made him a lieutenant in one of the new regiments, and had him detailed as A. A. D. C. on the staff of Gen. Hovey. While in this capacity he made many acquaintances, and was particularly liberal with his "stamps," as he seemed to have plenty—being an English lord and visitor to America, with a view of learning military arts, it would certainly be expected that he had plenty of money—and the way he scattered it led all to believe his miraculous yarns. He headed a list with $500 for the purchase of a house for a certain Colonel who distinguished himself by staying at home and inspecting cannon; raised $7000 and took charge of it in the Colonel's name. He also observed to Gen. Hovey that his span of grays were not just the thing for a General of his calibre, and immediately took charge of the team and sold it, proposing to make up the remainder from his prolific purse. Yes, the team was sold—Frybayer's free gift, a magnificent house and lot, was sold, and our distinguished military heroes were sold also. The Enlishman, leaving abruptly, is now probably spending the money at home, remarking to his jolly friends that he has been to Indiana.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
—TO—
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppression of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.
His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.
Office, No. 23 Endicott street.
Persons at a distance can consult Dr. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that atients see none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. BRISCOE, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 16, 1865. 7ThSly
DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1865.

IN THE WIRZ TRIAL, on Thursday, at Washington, Reynolds, who gave some stunning testimony on Wednesday, was cross-examined, and went beyond himself in absurdity and wildness. Said he belonged to the 2d Ky. Mounted Infantry, which numbered 124. The regiment was attacked by an equal number of guerrillas. After fighting one hour his regiment was obliged to surrender. No one of his regiment was killed or wounded when he surrendered.!!

When he reached Andersonville he had nothing but his clothes: started business there by selling his daily corn bread rations for ten cents and subsisting on the balance of the ration, which was bacon and a pint of boiled beans. He arrived there on the 1st of June, and about the 10th of June bought 13 dozen eggs at $3.15 per dozen on tick; that could be done there among men of honor. When he left, August 4th, he had $520 in greenbacks. At one time he had $5000.

There were at Andersonville 50 wells and 450 springs, none of which, however, yielded over a bucket full of water at a time! The water was pure and clean!! There were 500 bakers in the stockade. The place was a city, and there were four real estate dealers in the stockade. There were eating houses, and any one could get a meal for $10 in greenbacks. Whiskey sold for $3 per thimble-full. There were twenty barber shops, and the barbers acted as doctors, sometimes selling medicines. He had seen men cut their own throats; did not know the reason, except they were skin and bone and in a destitute condition; this was not from hunger, but from sickness.

[His testimony certainly can do poor Wirz no good. Whether the witness be liar or lunatic, may be difficult to determine. We think he must be crazy.]

☞ Our Consul at Liverpool, Thomas H. Dudly, has arrived at Washington, and represents that the foreign importations this season will be enormous, and urges the Secretary of the Treasury to recommend to Congress an export duty on cotton, claiming that the constitutional prohibition can be overcome by levying an internal revenue duty of three cents per pound, with a drawback for home consumption, which will not injure the home manufacturing interest, but would apply only to cotton going abroad.

☞ It seems, after all, that the result of the North Carolina election is not an overwhelming Union triumph. In many localities the partisans of Davis and Vance were elected over Union candidates. In Yadkin county Chief Justice Pearson, a radical Union man, was defeated by a reconstructed secessionist. In Wake county, Mr. J. L. Pennington, the editor of the Progress, strongly Union, received but 510 votes in a poll of 2300.

☞ The Bostonians are in high glee because they had a rain on Wednesday. We have had a rain every day this week—of dust.

— Henry W. Hilliard of Alabama, after having been a Methodist minister, then a Whig politician and Member of Congress, then a secessionist, then a reconstructionist, now intends to contend for the honors of romance. He has in press a novel called "De Vane, A Story of Plebians and Patricians," which is said on authority no less trustworthy than the statement of his publishers, to be "fascinatingly interesting," and "written in the most chaste and elegant language."

— Gov. Andrew, in his speech at Harwich said: "As a citizen of Massachusetts I presume that while it shall please God to spare my life, I shall remain a citizen of Massachusetts always; whatever may be the fortunes that may betide my State, they will be mine and my children's, though their father and mother trace their origin back to the earliest days of Massachusetts. And I have come to the conclusion that we are too intense Yankees to bear transplanting."

— John Patterson Sampson is a black man. Twelve years ago he rode into Wilmington, N. C., with his master from a neighboring plantation. While there, John's horse died, and he took the wrong road in footing it home. Travelling northward, his ambition led him onward and upward step by step. He is now editor and proprietor of a successful newspaper in Cincinnati, devoted to the interests of the race, and has just made a visit to his old plantation home to aid his brethren by his presence and counsel in this hour of their dawning manhood.

— Andrew Jackson Donelson has written a letter, in which he professes himself much pleased with the paid labor system in Mississippi. He says companies are forming and paying as high as $15 per acre rent for open lands on the Mississippi. It is also believed negro laborers will build up the levee.

— Lieut. Cushing, who destroyed the Albemarle, will get $30,000 as his share of the prize money out of that transaction.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

— The Manchester Five Cent Savings Bank has declared a dividend of 8 per cent. for the year ending Oct. 1, clear of taxes.

— A neighboring paper locates Dracut in New Hampshire. We should have no objection to take it; but it really belongs in Massachusetts.

——Two men were killed and one wounded Wednesday afternoon at Littleton, by a slide of stone or earth in a slate quarry, where they were at work.

MISSISSIPPI. — A Jackson, Miss., dispatch of the 4th says it Gen. Humphreys is chosen Governor, Governor Sharkey will use every endeavor to have his application for pardon granted. Humphrey's success is considered unfortunate by the best Union men here. A. M. West is elected to Congress from the 4th District. He is a good Union man.

The fact that Humphrey, an unpardoned and unrepentant rebel, has come so near an election as to leave the matter in any doubt is a striking commentary upon the pretended loyalty of the people of that State. They can profess loyalty and love of the Union equal to any people; but when they come to action, their course is such as to give the lie to all their professions. No better evidence is needed of their entire unfitness to resume their place in the Union, and all true loyal men will desire that they may be kept under the control of the general government until they get a better appreciation of their position and their duties than they have yet obtained.

SOUTH CAROLINA PRAISING MASSACHUSETTS.—James L. Orr, candidate for Governor of the Palmetto State, has been brought by the logic of events to say: "I am tired of South Carolina as she was. I court for her the material prosperity of New England. I would have her acres teem with life, and vigor, and intelligence, as do those of Massachusetts." Just think of that utterance in Columbia, and contrast with the denunciations of other days! New England is not out in the cold yet, neither has its fanatical example ceased to be influential.—Transcript.

THE HERALD OF HEALTH for October contains a great number and variety of valuable papers. One of the best is the Non-Stimulating Treatment of Disease, by James Haughton, Esq., of Dublin. The Herald is published monthly, contains forty well-printed pages on health topics, and should be in the hands of every mother who would rear beautiful children, every student who would preserve his health, and every invalid who would be led away from a dependence on drugs and quack medicines to a dependence on air, food and Nature's remedies. $1.50 a year; 15 cents a number. Four copies one year, $5; ten copies, $10.

INDUSTRIOUS COOPER.—The Oroville (Cal.) Union says: Mr. Barnes Putnam, who is over sixty years of age, has, from April 20th to August 12th, made 500 turpentine barrels. His staves and headings were rough shaved in the woods last winter, but have all been shaved over by him within the time of making the barrels. He has spent six days of this time in getting his timber from the woods. Over two-and-a-half tons of iron have been used for hoops. The quality of the work, which is second to none, shows for itself. Last year Mr. Putnam made, from July 9th to Nov. 19th, 434 barrels, besides doing fifty dollars' worth of other work and taking his timber from the rough.

GOLD, Friday, opened at 147 1-2; at 12:15 it was 148 1-4; at 1:15 it was 146 7-8. Pork and flour were put up a notch in consequence.

— The Washington City Council has passed an ordinance concerning contracts, with a proviso that no contract be given out without a guarantee that the hours of labor under it shall not exceed eight hours a day.

— The Portland Argus says the herring fleet there is doing a rushing business. The water appears to be full of them from Small Point to Wood Island. The packers have to work day and night to take care of them.

— Sir Henry Bulwer, the British Minister to Constantinople, where he has made himself very obnoxious to the native and foreign Christian population, by siding with the fanatical Moslem party in persecuting Christians, has been removed. Lord Lyons, formerly at Washington, is his successor.

— The Boston & Maine Railroad Company at its meeting on Wednesday rescinded the vote to pay the Portsmouth, Saco & Portland Railroad eight per cent. annually in currency, instead of six per cent. in coin.

— The Portland Star reports that eleven new vessels will be built in Yarmouth next season.

— What two counties in Ireland would you suppose to be lighter in weight than the rest? Cork and Down.

— A trader from the country, a few days since, while making some purchases at a store in town, was asked if he did not want some half mourning prints. "Well, I guess I do; the folks up our way are just about half dead these hot days."

Local.

AUCTIONS TO-DAY.—Our auction column offers a varied list for competing purchasers to-day.

Mr. Wendell will sell at 10 o'clock furniture and carpeting, at 11 o'clock a horse, in the afternoon and evening dry goods; all at his auction rooms. Also, at 12 o'clock a house on School street and a lot of land on Green street, at half-past 12 o'clock a brick house on State street; these sales on the premises.

To those who may wish to build or to purchase as an investment, Mr. Morse, at noon to-day, will offer sixteen desirable building lots on Woodbury street, a beautiful location, overlooking a great portion of the city.

☞ We are happy to say there was no truth in the report that the Ocean House at Rye Beach on Thursday. Now we would like to know who started the falsehood, and why.

☞ Go to the Temple to-night. There is no doubt as to the merits of the entertainment, and our citizens will be the greatest losers if they fail to avail themselves of this opportunity.

☞ Dia Bolus, who is troubled by a slight obliquity of vision, was examining a placard attached to a string of immense "funeral apples" in front of Mr. Clark's store, the product of Mr. Lane's gardening in Candia. The first line evidently staggered him, for we heard him soliloquizing, as we passed: "City Farm Beet!" well, if that's a City Farm Beet, I wonder what they raise for onions? We attribute it all to his dimness of sight.

☞ Mississippi election returns indicate the certain election of Gen. Humphreys as Governor by a large majority.

Gen. Gregory, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau in Texas, made a speech to the negroes at Houston, assuring them that their rights should be respected; that they could hold property and would be governed by the same laws as the whites. He informed them that that the military would compel them to abide by their contracts, and that they should not be a burthen to the Government.

Gwin and ex-Governor Clarke of Mississippi have gone up the river under guard, en route to Washington.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—General Butler left for his home Wednesday evening, having satisfactorily adjusted his accounts with the Government, and will return after ten days.

Gen. J. S. Fullerton, Chief of Gen. Howard's Staff, left Washington Thursday for New Orleans, on important business connected with the Freedmen's Bureau, and an inspection of freedmen's affairs in Louisiana.

The proceedings of the military commission at Cincinnati, before whom G. St. Leger Grenfel was tried for conspiring with others to burn the city of Chicago and release the prisoners of war confined at Camp Douglas, was promulgated by the War Department Thursday. The prisoner was sentenced by the Commissioners to be hung, but the President, in consideration of the fact that the rebellion has been suppressed, and upon the recommendation of the members of the Court, has commuted the sentence to imprisonment at hard labor for life at the Dry Tortugas, Florida.

CIRCUS AND CHURCH.—The N. Y. Herald says Avery Smith, the largest circus proprietor in the United States, has purchased Chapin's Church on Broadway, with the adjoining property on Crosby street, for the purpose of erecting an Equestrian Theatre, on the plan of Astley's in London. The price paid was $110,000.

[This property was sold by Dr. Chapin's society about two years since, they reserving the right to occupy it until the completion of their new church up town. The church was originally erected for the use of Rev. Dr. Bellows's society.—Transcript]

PARDONS.—The N. Y. Times special Washington dispatch says an erroneous impression prevails as to the number of pardons granted. Only 2,658 have been granted. Among those lately pardoned is L. Pope Walker, the first rebel Secretary of War, who ordered fire to be opened on Fort Sumter. The Cabinet declines to recommend pardon for any of the excepted classes, except those coming under the $20,000 clause.

— The operatives at the Wamsutta Mills New Bedford, have succeeded in accomplishing the object for which they struck, viz: that eleven hours shall constitute a day's work, and have resumed labor.

— Nine counties of Arkansas, under the control of superintendents of freedmen, are reported to contain a negro population of 42,756, of whom upward of forty thousand are represented to be under employ and self-sustaining.

— The Freedmen's Bureau has recently restored large amounts of property to persons in adjoining counties in Virginia, which had been provisionally held by the Bureau as abandoned. Numerous applications continue to be made for the restoration of property.

LORD LYONS AND THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS.—There is one incident in the action of the Democratic party during the war which should never be forgotten. We refer to the visit made made by its leaders to the British Ambassador at Washington in 1862. The following is the cautious account of it given by Lord Lyons himself, in a dispatch to his government:

Several of the leaders of the Democratic party sought interviews with me, both before and after the arrival of the intelligence of Gen. McClellan's dismissal. The subject uppermost in their minds while they were speaking to me was naturally that of foreign mediation between the North and the South. If their own party were in power, or virtually controlled the Administration, they would rather, if possible, obtain an armistice without the aid of foreign governments; but they would be disposed to accept an offer of mediation, if it appeared to be the only means of putting a stop to hostilities.

— Beer fills many a bottle, and the bottle fills many a bier.

— Gov. Brownlow of Tennessee is threatened with impeachment at the next session of the Legislature of that State.

Batchelor's Hair Dye!
The Original and Best in the World! The only true and perfect Hair Dye. Harmless, Reliable and Instantaneous. Produces immediately a splendid Black or natural Brown, without injuring the hair or skin. Remedies the ill effects of bad dyes. Sold by all Druggists. The genuine is signed William A. Batchelor. Also,
Regenerating Extract of Millefleurs, for Restoring and Beautifying the Hair.
a18 CHARLES BATCHELOR, New York.

No Hardee-Hood
On the part of the South can prevent the success of the Union arms. Grant and Sherman's policy, like
CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE,
Everywhere establishes colors which are beautiful in the people's eyes. The hues of the National Flag are those of Heaven, but among all the dyes of Earth there is none save CRISTADORO'S that produces instantaneously perfect fac simile of nature's every shade of black and brown.—Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. s29dawlm 5

Brandreth's Pills,
WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.
These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.
They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where wateldulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.
The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. s29dawlm

Duros's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.
Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1635, New York City.
At Wholesale by DEMAS BARNES & CO., New York. spsdawlymy28

Mrs. WINSLOW
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers her
SOOTHING SYRUP
For Children Teething,
which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammations, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is Sure to Regulate the Bowels.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to your selves and Relief and Health to Your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.
Price, Only 35 Cents per Bottle.

Local.

BRACKETT HUTCHINGS, Esq., who died on Thursday, at the age of 63, was one of our most substantial and reliable native citizens. He was a worthy, consistent and efficient member of the Universalist Church, to whose ministry, doctrines and usages he was strongly attached; and was one of the early patrons of Tufts College. He was exemplary in his domestic and social relations,—a man of integrity, industry and economy; content with regular business and moderate thrift, he bestowed charity with a liberal, yet discriminating and careful hand. He was one of the earliest advocates here of political action against slavery; and during the whole civil war he was most devotedly loyal to our Government,—earnest for the right, and confident of the Nation's ultimate success. He lived to see it, and to rejoice over it. But having done his work, he has now passed away. He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him. Well will it be, should many young men make him in these respects their model.

☞ On Friday morning about 4 o'clock, fire was discovered in a dwelling house near the corner of Gates and Water streets, and quite a number of engines promptly turned out and reached the spot, but were not needed as it was extinguished without much trouble. The fire was occasioned by the accumulated soot in the chimney-piece taking fire and dropping against a wooden fire-board. No fire existed in the house to the knowledge of the occupants since Thursday afternoon, therefore the above mentioned conflagration must have been in embryo all night.

☞ As Dr. Campbell is to remain with us but one week longer, those in need of his services should not stand upon the order of their going, but go at once. Being fortunate enough not to require his services professionally, we cannot speak of his skill personally, but the testimony he offers to our citizens is of the first class and from our very midst.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 6.—Susannah Williams has a penchant for breathing the evening air, and such is her passion in this direction that the reproachful term of "night-walker" has fastened itself upon her. The name of Susannah will probably live in the heads if not in the hearts of a large portion of the human race, as the gifted bard immortalized it, when he tuned his lips and wrote that persuasive strain entitled "O! Susannah;" wherein he entreated the young lady not to shed tears in his behalf, as he was merely intending to depart for the land of Ophbir, for the purpose of securing a fortune for the future enjoyment of his fair swain. We had heard nothing from this loving pair for many years, and supposed that they had got married and settled down to enjoy the realities of domestic life, until the appearance of Susannah at this Court, which sad circumstance only served to clench a long-cherished opinion of ours, that below the fair surface of the sea of life insidiously sleep rocks and tempests, causing us to dwell in hourly insecurity.

Miss Williams presented quite an array of witnesses, whose testimony only served to draw her deeper into the mire of trouble, and after patiently listening to the merits and demerits of the case, Judge Bufford postponed the case to the first Monday in November, when, if the damsel is present, she is to pay the fine and costs, but if she immediately leaves the city at the present date and is seen no more within its precints, she will not be molested. Susannah expressed her thankfulness at this sentence, and promised to set up in business elsewhere. And thus another nuisance is disposed of.

The case of Gove, Wilson and Downing, charged with robbing hen-roosts, cornfields, &c., came up and was continued to the S. J. Court. Downing and Wilson were severally held in the sum of $100 each; and Gove, unable to procure bonds in the sum of $300, was committed to jail.

☞ Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, has written a sensible letter in answer to queries about eligible candidates to Congress. He concludes as follows:

But has it not the appearance of persistent and continued rebellion for men to run for Congress who by the law of Congress cannot take their seats. If this class of men are sent to Congress the members of Congress will conclude that the representative is a type of the people, and will be likely to reject them.

This conclusion will be just:—and the offence may open the eyes of some loyal men who do not see the ex-rebels as they are.

VETERAN RESERVE.—Prominent Senators and Representatives are earnestly protesting against the mustering out of the Veteran Reserve Corps, most of whom have been disabled in the service, and recommend mustering out first those anxious to leave the service. They claim that it is due to the veterans to keep them as long as possible.

— The St. Albans (Vt.) Messenger says that butter is selling there from 30 to 34 cents per pound.

TO MOTHERS.—Again let us say, don't be without DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP at this season of year. It contains no opiates, and is safe and reliable for cure of Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c.

DEATHS.

☞ The funeral of BRACKETT HUTCHINGS will take place at No. 47 Daniel street this (Saturday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

☞ The Funeral of Mrs. MARY STAFFORD will take place this (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, from No. 21 Vaughan St.

HORSESHOES.
THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished shoes of every variety of style and size. The Iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The Iron bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

Morning Chronicle.

— The term Fenian is derived from the Gælic word Fiann. In the antiquated Gælic it is written Fiand. It was a name given to an order or class of professional soldiers among the pagan Irish, long before the Christian era. In ordinary times the Fiann consisted of three legions, in each legion were 3000 men, but in war there were usually seven legions.

— The cargo of a New London whaler, just in, is worth $150,000. The New Bedford Mercury says the captain of a whaleship, which not long since arrived from a voyage of thirty-seven months, took as his part of the proceeds the handsome sum of $42,000, a larger amount than was ever before received by a whaleing captain for a single voyage.

Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patent, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases arising from a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of a secret nature than any physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no one superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an able physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1865.

MAJ. GEN. HOWARD, chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, issued from the War Department, Washington, Oct. 1, the following Circular:

State laws with regard to apprenticeship will be recognized by this Bureau, provided they make no distinction in color, or in case they do so the said laws applying to white children will be extended to the colored. Officers of this Bureau are to be regarded as guardians of orphans and minors of freedmen within their respective districts.

The principle to be adhered to with regard to paupers is that each county, parish, township or city, shall care for and provide for its own poor. Vagrant laws made for free people and now in force on the statute books of the States embrace in the operations of this Bureau, will be recognized to extend to the freedmen. Assistant Commissioners will draw up specific instructions, applicable to their respective States in accordance with the foregoing principles.

☞ Matamoras advices say Cortinas, Cosales and Escabbo have combined their forces and are marching on Matamoras with 2000 Liberals, robbing and plundering the whole country. Capt. Meyes' cavalry is operating between Matamoras and Monterey. 900 Belgians and Mexicans defeated 3500 Juarists near Cosma in the State Michoacan on the 17th of July, capturing 17 prisoners, 600 stand of arms and 6 pieces of artillery. They proceeded in the direction of Tehuacan.

A gentleman very recently from Mexico, who has witnessed a great deal of the fighting in different parts of that Republican Empire, has given such accounts of the prowess exhibited on both sides as leads us to think them a beggarly set all together. From the top of his residence at Boca del Rio, on the Rio Grande, on one occasion, he witnessed the singular spectacle of the French and Mexicans in battle upon one side of the river, while the "Feds" and "Unfeds" were engaged in a similar pleasing occupation upon the opposite side of the Great River of the North.

☞ The Secretary of the Treasury has lately said openly that he did not desire that a dollar of our national debt should be taken in Europe. He is also satisfied that the Treasury will be able to put all of the public debt as low as five per cent. which mature in 1881 and 1882. On the first of August the debt became stationary, and in the month of September it was reduced twelve millions and a half, and the annual interest reduced half a million. It is believed by those who best understand the subject that the tide has turned and is now ebbing rapidly. The Treasury Department Printing Bureau is busily engaged in preparing the various forms required for the conversion of the interest bearing circulation into five-twenty bonds, under the Secretary's recent advertisement. The engravers are at work upon the plates for printing the bonds.

AN EXCELLENT ORDER.—The N. Y. Herald says Admiral Bell, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, has issued an order giving notice that he will not tolerate the custom which has heretofore prevailed of levying taxes on the workmen of the yard for political party purposes, and all such money already obtained from employes and in the hands of master workmen must be returned to the persons from whom it was procured. Hereafter any one connected with the establishment who participates in this offense will render himself liable to discharge, and party committeemen will not be allowed to visit the yard to make collections.

A TEST CASE.—The Chicago Tribune, which does not believe in Senator Sumner's theory that the anti-slavery amendment to the United States constitution has already been adopted by three-fourths of the "quorum of States," suggests that a case be made up at once for the decision of the Supreme Court, by a Kentucky slave claiming his freedom under this amendment.

— The name of Dr. Chapin's new church in New York is to be "The Church of the Divine Paternity."

—Edwin Forrest purchased a house at Springbrook, near Philadelphia, on Wednesday, for $76,000.

— The Portland Trotting Park was opened Friday. The Star claims that within a year it will be "the best track and the finest driving park in New England."

— A week ago Sunday a young lady was locked up in a church in Brooklyn and remained there without food until Wednesday afternoon, being unable to get out or to make herself heard.

— The Times' Washington dispatch says R. B. Rhett of South Carolina appeared at the Freedman's Bureau and demanded transportation for his slaves at Government cost in such an impudent manner that Gen. Howard was obliged to call a guard to remove him. Rhett, however, left before the guard arrived.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Amoskeag Company is to build ten more steam fire engines for the New York Fire Department.

—— A successful Musical Convention, under the direction of Prof. Baker, was held the past week in East William.

—— A new factory, to manufacture 900 yards of doeskin daily, is to be completed in Lebanon by the first of January.

—— The Fire Department of Bath recommend the purchase of a second-class steam fire engine of the Amoskeag Co.

—— The charter of Londonderry stipulates that a peck of potatoes shall be paid annually, on the first of October, to Gov. Shute or his successors, as quit-rent.

—— Mr. John Kimball, of Hooksett, has a sow which produced a litter of eleven pigs, all but one of which are males. Such statistics are getting to be a great bore.

—— Hon. Greenleaf Cummings, of Lisbon, for many years a prominent politician in this State, died at Lisbon on Wednesday, aged 51.

—— A returned soldier borrowed a horse and buggy of Thos. Stewart of Concord, and sold them in Peterboro', for $200, decamping with the money. He ought to be "returned" to State Prison.

——At the annual meeting of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars, held at Concord on Tuesday, Chas. G. Pickering was elected E. G. Junior Warden, and John Knowlton E. G. Treasurer.

—— Chas. Wilder, of Peterboro', exhibits a thermometer ten feet long—said to be a marvel of workmanship and without a parallel in the country—at the Mechanics' Fair, Boston.

—— Daniel Sullivan, a nice boy of 16 years, was bound over in the Manchester Police Court, Oct. 5, for robbing his sister and her husband, who live in Hooksett, of their pocket-books, containing fifty-eight dollars.

—— A colt belonging to Thomas F. French of Hopkinton was found dead in the pasture on Friday morning, with a wound in the side, evidently having been stabbed with a knife. The perpetrator of such a dastardly deed deserves to be kicked to death by a jackass.

—— Mr. Roswell Bliss, of Berlin, and Lydia, his wife, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, at the old homestead, on Wednesday, Sept. 27th. Mr. Henry H. Bliss, of Berlin, brother of Mr. Roswell Bliss, and his wife, celebrated their silver wedding in Berlin on the same evening, the youngest brother having been married, by a rare coincidence, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his oldest brother's marriage.

—— In Manchester, one Pickard went to Brugger's Mill on Thursday to see his wife who worked there, called her out to the door, engaged her in conversation for half an hour and then went away. After dinner she entered the mill to go to work. He caught a glance of her at the window, and beckoned to her to come down, which she did. They talked for some time, when she turned to leave him. He put his hand into his pocket, and said at the time, "I haven't performed yet what I came down to do," and at the same moment the report of a pistol followed. A self-cocking pistol which he had in his pocket exploded, tearing out his pocket and scattering its contents about, while the ball entered the calf of his leg, but could have broken no bones, as he walked away. Pickard belongs in Maine, was in the army awhile, and is represented to be a dissolute, drinking man. His wife has not lived with him for these reasons, and the suggestion is that he went to urge her to live with him again, and that it was his intention to shoot her if she refused.

RAILROADS.—The survey for the Manchester and Keene Railroad is completed, and no obstacle has been found to the construction of the road. Like most of the roads in the upper part of the State, there will be some heavy grades, at some points 80 or 100 feet per mile. The highest point is at Haverhill, 1065 feet higher than Manchester. The people along the route are represented as wide-awake and anxious for the construction of the road, which will greatly benefit several manufacturing villages.

The survey of the route from Mason to Peterboro', under the auspices of the Fitchburg Road, has been interrupted by the sickness of the engineer.

The Transcript learns that a survey of the railroad route from East Wilton to Peterboro' is about to be made, to test the feasibility of the route.

☞ Three murders were committed in Philadelphia on the night of the 5th. Bernard F. Rane, aged 19 years, was shot by Ed. Simons in the southern part of the city. A member of the 24th colored regiment killed another member in the cars near Havre de Grace. Burglars were secreted in White's dental depot, Arch street, that forenoon at six o'clock. When the store was opened by a boy, the burglars seized him and strangled him to death and escaped with a portion of their plunder which they had ready for removal.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 7.—If amid the severe drought there is scarcity of water there is plenty of rum within the reach of all who have money or its equivalent. How thankful we should all be for this wonderful provision of man for his brother man! Charles Hoyt, for drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $4.80.

Frank Gardner, drunk, fined $3 and costs $4.80.

Frank Carby, drunk, fined $3 and costs $4.80.

James H. Spinney, for an assault was discharged upon the merits of the case.

Alonzo McKelley is a regular attendant at church on the Sabbath, therefore it is not strange that he was seen taking his accustomed route to the house of God on Sunday last. Now it is not at all singular that on his return from thence, (even though he had learned from the sacred desk wholesome truths and had treasured them up in his heart), he should vigorously kick a dog that wantonly disturbed his meditation by running out from a house by the wayside and tried to insert his incisors into the seat of Alonzo's meeting trowsers. Man is mortal at the best, and the old saying that "flesh and blood can't stand everything" is applicable to this case. But this operation of kicking to which we incidentally referred was attended with certain results. One of those consequences was the immediate withdrawal of the canine quadruped to a remote part of the field through which his antagonist was passing. Another was (and this leads us to introduce another character) that it called forth from the home of the aforesaid dog, his master Clement Huntress. Now we all have our little weaknesses, and Mr. H.'s mellow spot is a devoted attachment to this guardian of his property. This prompted Mr. Huntress to to take the matter in hand, and reinforce his dog. So in a few minutes Mr. McKelley is confronted by H. who demands of him the right he has to thus apply his boots to his Rover. Alonzo with that pride and disdain which ever characterizes those who regard themselves as in the right, refused to bandy words with his assailant, and passed on, followed, however, by Huntress, who, McKelley avers, used terrible epithets, obscene and profane, until he reached the river's side, (the former living in Newington and the latter residing in Eliot,) where McKelley embarked for home. On reaching his abode and ruminating upon the subject, the latent fires of revenge prompted him to secure a witness and re-embark for the opposite shore to engage Huntress in a combat, the result of which should decide the dog question. He reached the shore, and taking his friend James H. Spinney along with him, he proceeded to hunt up his inimical acquaintance, whom he found at last, all panoplied for a fight, with a place spear in his right hand and in his left some dirt and grass which he in his rage tore up while swearing about McKelley.—The battle commenced and continued and closed, resulting with the discomfiture of Alonzo, and the total demoralization of Clement, who became panic stricken, after breaking the handle of the spear over McKelley's back. Neither party is satisfied, of course, and so Alonzo McKelley is arrested for an assault on Clement Huntress and is fined $5 and costs $5.64.

Clement Huntress, assault on Nathan McKonney, fined $5 and costs $5.74. And thus two foolish men learn how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to go to law. It is like,—but we must stop here.

— The number of prisoners now drawing from Government is 97,875.

— Four men were arrested in Providence on Friday for having and passing counterfeit U. S. currency of the denominations of one hundred, twenty, and one dollar and fifty cent scrip.

— The Russian American Telegraph is completed to Fort St. James, British Columbia. The enterprise bids fair to arrive at a successful completion at a much earlier day than was anticipated.

— The Herald's dispatch says private information announces positively that the rebel Gen. Humphreys has been elected Governor of Mississippi. It is not known whether he is pardoned and eligible, but it is thought that he is.

— In Marquette, Joseph Delong for being drunk and whipping his wife, paid $2 costs, and made an affidavit that he would not drink any intoxicating liquors for six months, and was discharged. He came back within twenty minutes and asked if he could have one drink, Indian very sick!

— The Lighthouse Board is constantly directing the re-establishment along the Southern coast of lighthouses destroyed by the rebels during the late war. Large appropriations will be required to put the coast in the condition it enjoyed prior to 1861. Nearly every lighthouse from Cape Henry down the Atlantic and Gulf coast, with the exception of a few in Florida, were destroyed by the enemy, the structures being torn down and the lenses broken or carried away.

THE NATION has raised its price to six dollars a year. It is better worth six now than it was three a few weeks ago. Its tone is more firm and confident, its principles more decided, and its interest more sustained. As it contains thirty-two quarto pages of matter weekly, it is still, at six dollars a year, very cheap.

☞ The U. S. Service Magazine, for October, comes freighted with articles of interest, not only to those who are of the Army or Navy, but to all who have the welfare of those great public safeguards at heart.

— The North Carolina Convention, by a unanimous vote has repealed the secession ordinance of that State, declaring it to have been always null and void.

— At a sale of 40,000 bushels of choice wheat in St. Louis, on Friday, a large portion brought $2.70 per bushel—the highest price for five years.

— Henry Pelton, of Somers, Coun., was missed from his house three months ago. On the 21st ult. his bones were discovered a few rods from the road, about two miles from his house, by some children, who first found the bones of one of his hands, which had been torn from his body by dogs.

THE GREAT

CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY!

DR. LAROOKAH'S

Indian Vegetable Pulmonic Syrup!

The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:

Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of this invaluable Remedy I have only to refer to the written testimonials of Hundreds of our most distinguished citizens; Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to Health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:

REV. J. C. INGALLS, of Melrose, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."

REV. B. F. BOWLES, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr. Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I would confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."

REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gansevoort, Sar. Co., N. Y., says: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."

DR. PORTER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."

HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, 88 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Bottle.

DR. LAROOKAH'S

SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND!

It is double the strength of any other Sarsaparilla Compound in the market.

For the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Dropsy, Neuralia, Epilepsy, Erysipelas, Boils, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Pain in the Stomach, Side, and Bowels, Debility, and all complaints arising from impurities of the BLOOD.

The trial of a single Bottle of either will gain the confidence of the sick.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where wakefulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawim

Duruo's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—Most of the stores in this city were closed on Saturday afternoon, during the funeral services of Brackett Hutchings, Esq., as a token of the esteem in which his fellow townsmen held his upright and exemplary career as a merchant and his blameless character as a man.

☞ Cold and raw as the day was on Sunday, everybody experienced a feeling of relief on finding that such a thing as a rain was still possible. The dust in our streets on Saturday was almost blinding, and when the coaches drove down from the depot in the afternoon it was impossible to see up Vaughan street, the cloud of dust being as dense as the smoke of a great fire, and in this particular Congress street was hardly a whit behind. We have shaken the dust from our feet in testimony against a community too sordid to pay for street sprinkling, at least fifty times a day for the past week. We hope the City Government will attend to this matter another year.

☞ A contributor to the Boston Advertiser, in recapitulating the naval statistics of Massachusetts, mentions the fact that the frigate Constitution on a recent trip from Newport to Annapolis attained the high rate of 13 1-2 knots, but omits to state that hardly a plank of the Massachusetts-built Constitution remains in her since she was re-built at this Navy Yard.

☞ The Lyceum this winter is to be one of the best courses ever offered to our citizens, judging from the various attractions the indefatigable secretary has secured. At the high prices demanded by all leading lecturers it is impossible to offer tickets at a more reasonable rate than $2.00 for ten nights, and as a single admission to most any of the exhibitions that visit us is one-fourth of that sum, no person will be likely to feel aggrieved thereat.

[Communication.]

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—Messrs. Editors:—One day last week as an express wagon was coming out of the Stone Stable, the horse on the trot, a little girl was running by Chapin & Yeaton's store and both met with a good deal of force, the child's head striking the end of the shaft or the horse's breast and she being in great danger of being trampled upon. Carriages coming in and going out from the Stone Stable, and from Mr. Somerby's, often come upon the passers by unexpectedly, especially children or strangers in the city. Would it not be well for drivers when going out or in from either of the stables, to walk the horses?

My communication of Thursday referred to Pleasant, instead of Richmond St. B.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6,

The Great Invention of the Age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided and firmly together, with edges to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has been in use.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

THE HOOPS are covered with 5-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Spring Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and will not or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in market, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEETS, BRADLEY & CARY, Proprietors of the Invention, and Sole Manufacturers, 97 Chambers, and 79 and 81 Reade Sts., New York.

For sale in all first class Stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a nicked, flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than hand made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

From the Portsmouth Journal

CONCORD AND PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD.

The Annual meeting of the stockholders in this corporation was held at Manchester on Thursday. Stephen Kendrick, President of the Road occupied the chair. The call for the meeting and the Report of the directors was read by the clerk, William H. Hackett of Portsmouth. The directors say that "many complaints have been made to us of the want of proper accommodations at New Market Junction and the public are greatly incommoded by the want of convenient connection at that point, although the Boston and Maine R. R. might easily remedy the evil by a change of ten or fifteen minutes in the hour of starting trains for Boston. But we have confidence that under the new administration of that road, the evil so long complained of will be especially remedied.

After the report had been accepted, the stockholders proceeded to choice of directors, and the following named gentlemen were reported unanimously elected, viz:

Stephen Kendrick, S. P. Dow, Benj. F. Martin, Jos. B. Walker, Samuel N. Bell. The meeting then dissolved. The directors have since re-elected Stephen Kenrick president and William H. Hackett clerk.

The Democratic State Convention of Massachusetts appears this year, to have "reserved their strength" for a more auspicious period—only about half the usual number having attended. They however nominated Gen. Couch by acclamation, for Governor, and struck out a Resolution reported in favor of a license liquor law, it having been pretty conclusively shown that liquor dealers were desirous of establishing that mode of warfare against the acknowledged evil of intemperance!

Gen. Couch, a Massachusetts man, it will be recollected commanded at Harrisburg, when Lee's army advanced into the heart of Pennsylvania; but for some cause the forces under him never advanced towards the invading enemy. We were expecting every day to hear of this great movement, but not a regiment even reached Gettysburg. This matter was explained in Convention. Maj. Lancay, a member, said he was connected with Gen. Couch in the discharge of his duties there. He said that when the rebel troops were within three miles of that city, there were not one hundred men ready and willing to defend it! Every body was running away—and the regiments arriving from Philadelphia refused to be mustered in, or to march until the question was settled under what authority they were to serve. They went for State sovereignty, and so to be under State officers. Therefore no censure could attach to Gen. Couch. Troops from New York and New Jersey defended Harrisburg,—no Pennsylvania volunteers were available from the State. Not very creditable this to a "Key Stone State."

Confederate Secretary Benjamin, who has reached London safe, has written a long letter to the Times, throwing all the blame of the sufferings and death to our prisoners, upon the United States Government, the cartel of exchange being rejected on their part and our Copperhead papers, (some of them) have taken up the same argument—forgetting to state the cause, viz: that Davis & Co. refused to exchange their black prisoners at all. As they were United States soldiers, no such discrimination could be allowed, and so the negotiation failed. Not a single well founded complaint has ever been made by confederate prisoners. They were left naked or starved, or more, shot down for reaching over a line to get a morsel of food, or hunted will blood hounds. Breckenridge has reached Montreal, not Liverpool.

☞ The advertisement of the third series of the Citizens' Lyceum Association Lectures appears in our columns to-day. The list of Lecturers is one of the best ever given, and with the double entertainment of Concert and Lecture each night at the reasonable sum of only 20 cts. or $2.00 for the course. Every seat in the Temple should be filled. We advise every one to secure a ticket in season.

We are sorry to learn that our townswoman, Mrs. Julia V. Whipple has declined reading before Citizen's Lyceum this season. She has many engagements elsewhere.

The Irish Catholic Priesthood appear to have the impression that any Fenian outbreak can have no other result than a complete failure, and the destruction of life; and hence their general warning and denunciation of the whole scheme. A large meeting of the magistrates of Cork county has been held, and the government apprised of the necessity of a stronger police, and larger military force. The French papers, though from policy the governments are at least outwardly on the most friendly terms, appear elated at the prospect of an Irish rebellion—retaining the old feeling, which for two hundred years or more, made them jealous enemies.

The Governments of France and Portugal, Spain and Italy are entering into engagements to lay a sub-marine telegraph from Lisbon, along the coast of Africa to the Cape de Verd islands, and thence across the Atlantic to Cape San Roque, in South America, and reach New Orleans. In the meantime the English project, is by general consent, to be renewed, and the cable is now under contract.

Government work is much delayed in the shipyards in Baltimore, by the refusal of the white calkers to work until the colored calkers, (who have been many years employed) are discharged. Their example has been followed by other laborers. Slave mechanics have ever been of extra value, and as slaves, tolerated. But a free colored mechanic is, it seems, intolerable.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.
The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the application of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabistis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rhematic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1865.

☞ For a young country we can present a creditably array of fine buildings, and, unlike those of foreign countries, these are not wrung from a toiling people by a grasping government, but are most of them the result of private enterprise. To their number will shortly be added an elegant opera house in Louisville, to which $180,000 have already been subscribed. The Journal says it is assured that that the full sum necessary to build a house which will rival any of the temples of music in the country will be speedily obtained. In New York, the plot of ground bounded by Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth streets, and Fifth and Madison avenues, has been purchased, it is reported, by the proprietor of the New York Hotel, Mr. Hiram Cranston, for the purpose of erecting a magnificent hotel, which shall cost, with the ground, about two million dollars.

VERMONT is doing well in agricultural matters. Albin Peirce of Richmond sold, a few days since, two fat hogs, weighing 1300 lbs., for $195.——D. D. Safford of Jeffersonville has sold $86 worth of butter from two cows since the first of May last, besides what used in a family of six persons. ——Joel Sanborn of Lyndon planted one large California potatoe last spring, cutting it into about forty pieces. Last week he dug 85 lbs., or about a bushel and a half of potatoes from that seed.——Chas. N. Davis of Cavendish, picked in his father's garden the other day, a tomato, which weighed four pounds and fourteen ounces.——A resident of St. Johnsbury has raised this season twenty-five bushels of Stevens and Jackson White potatoes from a sixteenth of an acre. Four hundred bushels to the acre is a pretty good income this year.

A GREVIOUS WRONG.—That portion of the Indian country which joins the Kansas line was once rich in stock. The fertility of the pastures was unsurpassed, and many of the inhabitants were owners of immense herds. Upon the outbreak of the war, those who remained loyal to the Union were driven from their possessions and the rebel commissary department received large supplies of beef from this source. A correspondent of the Commercial Advertiser states that this was not the worst of it. White loyal people of all classes, military and civil, have made it a common raiding ground, and it is estimated that not less than 300,000 head of cattle have in this way been run out of the country. Cattle with the Indian brand are to be found in all the frontier towns of Kansas, and the Indian agents have been empowered to scour the country, aided by the military to reclaim the stock. Much of the stolen property is gathered in corals with the intention of restoring it to the rightful owners. In some instances the local courts have issued writs of replevin to take the cattle out of military custody, the settlers evidently being of opinion that red men have no rights which they are bound to respect. Such conduct as this acting on the savage nature accounts for too many of those terrible outbreaks by which he vainly seeks justice, and obtains only revenge.

TEXAS.—The San Antonio Herald learns from Gen. Merritt that it is the intention of the government to give the citizens on the Indian border protection. Gen. Merritt will send on strong detachments to scour the country. Gen. Custar, with his division of cavalry, would soon be ordered to Austin, from which base of operations detachments would be sent out into the country lying immediately northwest of the State capital.

The State government is progressing as rapidly as possible. One hundred and five counties have been completed in their organization, and thirty yet remain. The general good conduct of the soldiers is the theme of universal remark. The Houston Telegraph says, while collisions take place between the civil and military authorities in other States, none occur in Texas.

[One great reason for this is, that the Provisional Governor is really a Union man, was a refugee, and by being at the North all the latter part of the war, has some proper conception of liberty as enjoyed here, and also of the tone and temper of our good citizens and christians towards the South in general and the fredmen in particular. He understands that our people are determined to be a Nation and not a Confederacy; and to be a free nation, with equal rights and a republican government. And he aims to bring Texas into line, and cause her to keep step to the music as soon as possible—thinking the sooner the better.]

CHARLESTON correspondence says civil authority has been restored in that city the Mayor and Council resuming their duties. The South Carolina militia are rapidly organizing under the order of Gen. Ferry, sanctioned by Gen. Gilmore. The State and Congressional elections which come off this month excite much interest.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mrs. J. R. Abbott, of Antrim, has raised five squashes, weighing 222 pounds, from a single seed, the present year.

—— Dan'l Conner, of Manchester, has contracted to excavate a canal 250 feet long, 21 feet wide and 15 feet deep, for the Suncook Manufacturing Co.

—— The house and barn of Silas Brown of Westmoreland, with their contents, valued at $2000, were destroyed by fire on the 12th ult.

—— The Free Masons of Farmington and vicinity have erected a monument to the memory of Capt. Ralph Carleton—a soldier in the Mexican war and in the recent war for the Union.

—— On Thursday evening Mr. Benj. Huntington of East Weare fell over backwards upon the floor, as he went to get upon the bed, and died instantly. He was 69 years of age.

—— Some sweet-toothed thieves recently stole a hive of bees and fifty pounds of honey from Daniel Merrill of Gilmanton. This sort of husbandry is getting too extensive and should be severely punished.

—— Wm. P. L. Badger of So. Newmarket has an apple-tree 2 yrs. 4 mos. from the seed and grafted, is 7 feet 2 inches high, and measures 3 4 of an inch in diameter two feet from the ground.

—— A day or two since, Wm. Thayer, of Manchester, built a fire in a stove he had just set up in his store, and went into another room. During his absence the stove exploded, tearing open the doors and demolishing the windows. The stove had been standing in his yard, and the probability is that some one loaded it with a pound or two of powder. It's a stove stove to pieces now.

IMMORTALITY OF NATURAL JUSTICE.—There seems to be a degree of solicitude that is not called for as to the views and purposes of President Johnson. So far as that gentleman has indicated his course, he has not, probably, at all deviated from that which would have been taken by his predecessor. He has, moreover, said that his present policy is entirely experimental; and in all probability he, like his countrymen, is looking to Congress—the exponent of the popular will—to establish a plan which shall be of binding efficacy. But some people, nevertheless, are unduly disturbed regarding the President, and permit their zeal in a good cause to outrun their discretion. They raise doubts as to the fidelity of the President to the great ideas through the force of which he became Chief Magistrate. In short, they fear he will not be adequate to the exigencies of this important, indeed eventful period, in public affairs.

There is a homely expression, frequently thrown into familiar discourse, to the effect that it is not best to borrow trouble. In the emergency that is soon to be upon us, nothing can be gained by throwing doubts upon the cause of popular liberty and natural justice, or upon the integrity of those instruments through which that cause, for good or evil, is to be effected. The cause is infinitely greater than presidents, senators or representatives; and although it encounter head winds and temporary defeats, is bound to triumph. Great men may postpone, but they cannot defeat the cause of universal liberty and progress, for the people have resolved that Reconstruction shall take place upon a basis founded in reason and natural justice. They have determined that States, the people of which have been in revolt, shall not come into the Union with red-handed rebels for Members of Congress; and that there must be security for the future, so that the Slave System be not again restored in fact, although not, perhaps in form. The crisis passed was fearful, and the one at hand is not without its perplexities, but the great heart of the nation beats with confidence that all will be well.

Men die and pass off, but the principles of natural justice are as immortal as the stars. In such a conflict President Johnson, like any other incumbent of the Presidential office—even the Martyr Lincoln—is but an incident in the great struggle. He may, by disappointing all the hopes reposed in him—going contrary to expectations to which his acceptance of office gave rise, postpone, but he cannot defeat the victory over that injustice which would be perpetrated if the party so clamorous for the "Union as it was, and the Constitution as it is," should be restored to power. But there is no evidence whatever that the President is not fully up to the views of the Republican party. Until he makes manifest a purpose at variance with that of those who elected him, it is worse than folly to throw doubts over his integrity.—Statesman.

VIRGINIA.—In accordance with a call from a number of citizens, the Hon. Minor Botts of Culpepper has accepted a nomination for Congress in the Lynchburg district, and he will probably be elected.

"WHAT'S IN A NAME."—"The Jefferson Jumplecute" is the title of a Texas newspaper. Hiram Slang is the cognomen of a drunken blackguard who verbally insulted a lady in New Orleans.

— On Sunday afternoon, in Philadelphia, a fire destroyed the United States bonded warehouse on Dickenson street Wharf, containing 4000 barrels of coal oil, belonging to different parties. Loss $96,000; insurance $50,000.

— "What do you intend to do with Jefferson Davis?" asked an Englishman of an intelligent returned soldier the other day. "It would be blasted cruel to bang him, you know. Now what do you intend to do with him?" "Borrow St. Helena from Her Majesty, your Queen, and chain him there as you chained Napoleon, you know," was the reply. John Bull could not see the point.

AFTER THEM.—The following order has been posted in a conspicuous place on this Navy Yard, the language of which would indicate that some persons somewhere had been treading on Uncle Sam's toes in their zeal to sustain their party. The order has been forwarded to all the Navy Yards, to be heeded where it applies. We learn that no such business as that of assessing laborers has been carried on at the Portsmouth Yard. It seems that the abuse is represented from the Philadelphia Yard. We give the substance of the circular.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, October 3d, 1865.

The attention of the Department has been called to an attempt recently made in Philadelphia, to assess or tax, for party purposes, the workmen in the Navy Yard. It is claimed by those who have participated in these proceedings, that the practice has prevailed in former years, at that and other Navy Yards, of levying contributions of this character on mechanics and laborers employed by the Government. Such an abuse cannot be permitted; and it is the object of this communication to prohibit it, wherever it may be practiced.

From inquiries instituted by the Department, on the complaint of sundry workmen—who represented that a committee had undertaken, through the agency of the masters, to collect from each of the employees in their respective departments, a sum equal to one day's labor, for party purposes,—it has been ascertained that there had been received from the workmen, before these proceedings had been arrested, the sum of $1052.00.

This, and all other attempts to exact money from laborers in the public service, either by compulsion or by voluntary contribution, is, in every point of view, reprehensible, and is wholly and absolutely prohibit-d. Whatever money may have been thus exacted, and is now in the hands of the Masters, will be forthwith returned to the workmen from whom it was received. And any Master or other appointee of this Department, who may be guilty of this offence * * * shall render himself liable to removal. The organization of the Yard must not be perverted to aid any party. Persons who desire to make voluntary party contributions, can find opportunities to do so at ward or other local political meetings, and on other occasions than during working hours. They are neither to be assisted nor opposed in this matter by Government officials. The Navy Yards must not be prostituted to any such purpose, nor will committee men be permitted to resort thither to make collections for any political party whatever. * * * *

It will be the duty of the Commandants of the respective Yards, and of all officers, to see that this order is observed.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) GIDEON WELLES,
Sec. of the Navy.

NAVAL.—Com'dr. E. G. Parrott has been detached from the Agamenticus and awaits orders.

Actg. Asst. Engineer Charles H. Slack, has been ordered to the Tonawadea.

Actg. Chief Engineer S. N. Hartwell has been detached from the Agamenticus and granted leave.

☞ The Hoop Skirts advertised by Messrs. Wests, Bradley & Carry of New York, have long stood the trying test of woman's fancy, and are pronounced by the fair wearers to be superior articles; and so long as the dear creatures will persist in this absurd fashion, it is desirable all round that they should know where to get the best articles of the sort.

☞ Thirteen hundred people, great and small, attended Father Kemp's Concert on Saturday evening, a sufficient criticism as to the estimation in which his troupe is held here.

☞ Rev. Dr. Peabody, of Harvard College, officiated at the Unitarian Church on Sunday.

☞ Mr. Kimball, formerly Principal of the Boys' High School, has been spending a few days in the city.

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE IN RAYMOND. On Friday morning, 6th inst., about 4 o'clock, the dwelling of Mr. Caleb Shannon of Raymond took fire, and was consumed with all its contents, and Mr. Shannon perished in the flames. He was in the house alone, his family being away. His age was probably 55 or 60.—News Letter.

— John Dowd was fatally stabbed at New Haven, Wednesday by John Maloy, because he interfered to prevent Maloy, who was beastly drunk, from abusing his wife. Both had been members of the 9th Connecticut. Maloy is an old jail bird, and is now under arrest.

— At Waterville, Me., Sunday morning, a fracas took place between two students on the college premises, when one of them fired a pistol three times at the other, slightly wounding him. Both were expelled on Monday. This carrying of pistols is rather too common among foolish boys, and their use nearly as much so.

— Dr. Mudd recently attempted to escape from the Dry Tortugas, by laying wholly concealed, except his face, under the coal on the steamer Thomas Scott. The search was about to abandoned, when the officer thrust his sword in his face and caused him to cry out with pain. The quartermaster of the ship was arrested on suspicion of complicity.

GOVERNOR ANDREW.—It is stated that Governor Andrew has accepted the Presidency of the American Land Company and Emigration Agency, in which are interested several heavy capitalists and influential men. The object of the company is said to be the developement of the resources of the West and South. The headquarters are at New York, and the other officers are Col. Frank E. Howe, Vice President and Resident General Manager; Cyrus Woodman, Secretary, and Col. L. Winchester, Treasurer. Governor Andrew will pass only a portion of his time in New York, retaining his residence in Boston.

— A petrified hemlock log, four feet long and two in diameter, was recently unearthed at Lee, Mass. It looks like slate and weighs 1500 pounds.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6.

The Great Invention of the Age in
HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Rolled Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

THE HOOPS are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single braided Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Burns's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 9.—The road to this eminently celebrated stopping-place is a very short one. A powerful thirst for liquor, half a dozen glasses (more or less) of lightning whiskey, a stroll through the streets, a night's rest in the lock-up, and you are there. How many a poor benighted wayfarer has travelled this thorny road, and yet how few take warning from their fate. We observed a few nights since on one of our city streets, a poor inebriate familiarly accosting a lamp-post (which he undoubtedly thought was the old "Hero of the Mississippi"—Admiral Farragut;) as follows: "Her'y 'ye old 'Gut, h'long yer bin ere; whyront ye g'home! S'matter! 'runk eh? Wed-'ge git it? Wal, s'long—'Twon't speak! Pes t'me yer d—d airy!" In forty minutes after the delivery of this intelligent address, this same individual was snoring loudly in Cell No. 5. Of course no allusion is had to John B. Smith, who was fined $3, and costs $3.86, for being drunk.

Samuel George of Seabrook, for drunkenness, same fine and costs.

John G. Chase of Seabrook, for the same offence, also same fine and costs.

Michael Donnelly, a gay and festive marine, drunk, fined in like manner. In default of the stamps he was sent to the House of Correction.

John Welch, charged with insulting two young ladies on the public street, was discharged, the complaint not being considered as sustained.

☞ The oldest newspaper in America still lives and flourishes, while many of its juniors languish for a while, and then die around it. The New Hampshire Gazette (and Weekly Chronicle) has just completed its one hundreth and ninth year; and on the 7th October instant, commenced the 110th volume. The queer-shaped old wooden building, whence Daniel Fowle issued the first number, is still standing, on the corner of Pleasant and Washington Streets, in this city; and there is no more question that the Gazette is "the oldest paper" in this country, than that Fowle himself was a true patriot and an able editor. And for our part, we are proud to be his successor; and are also happy to be able to add, that his bantling, though now so venerable, is still enjoying a green and hale old age, and promises to continue for a long while yet. We may perhaps as well say, for the information of any abroad, that the Gazette is now published at the Daily Chronicle Office, at $2 per year.

☞ Mr. Charles D. Perry, of this city, the pleasing tenor singer, now attached to Father Kemp's Old Folks' Troupe, was on Monday morning, at the depot, made the recipient of an handsome meerschaum pipe, presented by manager Kemp on behalf of the citizens of Portsmouth. Mr. P. disappeared in a cloud of smoke.

☞ That well-known comedian, Yankee Locke, appears again at the Temple this evening, in the "Yankee in Cuba," affording him a free scope for his speciality—the delineation of Yankee character. A comical afterpiece, by the author of "Ten Nights in a Barroom," will conclude the entertainment.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The 1st District of Columbia colored regiment returned to Washington Sunday afternoon from the South. Their appearance on the street attracted immense crowds of spectators, of their own complexion particularly. Their colored fellow citizens gave them a formal reception and dinner at the Campbell Hospital on Monday.

In Alexandria, Saturday night, Col. Free of the 195th Ohio regiment was attacked by a rebel soldier. The latter was most severely punished.

A colored man named Hunter was shot and severely wounded in the head Sunday afternoon by a young man named Richardson, of Washington.

The Wirz Trial is adjourned to Thursday, Oct. 12, at the request of his counsel. His health is said to be improved.

MEXICO. — Brownsville correspondence says the delay in attacking Matamoras by the Republicans is caused by the non-arrival of the agent sent to the United States to secure material aid. It is said that the agent has met with the fullest success. There is a disagreement among the Liberal Chiefs. Cortinas gives much trouble by his imprudent course and disregard of orders.

GOLD, Monday, 146 1-2.

— U. S. 5-20s at Liverpool, Sept. 29, were 70 to 70 1-2.—A number of Fenian prisoners had just been brought up in Dublin,—letters and money for them being intercepted.

— A new counterfeit $100 greenback is reported at Washington, dated Washington, March 10, 1862. The red seal is imperfectly engraved—otherwise it is a nice counterfeit.

— In Mississippi, Humphreys, the secession, pro-rebel, pro-slavery candidate for Governor, has 10,000 majority, and the vote for Congress is no better. Not a very promising kind of reconstruction.

THE TEETH OFTEN DIE long before the system loses its youthful vigor. This should not be so. To prevent this species of necrosis, use Fragrant Sozodont. It keeps the dental bone alive, the enamel spotless, the gums rosy and elastic, the breath pure and the mouth clean. o9eod1w 10

☞ We have tried Dr. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, and know it to be all that it is recommended to be. Cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, &c.; also pain or distress in the stomach or bowels are readily cured by it. It is very palatable, and contains no opiates.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

THIS SPLENDID MACHINE COMBINES all the good qualities of our well known manufacturing machines, with many new and valuable improvements. It is swift, quiet and positive in its operation; sews the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in a beautiful and substantial manner. It Hems, Fells, Cords, Braids, Tucks, Gathers, Stitches, &c., and will generally do a greater range of work than any machine heretofore offered to the public. We respectfully invite all in want of a Superior Family Sewing Machine to pay us a visit.—Every machine warranted, and full instructions given by competent and courteous attendants. Send for pamphlet. THE SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, 69 Hanover Street, Boston, 458 Broadway, New York.

HORSESHOES,

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are fitted with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
—TO—
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES !

DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and Suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.

His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.

Office, No. 32 Endicott street.

Persons at a distance can consult Dr. Briscoe, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that attents see none but the Doctor himself.

Address Dr. Briscoe, at No. 32 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.

Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secresy observed in every case.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Boston, July 16, 1864. ThSly

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 32 Endicott street.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837, 76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, not surpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a valuable collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their case, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable institution.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

THE FIRST ROBIN RED-BREAST.

BY RICHARD GRANT WHITE.

St. Serf in his cell of silent stone
Awaited the vesper-bell, alone.
Kentigern sought the woodland wild,
Where each living creature loved the child.

There, in the depths of the forest dim,
God's angels come and talk with him.
Before him rapturous visions rise,
And he hears—the songs of Paradise.

Dead to all human love, St. Serf
Finds this heart still cling to a thing of earth.
A birding brown, that with fluttering wings
Sits on his window-sill and sings.

Or, hopping in on the gaunt oak chair,
Its feathers trims with daintiness;
With sidelong glance, half bold, half shy,
Pecks at the frugal loaf of rye;

Demurely responding, when grace is said,
With clerk like chirp and dip of head:
And from human weakness and pain the sin
The grave saint's thoughts would often win.

II.

The broad sun hangs in the glowing West;
Serf, vigil-worn, sleeps with beard on breast.
From his knee the missal falls unheard,
And starts to flight the incarcerated bird.

In the abbey close, a school-freed rout
Of rude boys raise a glorious shout,
As athwart the sun's low-slanting rays
The brown bird dits through the golden haze.

The children call it with eager cries:
Toward them turning it swiftly lies;
But now they wrangle with selfish spite,
As the bird nears fast in trustful flight.

Angrily struggling in cruel strife,
They seize it, and crush out its innocent life.
Two tear it asunder, and frightened stand,
The quivering fragments in each red hand.

The vesper-bell, with reproachful tongue,
Called forth St. Serf to even-song.
Kentigern, leaving the darkening wood,
Strayed where the boys in their horror stood;

When they, who hated the gentle child
For his docile life and his answers mild,
Thrust in his hands the bleeding proof
Of their guilt, and fleeing, stood aloof;

Watching to see how Kentigern
Would fare neath the wrath of the master stern.
But the holy child, no whit dismayed,
Deftly together the fragments laid;

And making the sign of the cross, his face
Grew strangely bright with an inward grace.
Then raising his hands, devout and pure,
To Christ he prayed with fervent secure.

And the bird, while yet he breathed that prayer,
With song of thanksgiving rose in air.
But ever it bears the crimson stain
Where its tender breast was torn in twain.

From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy, for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,
New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1865.

☞ The U. S. Freedmen's Bureau is in receipt of a letter from Gov. Sharkey of Mississippi to Col. Thomas, Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen for that State, in reply to an inquiry of that officer in regard to the freedmen and their present condition. The Governor says:

I have no hesitation in in stating to you, that, as a necessary result from the action of the convention, in my opinion the freedmen can now see and be seed in any court in the State, and as an incident to their right to protection of person and property, which are fully guaranteed by the amended Constitution, that they are competent to testify in any Court of Justice. Their rights, I think, are fully covered by the principles established by the convention which abolished the whole system of slavery, and, as a matter of course, any measure of policy which grew out of that system.

If Gov. Sharkey holds on to this, and the new rebel governor is set aside, as he ought to be, Mississippi will do well.

GREAT EARTHQUAKE.—A dispatch dated San Francisco, Sunday, Oct. 8, says:

At quarter before 1 o'clock to-day the severest earthquake ever felt here frightened the entire population out of their houses into the streets. During half a minute there were two tremendous shocks, which caused buildings to rock in a manner altogether alarming. Services were over in most of the churches. A large congregation at the Unitarian Church was being dismissed when the shock commenced. The ladies shrieked, and all rushed for the doors faster than they could be accommodated with exit. Similar scenes took place at St. Mary's Cathedral and some other churches and certain Sunday schools.

The rush was so great from the Catholic church on Vallejo street that the large doors to the main entrance were carried away and several persons were injured by being trampled upon. The walls of many buildings were cracked in many places, and it surprises every one that large, stately edifices like the Occidental and Cosmopolitan hotels, and other buildings of that class, were not more generally injured. More or less plastering fell off from perhaps half the ceilings in the city.

Cornices fell from many buildings. The entire front of a four-story brick building just erected on the street fell outward, covering about half its width with fragments. One independently constructed chimney of a brick house fell and crushed through the roof of the dining room, coming down upon tables and dishes to the astonishment of the boarders, who were taking a lunch. Three of the servants were injured. Two Chinamen were badly injured by the falling of a fire wall on Jackson street.

The City Hall bell commenced tolling on account of the vibrations of the tower, and the interior walls of the building were much broken up. Fissures two or three feet wide were opened in the ground in the lower part of the city, where it is made land, and some of this ground was elevated many feet above its former level.

Brief accounts from Sacramento, Stockton and San Jose represent the shock as the severest ever felt in those cities. It was not felt at Marysville nor at Placerville, but the town of Santa Cruz felt it violently, some of the brick buildings suffering much damage, and two being destroyed.

FENIANS IN IRELAND.—The latest news from Ireland, Oct. 1, is as follows:

The Fenian prisoners were brought before the Police Magistrates in Dublin yesterday, including the proprietor and editor of the Irish People newspaper. Mr. Barry, Queen's counsel, appeared for the Crown and made a long speech, saying that within the last fortnight £3500 had arrived from America to be expended in revolutionizing Ireland, and by that day's mail the Government had intercepted a letter for Lopper, one of the prisoners, containing a draft for £1400 on the Rothschilds. Several other bills had also been intercepted. The making of pikes had been extensively carried on, one of the prisoners having made 2000. Numerous revolvers and breastplates were found in possession of the prisoners connected with the Irish People newspaper. He quoted an incendiary paragraph, urging the employment of force, from the number of that paper which was about to be issued when seized. Mr. Barry concluded by asserting that the Fenians were powerful both in Ireland and America, and trusted that this affair would end forever such hopeless conspiracies. Evidence was given against the prisoners, and some of them were identified as connected with the suppressed Fenian organ. The investigation is still pending, and will probably last for several days.

At a private examination of six Fenians in Dublin Castle yesterday, corrresponden ce was put in, showing that the plots were of a most sanguinary character. The design was to write down the names of the nobility, aristocracy and land-owners, and assassinate them all on the breaking out of the revolution. The Duke of Leinster and others were especially named. The linen manufacturers and others would be called on for support, under threats of extermination and confiscation of their property. The evidence of treason is said to be most complete.

GOLD, Tuesday, 145: flour and pork lower: cotton much higher, having advanced 14 cents in a few days, in consequence of a large spinning and speculative demand.

— The New York Tribune says that Gen. Slocum excites a great deal of curiosity at the Copperhead meetings. This is natural. He has been in a position for the last four years where the Copperheads sought no opportunity of seeing him.

Local.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

In times past Portsmouth has been visited by a large number of Physicians from other cities, who blew very loud trumpets as to what they were "going" to do, but many of them left behind them anything but the best of professional reputations. We are pleased to know, that at last we have a gentleman among us, who says nothing of what he "will do," but modestly refers to what he has already DONE, and that too right at home in our midst. If after reading such evidence as we have already published, together with that we append below any of our readers are yet unconvinced, all we can say is, they are much more skeptical than we are. We believe in Dr. Campbell.

Certificate of SIMON J. TORR, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH N. H. Oct., 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my Son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and that by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as any body. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at times of commencing Dr. C.'s treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on, the skeptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H. My Son faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time, he was rewarded by a FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING. SIMON J. TORR,
South Dover.

Certificate of Miss Junkins.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H. Oct. 10th 1865

When 5 years old, I had the Scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant "running" from them, most revoltingly offensive to myself and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best Physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I WAS INCURABLE, and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr. Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbour (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 27 years duration by Dr. C., I placed my self in his hands for treatment. At the time of doing so there was a perforation of the drum of one ear, the discharge was more constant and profuse than ever from both, I could not hear a watch tick or without the greatest difficulty understand conversation unless spoken to, close to my ear. I carried out the treatment prescribed by Dr. C. but 3 months, at the end of which time, the discharge from one ear had CEASED ENTIRELY, the perforation of the drum, had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick a good distance, and sustain conversation across the room. My other ear discharges a very little at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to send for more medicine. My hearing in that ear however is greatly improved, while the bad smell is violently, some if I reside with the family of Mr. Young at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time. ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS,

Certificate of Mr. Davidson.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

I have been for fourteen years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fœtid discharge from it all the time. I have tried almost everything, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campbell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few moments he removed a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly, and since then, by the use of the Doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

SETH R. DAVIDSON.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. D. M. Graham, D. D., pastor of Casco Street Church, Portland, has been elected Professor in the Theological Seminary (Free Will Baptist) at New Hampton.

—— At the S. J. Court in Haverhill, Thomas Wyer pleaded "guilty of murder in the second degree,"—having killed Elder Dyer, the head Shaker at Enfield. He was sent to the State Prison for 30 years.

—— Michael Gillis, a crazy man, armed with two rifles, a double-barreled gun, &c., made a small rebellion in Manchester last Sunday morning, and fired at sundry persons. He also charged bayonet on a police officer, wounding him severely. Finally he was secured and sent to the Asylum.

—— In some portions of New Hampshire, the drouth has diminished the crop of Indian corn; yet, taking the State as a whole, the crop is very large, and, being thoroughly ripened, it is sound and valuable. The potato crop is comparatively small, yet the supply will be sufficient for family use, though not ample for the farmer's profit, and of course more corn will be used as food for swine and meat cattle.

— A bright little girl, named Sarah Ann Young, recently died in London, from the fright of seeing an Episcopal clergyman suddenly emerge from the vestry into the church, robed in his white surplice. The child screamed, was carried from the church in convulsions, and died the next day.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Correction of an error—Troubles between New Hampshire and Vermont—Washington Coercing a State—Birth Day Show,—Ships America and Augusta.

An elderly daughter of Portsmouth, who remembers the fire that burnt the jail, and says she was six years old when it happened, tells us that Mr. Treadwell's house was not burnt, but only his barn, which was set on fire accidentally by some boys, who had made a parcel of clay marbles, and kindled a fire in that building, to bake the marbles. The house stood where the Temple now stands, and when very old was bought by the Baptist Society, with the land, and used as a place of worship. Our informant went to meeting there, to hear the preaching of Elias Smith.

In 1782, there was much trouble between the States of Vermont and New Hampshire, about the towns on both sides of the Connecticut River.—And Gen. Washington was prepared to use Coercion in the case, tho' he felt loth to do so. In a letter to the Governor of Vermont, he says:

"There is no calamity within the compass of my fortune which is more to be dreaded than a necessity of coercion on the part of congress; and consequently every endeavor should be used to prevent the execution of so disagreeable a measure. It must involve the ruin of that state against which the resentment of the others is pointed."

The gentlemen of the town, upon the recommendation of the General Assembly, appointed Thursday the 20th of June, 1784 for the celebration of the birth of the Dauphin of France; as a compliment to his more Christian Majesty, the great Ally of the United States. The day was ushered in by the ringing of bells, and display of colors. At noon, a salute was fired from the forts, and answered by batteries in town. A large collection of gentlemen partook of a cold collation at the State-house, and drank some suitable toasts, prepared for the occasion, which were accompanied by the discharge of cannon. At sunset the salutes were repeated by the forts and batteries. In the evening the ship America, then on the stocks, was beautifully decorated and illuminated; various kinds of fireworks were displayed, and every method was adopted to express the joy of the inhabitants on this auspicious event.

The ship America, pierced for 74 guns, was launched on Tuesday the 5th day of November, 1782, at Rising Castle, an island belonging to the honorable John Langdon, who was the agent for building her. She moved majestically on her ways to her destined element, without any accident, amidst the rejoicings of an immense number of spectators, who lined the shores; this ship does great credit to Colonel James Hackett, the master builder, and other workmen employed in constructing her. Congress, finding it difficult to procure materials for completing her for sea, made a present of her to the King of France.

On Thursday night, the 7th of November, 1782, a violent thunder storm arose, which did considerable damage. The lightning struck the Augusta, an 80 gun ship belonging to the King of France, then lying in this harbour, commanded by Admiral the Count Vaudreuil, which entirely disabled her foremast, greatly injured her forcastle and decks, killed four men, and wounded five others.

— From Tennessee we learn that the Military Commission to try Emerson Etheridge will adjourn for several days. Efforts are being made to change the place of trial to Memphis.

— The Navy Department has decided to dispose of the vessels yet remaining unsold to the highest bidders. Hitherto the Department has reserved the right to withdraw from sale such vessels as did not bring a certain price established by itself.

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6.

The Great Invention of the Age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Tire Retaining Steel Springs, ingeniously braid d tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be appreciated in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Concerts, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when not in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

THE HOOPS are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom Rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods and dragging down dirt, stone steps, &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEEKS, BRADLEY & CARY, Proprietors of the Invention, and Sole Manufacturers, 97 Chambers, and 79 and 81 Reade Sts., New York.

For sale in all first-class Stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TRIALS USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores prompt sensation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums. Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1325, New York City.

Mrs. WINSLOW

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP

For Children Teething,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammations, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to your selves and Relief and Health to Your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know;" after 20 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.

Price, Only 25 Cents per Bottle.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 10.—Wm. Welch, for insulting Ellen M. Finnin, fined $3 and costs $4 63. If every woman who gets insulted, even on Congress street alone, from time to time, would go and do likewise, i. e. follow the example of Miss Finnin, it would have the effect of dispersing a large number of pimps and loafers, who now infest our streets for the sole purpose of ogling females, and making gross remarks in relation to them.

☞ The Secretary of the Navy has issued an order directing that hereafter all applications for the positions of master workmen in navy yards must be addressed to the Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks in Washington, accompanied by recommendations and a statement of qualifications, and whenever a vacancy occurs in any yard, selection for the place will be made from the applicants accepted as competent, without regard to State or locality.

LYCEUM.—Cost of Lecturers.—The aggregate fees of four of the Lecturers who have been engaged to appear before the Citizens' Lyceum this season, amount to $450. Lecturers' fees have risen in proportion to everything else, but the Association feel confident that the public will not go without this Course, and will come forward in such numbers as to make the undertaking a success in every particular.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band are to have a Promenade Concert at the Temple on Tuesday evening next, to conclude with a dance, when the merits of the new floor for the Temple will doubtless be thoroughly tested, and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all present.

☞ This evening, the last but one of Yankee Locke's stay, will be performed the drama of "Sam Patch in France," and a laughable farce, in both of which Mr. L. will sustain the role in which he has acquired so wide a reputation.

☞ The book of Mr. Richardson, for which Agents are desired by the American Publishing Company, is one of the most interesting accounts of adventures in the late war yet published, and meets with immense public favor. See advertisement.

TEXAS AND MEXICO.—The Tribune's Brownsville, Texas, correspondent, writing Sept. 15th, says the 25th corps had just been reviewed and presented a fine and effective appearance. The sanitary condition of the corps is much improved, owing to a change in the location of the hospitals. The mortality has decreased one-fifth and the sick list is growing small. It was reported that Gen. Carravajal would arrive in a few days, with from 5000 to 6000 men.

The Tribune's Washington correspondence of Sept. 14th says Guadaloupe Garrien reports that a loan of $5,000,000 has been effected by the Liberal Minister to the United States. He also says arms and other warlike materials have been purchased. If this be true the Liberals can raise a legion of from 10,000 to 20,000 men, which would enable them to regain all the country north of Santander River.

☞ At the late meeting of the American Board of Foreign Missions, held at Chicago, resolutions were adopted, expressing gratitude to God for the return of peace, the end of slavery, and acknowledging the lessons which the Church must draw from the recent conflict and its termination, and her duty to consecrate her energies to the work of saving a lost world. The next annual meeting is to be at Pittsfield, Mass., in Dr. Todd's Church, on the last Tuesday in September, 1866. Rev. J. P. Thompson, D. D., of New York, preacher, Rev. S. P. Hickok alternate.

— The Nashville Banner calls attention to the fact that Tennessee has all the natural advantages for becoming a great wool-raising State, and recommends wool as much more profitable than cotton.

GEN. VERSUS GEO.—It seems that Gen. Saunders and not Geo. Saunders, has been made postmaster in Canada,—a slight telegraphic blunder.

—The Mississippi Central Railroad will be in running order from Memphis in a few days, when passengers can reach New Orleans in forty hours after leaving the former city.

— "Our dark-visaged citizens continue to 'get further;' sixty of them were provided with passes yesterday," says the Louisville Journal of the 4th inst. The Journal is evidently progressing toward Northern light, as well as the "citizens" it speaks of.

— In discussing the terms by which the Southern States will probably be admitted into the Union, even the New York Herald says that the exclusion of the emancipated blacks from the civil courts will not get the President's approval, and will certainly be fatal to the request of the South for re-admission. Negro suffrage may be postponed, but security under the law to the negro's person and property cannot be delayed, says the Herald.

— The treasure captured among Jefferson Davis' effects has been counted at the Treasury Department. It amounts to $87,878 in gold, mostly old coinage, $8822 in silver, 146 pieces of foreign gold and silver—value not estimated—and 56 bricks of silver, weing over five pounds each, the estimated value of which is $100 each. The value of the whole is somewhere over $100,000.

COUNT AND DISCOUNT.—The papers contain the reply of Gen. Lee to the proffer of Count Joannes to defend him in case he is indicted for treason.

THE TEETH OFTEN DIE long before the system loses its youthful vigor. This should not be so. To prevent this species of necrosis, use Fragrant Sozodont. It keeps the bone alive, the enamel spotless, the gums rosy and healthy, the breath pure and the mouth clean. o9eod1w 10

☞ We have tried DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, and know it to be all that it is recommended to be. Cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, &c.; also pain or distress in the stomach or bowels, are readily cured by it. It is very palatable, and contains no opiates.

SINGER'S LETTER "A"

FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

THIS SPLENDID MACHINE COMBINES all the good qualities of our well known manufacturing machines, with many new and valuable improvements. It is swift, quiet and positive in its operation; sews the very lightest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in a beautiful and substantial manner. It Hems, Fells, Cords, Braids, Tucks, Quilts, Shirrs, &c., and will generally do a greater range of work than any machine heretofore offered to the public. We respectfully invite all in search of a Superior Family Sewing Machine to pay us a visit—every machine warranted, and full instructions given by competent and courteous attendants. Send for pamphlet. THE SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, 69 Hanover Street, Boston, 458 Broadway, New York.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables blacksmiths to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make with common shoe shapes, and the shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common iron, and the finished shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Bangor Whig says that nearly all the iron safes in the burnt section of Augusta which were in wooden buildings were found with their contents well preserved, whereas those which were in brick buildings, especially those which fell a considerable distance, failed. Premature opening, in some cases, caused the destruction of the contents of safes, which, had proper caution been exercised, might have been preserved. The most certain security was found where safes were enclosed in brick vaults, with foundations strong enough to prevent their falling into the cellars. At three of the Augusta bank safes afforded perfect protection to their contents, a fact attributable to their being placed in vaulted chambers. At the same fire it was remarked that safes which were baked among hot bricks and burning timbers stood a worse chance of effectually preserving their contents than did those which were in wooden buildings, the burning debris of which was more easily quenched.

THE GREAT
CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY!
DR. LAROOKAH'S
Indian Vegetable Pulmonic Syrup!
The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:

Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Hoarseness, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of this never failing Remedy, I have only to refer to the written testimonials of Hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to Health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:

REV. J. C. INGALLS, of Melrose, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."

REV. B. F. BOWLES, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr. Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I would confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."

REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gassecoort, Sar. Co., N. Y., says: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."

DR. FOWLER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."

HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, 86 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Bottle.

DR. LAROOKAH'S
SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND!
It is double the strength of any other Sarsaparilla Compound in the market.

For the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Dropsy, Neuralia, Epilepsy, Erysipelas, Boils, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Pain in the Stomach, Side, and Bowels, Debility, and all complaints arising from impurities of the BLOOD.

The trial of a single Bottle of either will gain the confidence of the sick.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, as for the last of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing—or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal, They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

THE PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS.—The desolation caused in Palestine and Syria by enormous swarms of locusts, exceeds anything that has been known there for centuries. In April large dark clouds appeared, which coming down, proved to be locusts, so great in number that the land was covered. They buried themselves up in the ground, and deposited their eggs, which the Arabs destroyed in incredible numbers, but to very little effect. About the middle of May small black heaps were observed accumulating, and in a few days they began their desolating march in regular lines, like an army. They consumed the plantations, and entering towns and villages, destroyed the victuals, defying all human effort to resist or stay their progress. The growing fruits have been destroyed, and hardly a green thing is to be seen in the richest portion of the country, causing great suffering all over the land.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1865.

THE PRESIDENT ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE. Secretary Welles recently told the editor of the Hartford Press that if Mr. Johnson was at home, and a private citizen, he would favor negro suffrage in Tennessee. Senator Doolittle's account of the President's views is to the effect that, while he should desire that each Southern State should strike out all constitutional restriction upon colored suffrage, and that the Legislature should be empowered to extend, from time to time, the rights of suffrage to certain superior classes of the colored people, such as those who had performed the military service, who had for a long time been heads of families, and supported them by their own industry, and who had demonstrated clearly their intellectual fitness to exercise the right of suffrage, it would be wholly impolitic and dangerous for him to attempt to establish negro suffrage as a condition precedent to the re-admission of the rebellious States.—Boston Journal.

Perhaps it might be. But not so with Congress. And unless folly and treachery reign supreme in both Houses, no ex-rebel State will be restored until provision be made, either for impartial suffrage or for having representation based on the legal voters of each State, instead of the census, as now.

GOLD, Wednesday, 144 1-2.

JAMES A. DIX, long the editor of the Boston Journal, died on Wednesday.

PENNSYLVANIA is said to give 5000 Union majority. A Union Mayor is chosen in Philadelphia, where there was a very large vote.

— Newark, N. J., has just given 600 to 800 majority for Union city officers. Last year the copper ticket had a large majority.

— Gen. Morgan, the war-candidate of the peace-party in Ohio, whose capital was abuse of New England, is buried under about 25,000 majority for Gen. Cox, as Governor.

— The Alabama Convention have established negro testimony in courts of justice.

— The Bangor Whig says potatoes are selling in that city, for shipment, at 60c a 65c per bushel.

— The Savannah Herald recommends the culture of tea in parts of Georgia.

— Gen. Banks is going to Congress from his old District.

— A young lady's waterfall took fire in a cigar store in Brooklyn, last week, and was consumed.

— Commodore John Pope has been detached from duty as Prize Commissioner, and appointed Lighthouse Inspector for the First District, at Portland, Me.

— On the 10th of September a huge fire was kindled on the Schnee Koppe, the highest of the giant mountains in Lower Silesia, to celebrate the birth of a child in a hut on the top of the mountain. The Prussian wags say this is the "highest born" personage in the Prussian dominions.

— Rev. Jeremiah Day, ex-President of Yale College is the oldest man in New Haven. He is in his 93d year, and visited Hartford the other day, where he astonished the young men by walking all about the city and up Asylum Hill, where younger men prefer to take the horse cars.

— It is said that no single instance of a submarine telegraphic cable being injured by a fish of any kind or size has yet occurred. Every creature with fins flies from it, so that it fares much better than the wire on land in India, where monkeys are persuaded that the poles and lines are erected for them to use in gymnastic exercises.

— The St. Louis Democrat says: "Mr. Laws, formerly a Presbyterian clergyman at Fulton, Mo., is President of the New York Gold Board, at a salary of $5000 per annum. Before his departure from Missouri he was incarcerated for a time in Gratiot street prison, on a charge of entertaining sympathies with secession."

— A young man residing in a town near Worcester, Mass., had a dear ride one day last week. Finding a pair of horses and a carriage standing in the street, he got in, took the reins and drove off. The horses became unmanageable and ran away, finally breaking the carriage and so injuring him that he was taken up for dead. On his recovering consciousness, he was arrested by the owner of the team, who finally let him off on his friends paying four hundred dollars for damages.

— There are some smart rascals in Memphis, Tennessee, who, when they find a horse unmarked, represent themselves as government agents, and boldly claim the animal as a horse that has been stolen from government. If the owner of the horse claims that there are no "U. S." marks on the animal, the rogues produce a glass, which they declare is a magnifying one, and, as the lens of the glass has a faint "U. S." lined upon it, the looking through it makes the letters visible, apparently on the horse. This astounds the owner of the beast, and with cool audacity the thieves ride off with the horse they have appropriated.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Claremont Town Fair came off last week, with success.

—— A man in Unity raised from one early blue potato, a crop of 95 lbs.

—— Rev. Amos Blanchard, for 25 years pastor of a congregational church at Meriden, has resigned:—cause feeble health.

—— The water in Lake Winnepisseogee is so low as to cause fears of interruption in its navigation.

—— Messrs. Stevens & Wiggin of Dover are erecting a large building near their glue factory for the manufacture of sand paper. It is the second establishment of the kind in the United States.

—— One D. Stellifer Moulton, formerly a newspaper correspondent, and whose family reside in New Hampshire, was arrested at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York city, on charges of defrauding the proprietors. He is said to be insane, and signs himself "Reigning Prince of the House of David." He imagined that he had claims amounting to several million dollars against the Government, and had endeavored to negotiate loans on the faith of his expectations. He had extensive correspondence with distinguished persons, and talked of starting a newspaper to advocate his views.

KENTUCKY. — The Washington special dispatch to the Boston Journal says:

The Kentucky embroglio has three sides: Garret Davis and his party, which consists of G. A. Dunlop, McClellip Swegert, member elect to the State Senate, James Dawson, State Register, and M. C. Johnson, ask the removal of Gen. Palmer, the suppression of the pass system, and, in fact, the recognition of Kentucky as a slave State. Green Clay Smith wants Palmer removed, a General who he names to be placed in command there who will put any judge in jail who entertains suits brought under the State laws for the protection of slavery, and complains that magistrates who appoint known rebels on grand jury commissions are permitted to do as they please, to the great damage of Union men, while Gen. P. refuses to exercise his power to restain them. Gen. Rosseau, on the other hand, wants Palmer to remain and do as he has done. The whole correspondence on the subject will be published in a few days.

JEFF. DAVIS AND THE DISMAL SWAMP. The N. Y. Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent says Jeff. Davis expresses himself greatly pleased with his change of quarters.

An extensive fire has been sweeping over the Dismal swamp for several days, and it is probable that thousands of acres will be burned over.

A. H. STUART is running for Congress, though he admits he cannot take the oath required, in case he is elected. Like other Southern gentlemen, who consider everything that stands in their way as un-constitutional, he intends to inform Congress that the law is against his constitution, and therefore against that of the United States. Would it not be well to call an extra session of Congress and have the law altered before Mr. Stuart appears to claim his seat? The Stuarts did not succeed in returning to England to govern that nation, but that is no reason of course, why they should not rule the United States.—Transcript.

— Champ Ferguson, the guerrilla, is sentenced to be hung.

— A black fish, twenty feet in length and weighing about 5000 pounds, was captured off Cape Elizabeth on Tuesday and towed into Portland, by the yacht Nettle.

— It is said that the President has directed the withdrawal of colored troops from Kentucky and the suspension of martial law in the State, and that Gen. Palmer retains the command there.

— A lad who recently died in Goshen Ind., from the kick of a horse in the abdomen, lived twenty-days without taking food of any kind. He took his meat "on the hoof."

— Reports from the French vineyards state that the year 1865 will be counted as one of the best for its wine. The fruit is soft, tender, and sweet, and leaves nothing to be desired.

— In Tennessee some colored soldiers rescued two of their own color from the Sheriff who was conveying them to the penitentiary. They were convicted of killing another negro:—a black affair throughout.

— The other day, three soldiers in Memphis, Tenn., while running away from the patrol guard, leaped from the Susquehanna Bridge into the river, a distance of sixty feet, and swam the river, making good their escape.

— Good beef sells in Texas at five cents per pound. The whole market of the United States might be supplied there, and there would not be any apparent decrease. Beef at five cents in one end of the Union and from six to seven hundred per cent. higher at the other!

— The falls at Lewiston, Me., are perfectly dry, says the Journal, all the water passing through the canal. They have many visitors daily, who can walk over any part of them. There are holes worn into solid rock from 1 to 5 deep. Just below Bearce & Co.'s Mill there is a hole not quite so large as a flour barrel, which is 11 feet 8 inches deep in the solid rock.

AT THE S. J. COURT, Concord, the following criminals were sentenced to the State Prison.

Dennis Crowley plead guilty to breaking and entering in the day time and stealing, and was sentenced to two years in State Prison. He is eighteen years of age, and has served one term in the House of Reformation.

John A. Ward and John Sayder, for stealing a horse, were each sentenced to three years in Prison.

Neil Nelson, for breaking and entering a dwelling house in the day time and stealing, and Joseph Latouch, for burglary and stealing, each three years.

Sarah Sleeper and Ellen J. Tilton, for breaking and entering a shop in the night and stealing, and Sally Cilley, for secreting stolen property, each sentenced to three years.

Francis H. Jenkins, for an aggravated assault upon Charles Lord, was fined $30 and costs, and sentenced to four months imprisonment in the county jail.

John Sullivan, a boy about sixteen years of age, for stealing $78 from his brother-in-law, was sentenced to the House of Reformation.

A GENEROUS RECOGNITION OF FAITHFUL SERVICE.—The Church of the Pilgrims in San Francisco, at the close of the first year of his pastorate, gave to the Rev. Horatio Stebbins four thousand dollars in gold. This gift was a testimony to the recipient's devotedness, ability, and moral and religious worth, and to the fidelity and success which have marked and crowned his labors as the minister of the large and flourishing congregation, gathered by his predecessor, Rev. T. S. King. The Unitarian denomination may well be proud of the representative men who, during the past six years, besides being the eloquent advocates of its religious views, have won respect and confidence as patriotic citizens, in the Golden State.—Transcript.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH to the negroes of the 1st Dist. Columbia Colored Regt., on their return to Washington, contains these important sentences:

One great question has been settled in this government, and that is the question of slavery. The institution of slavery made war against the United States, and the United States has lifted its strong arm in vindication of the government and of free government, and in lifting that arm appealing to the God of battles it has been decided that the institution of slavery must go down. (Cheers.) This has been done, and the Goddess of Liberty, in bearing witness over many of our battle fields since the struggles began, has made her loftiest flight and cried that true liberty has been established upon a more permanent and enduring basis than heretofore. * * * * Now, when you have returned from the army of the United States and taken the position of the citizen—when you have returned to the avocations of peace,—will you give evidence to the world of your ability to govern yourselves?

That is what you will have to do. Liberty is not a mere idea, a mere vagary; it is an idea or it is a reality, and when you come to examine this question of liberty you will not be mistaken in a mere idea for a reality. It does not consist in idleness. Liberty does not consist in doing as we please in all things, and there can be no liberty without law. In a government of freedom and liberty there must be law, and there must be obedience and submission to law without regard to color. (Cheers.)

If the democracy will endorse all this, there is great hope of them!

GEORGIA AND S. C.—A Washington letter says:

A gentleman connected with the State government of Ohio, who has just returned from a tour through North and South Carolina and Georgia, states that a large number of planters in those States express their determination to entirely dispense with the services of their slaves on the first of January, as after that time they assert they will scarcely have enough to support themselves, let alone feeding and caring for their laborers, until the next crop is gathered. Speaking from personal observation, he says he does not believe that more than one third of the able-bodied colored population of the States above mentioned are steadily at work. The other two-thirds are either leading idle lives or travelling from place to place, seeking to better their condition.

[We see nothing strange in all this:—but it is manifest that while the planter is free to dismiss his laborers, they will find food somehow, and if he has not paid them enough to buy food, their hunger may break through store walls. The idlers will probably suffer some and steal some. Those that travel from place to place, cannot find a worse place than where laborers are penniless.]

☞ It is said that "all the world's a stage," &c., and if that be so, staging is rather dangerous in some parts of it. Every day or two we see accounts of serious accidents from the giving way of defective staging. Such a casualty occurred in Portland on Tuesday, by which Mr. Amos Whitehouse and three others were thrown a distance of twenty feet to the ground, resulting in the death of Mr. W., and serious injury to the rest.

—A correspondent of the Hartford Times says that Colchester, the juggling medium, was detected by him at a circle in Hartford in a feat of jugglery where a number sitting in the dark with joined hands were touched by "spirit hands" on their faces, when one seized the "hand" with his teeth, and discovered that it was a tallow candle which Colchester had blown out when the circle was arranged.

TENNESSEE.—A Nashville paper says there are in Tennessee 77,017 native white adults who cannot read or write. No honor, save a people's heartfelt gratitude, would be ample enough for the man who, burning with the holy ardor of philanthropy, should shun the beaten path of vulgar ambition and the intrigues of office-hunters, and give his days and nights to the work of providing a school system for Tennessee which would build a schoolhouse in every neighborhood, where the poorest child should be welcome; who should plant the banner of universal education and free schools everywhere in Tennessee. To-day over seventy-seven thousand white men and women in that State ask us to take compassion upon the poor children in our borders, and furnish means for their instruction. We talk of free labor, but let us remember that free education is quite as essential to the strength and glory of a people. We talk of reconstruction; let us remember that education is no less deserving our attention. The foulest, basest crime ever committed by the rebel Governor was done when he laid his hands on the children's school fund. Let his name be accursed!

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. s23dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

Local.

☞ To us, much of the enjoyment of an entertainment is dependent upon the surroundings of the place wherein it is held, and on every occasion that we enter the Temple, a chill of disappointment strikes us as we see the piles of lumber cumbering up different portions of the auditorium, the parti-colored seats (one portion a dirty drab, the rest a dirty white), and the general aspect of cheerlessness which almost leads one to think himself in a huge barn. The expenditure to remedy this defect of the only public place of amusement we have would be small, and we hope it may soon be done.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 11.—John McDonnell, in obedience to the solicitation of thirsty friends, and to a desire to rake into his coffers a few extra dollars, deems it prudent to open his little Tophet on Water street on Sunday morning. The sulphurous gases arising therefrom attracting the notice of the police, he is arrested for violating the Sunday ordinance by dealing out damnation on this holy day. The offence being proved, the Judge thinks it proper to demand of John the sum of $10, and costs $4.80. Thinks he can do better at a higher court and so appeals, giving bonds for his appearance.

John Campbell had emulated imbibing some of McDonnell's manufactured juniper, as his breath had a powerful odor of extremely poor gin; and as gin is a kind of liquor seldom used in bathing the head, (although rum is—which fact will account for the strong effluvia of liquor sometimes proceeding from some of our friends—) it is fair to presume that Mr. Campbell quietly placed himself outside of a number of glasses, and hence his intoxication. Fined $3, and costs $3.86.

☞ We learn that Chief Engineer Bartleman of this Navy Yard, has been detached and ordered to U. S. steamer Candaigua, now fitting out at the Boston Yard. Mr. Bartleman is a thorough gentleman, a man of much skill and enterprise and with his genial, sociable nature, he can never fail of securing a host of friends wherever he goes. Maysuccess attend him. We understand that the vacancy created by his detachment is to be filled by Chief Engineer Roberts, of Massachusetts.

☞ We think no apprehension need be felt by the managers of the Citizens' Lyceum in regard to a ready sale of tickets for the coming course of lectures, judging from the frequent expressions we hear in favor of the "institution," in connection with the fact of the rapid sale of tickets. It is proverbial that it takes a long time to get Portsmouth people awakened to any enterprise, but we believe they are fairly alive to the importance of sustaining a course of first-class lectures not only this winter, but for all time to come. The fact is, no city of the size of ours can afford to be without a Lyceum, and while one is better than none, still we think two ought to be supported here.

When such eminent orators as Gough, Chapin, Phillips, Curtis and Holland are booked to cater to our literary tastes, no one should hesitate to secure a ticket. Much credit is due Mr. Head, the corresponding secretary, for the energy and enterprise he displays in his endeavors to make this a success in point of merit, by thus securing some of the best lecturers of the day.

RUTH BLAY.—Ruth Blay was hung at Portsmouth, N. H., ninety-seven years ago, for child murder, and it is a singular fact that the person who caused her execution is still alive. She was a school teacher, and Mrs. Betsey Eastman, of Salisbury, N. H., now 103 years old, was one of her scholars, and still remembers and relates the circumstances. The teacher was absent one day, and Mrs. E., then a girl of six years, while at play in the school-house, saw a loose board in the floor, which she raised from motives of curiosity, and there discovered the remains of a dead infant. She told what she had seen, and an investigation showed it to be the child of the teacher, who murdered it to conceal its birth. She was tried, convicted and hung. Exchanges.

All this about Mrs. Emerson is probably true, and certainly interesting. But a portion of the story about Ruth Play is not true. There was no proof that she murdered her child, and there was a strong probility that she did not. She was indicted for concealing the birth of a bastard child, so that it might not come to light, whether the said child was born alive or not." So says Mr. Adams, who was well posted in such things. The only murder in the case was the hanging of Ruth Blay. A reprieve arrived a few moments after she was executed.

☞ A correspondent of the Wolfeboro' News states that Mr. James Rand, proprietor of one of the Dover packets, proposes to enlarge his boat and fit it for running by steam before another season, so that the trip from this city to Dover may not be so uncertain. Success to him.

"SHELLS OF THE OCEAN."—Two of the largest size (15-inch) can be seen in front of the residence of Ex-Gov. Goodwin, mounted on iron stands.

☞ For the last time, Yankee Locke opens his budget of fun at the Temple tonight, producing therefrom the "Lost Heir" and the "Forest Rose."

☞ Mr. Wendell will sell to-day, on the premises, a house on South street, with barn and garden attached.

☞ There will be sport at the Sagamore this afternoon. See the advertisement of a foot-race.

☞ Those Virginia Sweet Potatoes from Mr. Hill's new family Grocery in Water street, are of excellent quality; and the whole stock, being selected by an old experienced hand, will give satisfaction to the customer. See advertisement.

— By careful computation the Washington-Star has found that for every column of news it has from Philadelphia it has to publish at least two columns of contradictions.

— A Scottish paper states that during the last two years, the practice of snuff-taking has been discontinued in Scotland to an almost incredible extent, and continues rapidly to diminish.

— O. M. Shaw's horse "Gen. McClellan" won the sweepstakes purse at the Hancock County Fair, held at Ellsworth the present week, in three straight heats. Time—2:31, 2:30, 2:29.

☞ We have tried DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, and know it to be all that it is recommended to be. Cases of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, &c.; also pain or distress in the stomach or bowels, are readily cured by it. It is very palatable, and contains no opiates.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6.

The Great Improvement of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the lightest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom Bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space, and can be easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

THE HOOPS are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, Depots, &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY, Proprietors of the Invention, and Sole Manufacturers, 97 Chambers, and 79 and 81 Reade Sts., New York.

For sale in all first class Stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This smooth work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

GROWING OLD.

Touch us, oh, Time! with light hand as you pass,
Temp'ring to think it a loving caress;
Tread on our hearts, too, with reverent care,—
Crush not the flowers of life blooming there;
Furrow our foreheads with care if you will,
But let youth linger within our hearts still.

'Mid our dark tresses are fibres of gray,—
Silent reminders of life's fleeting day;
And when we turn to the shadowy past,
On its bright altars lay ashes and dust;
All its fair idols are marked with decay,—
All its sweet pictures are faded away.

Sadly we look for the friends of the past,—
They of strong heart and the beautiful trust;
Some we find sleeping beneath sculptured stone;
Some toiling wearily onward alone;
Some thro' ambition grown heartless and cold,
But one and all, save the dead, growing old.

Oft we grow weary in watching in vain,
O'er hopes that always but shadows remain;
Weary of counting the joys that have died;
Weary of laying bright visions aside;
Weary of taking but dross for pure gold;
Weary, so weary, of hearts growing old.

Chase from us, Time, all shadowy fears;
Lift from our lives the slow burden of years;
Shadow our foreheads, and silver our hair,
But, oh, shield our hearts from the furrows of care.

Let not the heart e'er grow selfish or cold,
And we shall no longer fear to grow old.

LATEST NEWS FROM THE PIT.—A dispatch dated Pit Hole, (oil Region,) Oct. 9, says:—

Highway robberries in this section are becoming of daily occurrence. The scenes of operations are on the roads leading to Titusville or Shaffers, and the robbers are so numerous and bold it is not safe to travel the roads alone. Yesterday, Mr. Rockford of Jamestown, N. Y., while on his way to Shaffers, was waylaid, robbed of $1500 and a gold watch, and left for dead. He is alive, but it is not likely that he will recover.

Garroting is almost of nightly occurrence here, making it unsafe to be out after dark. Those doing business here are organizing themselves into a vigilance committee for their own protection, and if any scoundrels are caught lynch law will take its course and no mercy be shown.

— Do not meddle with what does not concern you. Recollect that when the hounds are furiously fighting for a morsel of meat, if they see a jackal pass, they set off together in pursuit of him.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are unrivalled in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World, of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is to be assured that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for every body.—Sent free to all inquirers. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy, or, Lectures on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of these diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Ashton's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice. N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and small-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron B. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

☞ The Richmond Times, in an editorial, pays the following rather doubtful compliment to Connecticut:

"Nothing can be more diverting than the howls of rage and despair, long, dismal and unearthly, which the friends of anarchy and miscegenation are uttering over the scarlet soil of noble little Connecticut. Their woe is dismal and unconsolable. The vote of Connecticut is the most significant event of the day. It shows that the long, dreary winter of New England fanaticism is about closing. 'The ice on the Neva is breaking up,' as the Russian joyously shouts when the strong vernal tides flowing in from the Baltic shatter the congelations of a long Arctic winter. Reason, patriotism and common sense have scaled battlements of fanaticism, and the flag of a purified Union, with its new objects and aims, now floats from the battlements of a New England State. 'Laus Deo!' The refusal of the people of Connecticut to place the negro on an equality with the white man removes a most alarming and formidable obstacle from the path of reconstruction."

— It is said that no single instance of a submarine telegraphic cable being injured by a fish of any kind or size has yet occurred. SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1865.

THE FENIAN MOVEMENT.—The London Morning Star states that immediately after the disbanding of the American army there were large numbers of Irishmen who had served in its ranks who returned to Ireland with their pockets full of money, and who, by the wonderful stories of the fights they had been through, and what they could and would do in the cause of Ireland, were really a dangerous element among the Irish people. The Star states, as a significant fact, that these men are now returning to America, having doubtless made up their minds that the safest place for them in case of an outbreak, is on this side of the Atlantic. The writer says: "From the result of my inquiries among those who ought to know, I am satisfied that few of the class I speak of are now to be found in Ireland."

FROM THE PACIFIC.—Dates from Valparaiso to Sept 10, Callao 21st and New Zealand August 9, have been received at Panama.

The Chilian Congress was still occupied on the reforms in the constitution. Trade was satisfactory, showing a large increase in customs.

In New Zealand the Maoris had cruelly murdered a British Government official and the master and crew of a vessel they had captured. The Maori war was considered closed, as negotiations for peace had been concluded.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION. — An amusing incident is reported to have occurred in this body during the speech of a Mr. Welsh:

He stated that so anxious was the church not to appear to connect itself in any way with the state, that during the session at Richmond, six years ago, the convention refused to memorialize the President of the United States, and yet inconsistently, a few days afteward, called upon Gov. Wise, about the period of the John Brown excitement. Several members loudly exclaimed, "I did not call on him—I did not call on him!" and Rev. Dr. Adams said he could not suffer this to pass without explaining that the vote to visit Gov. Wise did not pass the convention, but that members were allowed to visit him in their private capacity.

[From the Utica Daily Observer, Sept. 15.]

"FIRST PREMIUM.—By reference to the list which we publish elsewhere, it will be seen that the Singer Sewing Machines (both family and manufacturing) carry off the first premiums from the State Fair which closes to-day. It is worthy of remark that these machines are rarely seen at fairs and the Singer Co. have not entered into the general scramble for premiums which has characterized the past few years. The agent in this city saw fit, however, to come out on this occasion, in force; and notwithstanding the competition was sharp—the Wheeler & Wilson, Grover & Baker, &c. &c. competitors in the contest—it was plain to be seen when the practical tests were applied, that the plumes must be handed over to the Singer machines." Thomas S. Nowell, agent in Portsmouth.

GOLD, Thursday, 145 1-4.

— In Iowa, Union majority 20,000, in a small vote.

— Thanksgiving in Massachusetts, Thursday, November 30.

— There are indications of excitement in Norfolk at the State election. The military are to be held in readiness to quell any disturbance that may occur.

— On the 10th inst., over the Fashion Course, N. Y., Dexter ran a mile in 2:18 1-4 the first half in 1:08 1-2.

— Jeff. Davis is much pleased with his new quarters.—Ex. We are much pleased with "new quarters"—when we can get 'em.

— The incendiary who kindled the destructive fire at Augusta has confessed his guilt. His name is Geo. W. Jones, and he is from China, Me. A piece of china ware that does little credit to the spot where his clay was moulded.

— A dispatch from Richmond says there will be Congressional candidates in the field at the election to-day who will not take the oath.

— Census returns of 1860 show that in that year there were in operation within the United States, 23 establishments for the manufacture of billiard and bagatelle tables, with an invested capital of $340,268; paying for labor, $139,176; employing 298 hands, and yielding annually products amounting in value to $727,900.

— Harriet Ricks, a servant girl in Brooklyn, took from the shelf of her employer what she supposed to be a bottle of whisky and drank heartily. It turned out to be corrosive sublimate, and, after lingering a few hours in the greatest distress, she died.

— It is an ancient conundrum, "Why is Queen Elizabeth more remarkable than the Falls of Niagara?—Because they are a wonder, but she was a Tudor." But here is an improvement on it. A Norfolk farmer built himself a homestead, and instead of one "half door" in the middle, set a door in each wing. Being asked why he called his house "Elizabethan," he replied, "Because you see it is a Tu-door (two-door) cottage."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The stolen yoke of oxen, held as such by a butcher in Manchester, belong to Benj. Hill of Northwood, and were taken from his pasture in Nottingham. The owner did not miss them till he saw the story in the Mirror.

—— Wm. W. Mayhew, a boy but 14 years of age, committed suicide in Manchester on Tuesday evening. He had been in the habit of playing truant from school, and it is supposed that fear of the consequences of his misconduct led to the commission of the rash act. His father searched for him on the street and then, going to the shed, was shocked to find his body hanging by a small cord attached to one of the rafters.

NORTH CONWAY.—A writer who has been up among our mountains, writes in the Boston Recorder about North Conway, its church and minister, as follows:—

The church in the village is a very neat, pretty building, and the pastor in charge seems a hard-working, industrious man. His congregation is divided, holding services on the Sabbath at two points; one about four miles below. Hitherto he has supplied both places; but last year he had the audacity to vote for Abraham Lincoln, and the hearers down there closed their ears to his voice, procuring a new man to preach in his place. This fell rather severely on the good brother, for it took away half of his pittance. And this summer he was trying to live on less than three hundred dollars a year. A few of the guests raised a sum of money for a gift to him before they left. That seems to be the form of suffering that the war has caused many a faithful patriot to meet, even in our Northern States. I am sure I wish people would inquire closely in these villages, where they go in the summer, how it fares with the men who are preaching. A little aid, in days as narrow as these are, does great good.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT EXPECTS.—Judge Bird of Alabama has lately visited Washington, and he writes a letter to the Mobile News, telling the people what the President expects of the reconstructing States, which is as follows:

"1st. Declare the African race free by the organic law of each State. 2d. That each State will secure and guaranty by her constitution civil rights to the freedmen; political rights, such as suffrage, sitting on juries, &c., are not expected to be conferred on them at this time; these are matters to be left to the discretion of the several States. But the freedom of the African race and the guaranty of their civil rights are requisite to the reconstruction of State governments and their readmission to the Union."

ITEMS FROM CANADA.—A Toronto dispatch says the Government has had a detective two weeks hunting a gang of counterfeiters of American silver. He has arrested five wealthy farmers who are represented to have been for 40 years manufacturing bogus silver near Sterling. He also captured all the dies and money in possession of the prisoners. They belong to a very extensive gang, of which many of the first merchants of the country are members.

The jury in the Sanders case disagreed and were discharged after being locked up two days.

The Assizes opened there Tuesday. The cases of the St. Albans raiders, Lake Erie raid and yellow fever plot are to come on.

FREEDMAN'S BUREAU IN VIRGINIA.—The reports which come from Gen. Howard in Virginia are upon the whole quite satisfactory. The people of the State with few exceptions manifest a disposition to treat the negro with justice. At Norfolk Gen. Howard with other officers met Mayor Tabb, and also Mayor Collins of Portsmouth, when he disclosed the object of his mission. It is proposed that the freedmen and employer each nominate a person, who with the agent of the bureau will constitute the court where justice can be done in all cases affecting the negro. Mayor Tabb was disposed to argue the case a little, and urged the necessity of strong laws, as the negro did not know what freedom was; considered himself superior to the white man, &c.; opinions which Gen. Howard did not agree with, saying that he could not find two out of twenty blacks who entertained any such opinion. Mayor Collins heartily endorsed the proposed plan, and expressed his conviction that the next Legislature would repeal all obnoxious laws excluding negro testimony from the courts. These are favorable indications for the cause in Virginia, and it is to be hoped that the other States will conform their laws to the altered spirit of the times. However slowly, justice is yet bound to work its way through the courts of the South.

In St. Louis there is a population of 165,446. Of these 88,507 are Americans. The number over twenty-one years of age is 77,914. On a pleasant Sabbath morning in last October, there were present in the evangelical churches in that city, 12,052; in the afternoon, 8,376. The number of communicants in those churches is 9,558. It is estimated that but little more than one-fortieth of the whole population are statedly brought under the influence of the Gospel.—Recorder.

— The Salt Lake News of Sept. 13 reports a heavy snow storm on the Saturday previous in that valley. The storm extended east to Fort Laramie, leaving a foot of snow on the Salt Water and six inches on Green river.

AN ERA IN THIS COUNTRY.—The address of President Johnson to the regiment of colored troops recruited in the District of Columbia is really one of the remarkable events of the present time. That a President of the United States should devote an half hour to counselling those who, only four years ago, had no rights which white men were bound to respect—that he should enforce the idea of the government being based upon the principle of equality, and speak of the dusky warriors before him as his countrymen, significantly indicated the position now occupied by the nation. It shows that the whole people have been advanced by the war to a point requiring only a few more progressive steps to insure the perfect recognition of the democratic idea as applied to men of every station, rank and color.

The demonstration at Washington deserves additional force from the fact that the principal actor in it was a Southern man, born among the baleful influences of the "institution," and inheriting all its prejudices, but yet compelled by the logic of events to acknowledge the manhood of a race whom he has been despoiled of every privilege. The secessionists of the South in forcing the true Union men of that section to take sides against slavery, did, unwittingly, a great service to the country. It is to be hoped that the partially "reconstructed" advocates of Southern domination will continue their unconscious efforts to bring the general government into full sympathy with the demands of even-handed republican justice.—Transcript.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE, who presides over the new American Christian Commission, said, in his introductory speech:

The general object of the meeting, if I rightly understand it, is to organize a Christian Commission for the people, to follow up the work which has been so successfully accomplished by the Christian Commison for the army and navy.

The conflict of arms is over. A great war is to be followed, as we hope, by a lasting peace. To heal the wounds which have been inflicted; to relieve wants inseparable from a period of transition; to aid the slaves whom this American nation has made citizens in preparation for their new position; to prepare, in short, a noble and happy future for the whole American people, is the grand aim which Providence now seems to propose for American Christians.

The field is large. No one man, nor any one association of men, can occupy it. But every man and every association can do something. There is abundant room and opportunity and work for all. Everywhere there is grief to be consoled, want to be relieved, evil to be reformed, men to be helped and saved.

And there are multitudes willing to help. The soldiers, who have returned to their homes benefitted and blessed in body and soul by the labors of the Christian Commission, will cheerfully second your efforts. The people who have contributed, zealously and unremittingly, means and services to the Christian Commisson, will gladly co-operate with you. And most heartily of all will those four millions—lately slaves, now citizens—welcome your work and aid it by earnest endeavors and faithful prayers.

It is indeed a great work and a great field; but you will go forward. You meet now to deliberate on the best ways. It is little that I can do, but I count it among the most precious privileges of my life to be with you and do that little.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The number of refugees and freedmen in the district of the Freedmen's Bureau, comprising Washington, Alexandria and several contiguous counties in Maryland and Virginia, is over thirty-four thousand. Only eight hundred and sixty-four of the sick and destitute received rations as a gratuity from the government during the month of September, and of those a considerable number are the wives and children of colored soldiers killed or disabled in the service of the country.

Washington is to be garrisoned by colored troops who have fought gallantly during the war. Several regiments are to be brought there for that purpose, and a large number of those remaining will soon be discharged.

Gen. Fisk reports to the Freedmen's Bureau that on September 20th, 979 persons were subsisted by the government in his Department of Tennessee and Kentucky, and there are none now, all having been furnished self supporting employment.

Owing to some obscurity in the law of Congress providing for the payment of colored troops, it has been decided by the paymaster General and Comptroller that soldiers of the 1st District of Columbia colored regiment, who carried their bullet-torn flags through the streets of Washington, and who are to be paid off, must prove that they were not slaves when they enlisted or not receive any bounty, and if that be done that they will receive $100 instead of the $300 allowed to white troops. This is about the first instance known of any kind of soldiers being required to furnish evidence before receiving pay, other than that found on their muster rolls.

A number of distinguished gentlemen will wait upon Secretary Stanton and urge him to overrule these decisions and order such payments as the most liberal construction of the law will permit.

PERU.—From Peru we learn that the rebels still hold the Chincha Islands against the Peruvian Government, but allow American, French and English vessels to load under their regular charters. Matters, however, look a little more favorable for the Government. The Spanish fleet had left for Chili to settle matters there. So, in the course of a month, interesting news may be looked for from there.

PAROLED REBELS.—The President has issued the following important ORDER.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Oct. 11, 1865.

Whereas, the following named persons, to wit: John A. Campbell of Alabama, John H. Regan of Texas, Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia, George A. Trenholm, of South Carolina and Charles Clark of Mississippi, lately engaged in a rebellion against the United States Government, who are now in close custody, have made their submission to the authority of the United States and applied to the President for pardon under his proclamation. And whereas, the authority of the Federal Government is sufficiently restored in the aforesaid States to admit of the enlargement of the said persons from custody, it ordered that they be released on giving their respective paroles to appear at such a time and place as the President may designate, to answer any charge that he may direct to be brought against them, and that they also will respectively abide and not depart from them: John A. Campbell in the State of Alabama, John H. Regan in the State of Texas, Alexander H. Stephens in the State of Georgia, George H. Trenholm in the State of South Carolina, and Charles Clark in the State of Mississippi. And if the President should grant his pardon to any of said persons, such person's parole will thereby be discharged.

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6.

The Great Invention of the Age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braid'd tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and Home Dress, as the Skirt can be folded or kept in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

THE HOOPS are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most durable and comfortable and cheapest Skirt ever made.

WEMS, BRADLEY & CARY, Proprietors of the Invention, and Sole Manufacturers, 97 Chambers, and 79 and 81 Reade Sts., New York.

For sale in all first class Stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana, de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. s29dawlm

Burno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Sore Throat, Influenza, Sore Eyes, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the great eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 12.—Sam'l George and Capt. John G. Chase will probably never again visit this wicked city in company together, for the simple reason that an estrangement occurred between them, growing out of the fact that Samuel "went through" the Captain while the latter was in a state of somnolence induced by fatigue and rum. The circumstances attending this alienation are as follows: Desiring to see the elephant in his multiplied contortions, the twain set out from the quiet and sober village of Seabrook one fine morning of last week, to seek a place where they could—like the Prodigal Son—"spend their substance in riotous living," with a freedom not allowed in their native town. Concluding that this amount of moral license lay in the vicinity of Portsmouth, they laid their course in that direction. Arriving here, they immediately sought refreshment at one of the groggeries in Water street—the odor of which would give most men a severe headache — and after imbibing freely throughout the day, started for the region of salt marshes,—but before reaching the depot the Captain was stranded on a lee shore, both anchors gone, and every way unseaworthy. His companion, either by accident or design, had less rum aboard than Chase, and consequently was still able to retain his sea-legs.

Now some evil spirit whispered in the ear of Samuel, and suggested the idea of taking advantage of the Captain's condition and robbing him—and it was done. The police happening along about the time this little piece of strategy was performed, witnessed a part of it, and took the pair to the lock-up. Next came the trial before this court, of both Chase and George for drunkenness, costing each $6.86; and while Mr. George (who had said, while travelling with the Captain, that he had no money,) promptly pays his fine and costs, the unfortunate skipper is unable to display the first red cent. But to make an already too long story short,—the Captain finds friends who pay his fine, the robber is followed to Hampton by Officer Parks, is arrested on a charge of larceny, brought back to this city, is again arraigned and bound over in the sum of $500 to await his trial at the S. J. Court. He is now stopping with Mr. Joy. Such are the wages of sin.

Levi Calka, an unfortunate razor peddler, who seemed not to know enough of the laws respecting licenses to secure one, was arrested for disposing of his wares without a license, by officers Johnson and Parks, he having offered each of them a razor for sum of two dollars and a half. The man is of Dutch and French extraction, and made a great mistake undoubtedly when he undertook the business of hawking goods. He had no friends to call upon in this hour of need, and through an ignorance of the formula of law, wished his case postponed from Wednesday till Thursday morning. As there were none willing to become responsible for his appearance in the sum of $50, he was obliged to go to the lock-up, where from four o'clock till nine P. M., his cries and moanings could be heard all around the Square. We should have directed such an effeminate specimen of humanity—had we been police—to leave the city, and never again enter it as a peddler, unless fortified with a proper license; but as Johnson and Parks know their business a great deal better than we do, they probably did right in arresting him. Our sympathies were strongly enlisted in his behalf, however, from the fact of his having no friends, and not even an acquaintance to appeal to while entangled in the meshes of the net of law. It is none of our business to act as judge or officer, yet we have a right to our opinion, and express it as such, with no disposition to censure any one. Calka was bound over to the S. J. Court, in the sum of $100, in default of which he was committed to jail.

☞ An item complaining of the Temple, which was inserted in the Chronicle yesterday, in the absence of the editor, should have appeared as a communication; but it was so directly opposite to our views as often expressed, that the mistake must have been evident to all our regular readers. For our part, we always liked the old Temple, on most accounts, as well as any public hall of its size we were ever in; and we like the new hall still better. And we think the manager deserves much credit for his exertions to accommodate and please the public; and all who really know much by experience in such matters, will agree that if all the details are not attended to as well as at the Boston Museum, still the premises are now far ahead of anything we ever had before, and all that can be expected of private enterprise.

☞ We are pleased to learn that the Promenade Concert for next Tuesday, is a benefit given by the Cornet Band to Mr. Tompson, their leader. Both certainly deserve well of the public, and we hope the occasion will prove a bumper of a benefit indeed. Let all who love good music, see to it.

☞ It will be seen by the advertisement of the new stove store—that Coleman, the junkman has gone into that business, among other things.

☞ The pay-roll of the mechanics and laborers employed at this Navy Yard is nearly ready for payment. The footing amounts to about $106.000, upwards of 1900 workmen being at work there.

☞ A Portsmouth correspondent of the Boston Herald, signing himself "Winchester," in a letter to that paper a day or two since, undertakes to criticize the action of the managers of the Citizens' Lyceum in securing so little a variety of talent in the proposed lecturers, and suggests Beecher as one who might have been engaged to deliver one of the lectures. All we have to say in reply to this is that Mr. Beecher has been applied to this season as well as last, the Association thro' their Agent, Mr. Head, offering him $300 if he would consent to come at any time during the course. To this application, Mr. B. replied that "he could not possibly come." To be sure, there are some eminent speakers who have not been advertised to lecture at this Course, yet we can hardly see how a greater diversity of gifts or talent could be procured in any other ten persons of equal celebrity as lecturers.

☞ A large and commodious store has recently been erected at Kittery Foreside for the sale of corn, flour and all kinds of grain. Quite an extensive stock has been purchased and put into this building, and a flourishing trade in the above-mentioned commodities is being carried on. The proprietor, Andrew J. Stimson, Esq., a gentleman of much enterprise and thrift has secured the services of Mr. Meshach Bell, an old and experienced hand in the business, having formerly been in the employ of Augustus Lord, Esq., and Messrs. Simpson & Neil, and is well and favorably known in all this region. The matter of starting such a business in that locality is an enterprising experiment, and we hope it will prove successful.

☞ Rev. John G. Adams, (an honored son of Portsmouth,) has accepted a call to be pastor of the Second Universalist Church in Lowell, Mass. He leaves the 2d U. Society in Providence, R. I.

☞ We have tried DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, and know it to be all that it is recommended to be. Cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, &c.; also pain or distress in the stomach or bowels, are readily cured by it. It is very palatable, and contains no opiates.

THE TEETH OFTEN DIE long before the system loses its youthful vigor. This should not be so. To prevent this species of necrosis, use Fragrant Sozodont. It keeps the dental bone alive, the enamel spotless, the gums rosy and elastic, the breath pure and the mouth clean. o9eod1w 10

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a scatch, a flat, or a convex foot-face. This amount of work on the bar enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

WHITE LILIES.

The street is full of jarring noise,
The house is full of care;
But smooth the grass-plot shows between
With lilies standing there.

Serene beside the dusty way,
Mid sounds of sin, as fair
As if in Eden's silence swept
They drank their native air.

Alas for me! I strive in vain
The heavenly calm to keep;
Though care and toil awhile may pause,
My tempters never sleep.

With prayerful purposes of love
The early morn begins;
Downcast at evening I return,
With nothing but my sins.

Yet through the turbulence of day
The lilies stand in peace;
And when the healthful night comes on,
And loud street-noises cease,

I see them glimmer through the dusk,
While softly on the air
Their chastened perfume floats abroad,
A tender, voiceless prayer!

O saintly lilies! Flowers of peace!
My heart dissolves in prayer
Your steadfast depths of calm to know,
Your sacred whiteness wear.

Father! that peace, that purity,
Thou giv'st, at thy will;
Now all my troubled, entreating soul
With thy sweet spirit fill.

So shall temptation lose henceforth
Its hurtful power for me,
And I, like thy dear lilies, Lord,
Serenely dwell in thee.

One of the ordinances passed by the Mississippi Convention decrees that all blacks who are not in regular employment shall be considered vagrants and sold to labor by the State. This is a beautiful contrivance for rendering inoperative the formal abolition of slavery. Offer negroes ten cents a day for their labor; if they decline to accept, then they are not in regular employment; and if they are not in regular employment, then they are vagrants whose labor can be sold by auction.—Transcript.

THE GREAT

CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY!

DR. LAROKAH'S

Indian Vegetable Pulmonic Syrup!

The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:

Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.

This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of it, never failing Remedy I have only to refer to the written testimonials of Hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to Health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:

REV. J. G. INGALLS, of Malrose, Mass., says:—"LAROKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."

REV. B. F. BOWLES, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr. Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I would confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."

REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gansevoort, Sar. Co., N. Y., say: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."

DR. PORTER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."

HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, 86 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW can be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

THEY EVER TASTED; PERHAPS THEY ARE RIGHT.

Try It and See.

It is made from

RYE,

And Nothing Else, and from the Best Rye at that.

NONE OF YOUR

Musty, Mouldy, Heated Stuff,

BUT THE VERY BEST OF RYE THAT GROWS IN THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY.

It is enough to do a Man's soul good to taste it, and see how different it is from the STRONG, FIERY STUFF that people use for

RYE WHISKEY.

It is made different; it retains, by a peculiar mode of Distillation,

The Very Medicinal Qualities

that have made it so popular.

If you want to use a pure, genuine article of Spirit to stimulate a weak Stomach, or to give you renewed health and long life, use the Extract of Rye.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and saddron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

NAMES OF FLOWERS.

As musing through the garden walks I go, Amidst a blaze of flowers (those sweet earth-names!),
I often feel it as my loss to know
So little of their names!

I know the lily, and I know the rose;
Lad'a-love and wallflower—very little more;
No thing but what the humble cottage grows
In plots before the door.

The peppermint that scents the shady nook,
The honeysuckle tangling round the porch—
Yes, and the ancient thyme our grandmas took
On Sabbath to the church.

I know the gorse and heather of the moors,
The bluebell and daisy of the lees,
Its purple cousin of the cliffy shores,
That loves the salt sea breeze.

But myriad beauties of the garden, and
Those breathers of the glass-encompassed air,
I cannot name—one only gazing stand
As in a thinking prayer.

And yet, 'tis well. If we can name a thing,
We name it and pass on to name the next;
But, having not this substitute to bring,
Are by the wonder fixed.

When heaven grows dim, and faith seeks to renew
Its image of our everlasting dower,
I know no argument so sweet as through
The blossom of a flower.

A wicket gate to heaven—whereof death
Is the great entrance closed to mortal eyes—
And, from the little portals, that sweet breathe
The air of Paradise!

For surely it is spirit that entreats
Sweet recognition of the spirit thus;
Something mysteriously divine that meets
Divinity in us.

Among the garden flowers, bee-like, I glide;
And tho' their names to me sealed letters prove,
They have a speech that never is denied
To hearts that simply love.

— Three buxom lasses who chanced to visit the Springfield arsenal together, the other day, were weighed just for the fun of the thing, the result being the fearful aggregate of 557 1-2 pounds—168 plus 177 plus 217 1-2. The three visited the arsenal tower at one time, and it is a compliment to the strength that the tower still stands.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately prescribed her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,
New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1865.

TENNESSEE, AND OHIO, BALTIMORE AND NEW YORK.—The Tennessee Legislature tabled resolutions endorsing the policy of President Johnson as embodied in his reconstruction of the Southern States. The resolutions were passed repudiating the President's policy by a vote of 29 to 35.

The Tribune's Columbus, Ohio, despatch says Republican gains in Ohio are better. Forty-eight counties give a Republican majority of 24,070. The counties to hear from will probably increase this to 28,000 and with the soldiers' vote added to 30,000. The Republicans claim at least two thirds of both branches of the Legislature, thus insuring the election of a U. S. Senator.

In Baltimore, Oct. 11, at the City Council election there was no opposition. All the candidates were Union. Only 7,500 votes polled.

The N. Y. Evening Post says there can be no doubt of the success of the Republican State ticket in New York, at the election in November, by a considerable majority, as it faithfully represents the undying loyalty and patriotism of the nation. The Philadelphia Press says: "It is now an established fact that nothing but willful factiousness or stubborn adherence to individual crotchets, or a suspicion of the motives of our public teachers and servants, can throw the great Union train from the track, at least for a generation of time, or until it has so secured and built up the Republic that it would require a double revolution even to arrest its outward career. And this is a fact full of truth and worthy of the profoundest thought."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—Judge Upham of this State, in his recent letter on reconstruction, took the ground that the assent of only three-fourths of the loyal States was necessary to secure the ratification of the amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery. This is the view entertained by Mr. Sumner of Mass., and other sound jurists and statesmen. Mr. Sumner has addressed a letter to the New York Evening Post in which he contends that the amendment has already been ratified by three-fourths of the States, and is a part of the fundamental law. He holds that "three-fourths of the States" mean three-fourths of the States actually participating in the government; that if a State has no legislature, as the rebel States have not, for legislatures, where the members have not taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, are not constitutional legislatures, it cannot be counted.—This he supports by the analogy of the House of Congress, in which it has been decided that the constitutional provision, "a majority of each House shall constitue a quorum to do business," is fulfilled by a majority of the members who are actually entitled to seats; that the vacant seats are not to be counted. This interpretation was adopted, we think, without debate, in the house of Representatives. In the Senate, it was a matter of discussion, and although parliamentary authority was brought against it, the Senate adopted it by a decided majority. Under this ruling, Mr Sumner says, laws have been enacted, treaties have been ratified, and all the powers of Congress have been exercised. The analogy leads directly to the view which Mr. Sumner takes of the amendment.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE AND PRESIDENT JOHNSON. The resolutions indorsing the administration, which were tabled by a vote of 35 to 25 in the House of Representatives were 1, to approve and heartily indorse the administration of President Johnson, President of the United States, and hereby promise him our faithful and unflinching support in carrying out his policy in organizing the government of the Southern States. 2, to approve his letter of instructions to Gov. Holden of N. C., especially that part which allows returned rebel soldiers to vote,—and 3, that they believe his policy, iron will and unyielding patriotism will restore order and fraternity among the people, bring peace to the country and prosperity to the nation.

The following resolution was adopted in place of the above by a vote of 60 to 4.

Resolved, That we indorse the Administration of his Excellency Hon. Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, especially his declarations that treason shall be made odious and traitors punished.

ALEXANDRIA.—Perhaps in few places, says the National Intelligencer, have the colored race afforded by their industry and thrift more satisfaction to their well-wishers than in Alexandria. Here they have, out of their wages, within the past four years, built about twelve hundred dwellings, on leased lots mostly, and contributed, it is said, about $5000 toward religious and educational establishments, and are now liberally contributing to support new enterprises of like character. They have conducted themselves, as a class, with marked sobriety and good order. They number about 8000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. Mr. Rogers has taken charge of the F. W. Baptist Society in Nottingham.

—— The Coos Republican states that gold is found in Lisbon, in quantity, embedded in quartz, and that the mine is to be tested.

—— The salmon to be deposited in our lakes and rivers, under direction of the Fish Commisioners, will arrive from New Brunswick this month or next.

—— The large Aiken Machine Shop in Franklin, for making Knitting Machines, &c., was destroyed by fire Thursday evening. Loss $50,000. Insured $30,000. About 100 hands thrown out of employment.

—— Charles Hartshorn, esq., of Littleton, has the job to build the Fabyan Bridge at the Mountains. Work on the Fabyan Place and on the steam railway up the mountains will soon begin in earnest.

—— The Manchester Mirror understands that Rev. B. F. Bowles is to remain pastor of the Lowell st. Universalist Church in that city, arrangements having been made for a year from next April. Of course the call from Augusta is declined.

—— Samuel Martin, of Sanbornton Bridge, has left with the editor of the Laconia Democrat a sample of corn raised by him this season. He states that he raised 67 bushels of corn, 50 bushels of potatoes, and 2 bushels of beans, on one acre of land. The corn is large, and closely filled.

—— Rev. Jacob Hood, a venerable man who has been preaching at Nottingham six or seven years, under the patronage of the N. H. Missionary Society, has left that place and engaged to supply the Congregational pulpit at Lynnfield, Mass.—The N. H. Mission at Nottingham is closed.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The President has relieved Kentucky from martial law.

Gen. Howard of the Freedmen's Bureau, is authorized and directed by the President to make proper arrangements between the negroes on the Sea Islands of S. C., and the former owners of the land.

The Post Office Department is making up its accounts for the next Congress, and it appears that while the mail service has been sustained by the receipts for postage during the rebellion, the deficit, when the mail route service in the Southern States are resumed, will be eight million dollars.

The published statement that the President had ordered the withdrawal of troops from Kentucky is premature, to say the least. No such order had emanated from the White House up to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Orders have also been issued that all seacoast forts south of Fortress Monroe, except forts Taylor and Jefferson, Florida, will hereafter be garrisoned by colored troops. A requisite number of regiments having been selected for the purpose by department commanders, all other colored troops will be mustered out of service as fast as they can be dispensed with.

The War Department has ordered the discharge of all the volunteer cavalry on duty east of the Mississippi.

A drunken man from Alexandria visited the Executive Mansion Thursday, seeking an interview with the President, but becoming disorderly was ejected by the officer on duty. The latter had just turned to re-enter the house, when a sentry noticed the man drawing a pistol and seized it. The man was taken before a Justice and fined for carrying a concealed weapon.

Preparations are making for a great Southern Mail letting. The Department is ready and willing to revive all former accommodations, but there is difficulty in finding suitable men who have not been engaged in the rebellion, and who can take the prescribed oath.

☞ One hundred buildings were burnt in Belfast, Me., on Thursday night, by an incendiary, who deserves to be severely burnt himself. Loss $800,000. Nearly all the business part of the city is destroyed.

— Susanville, Lassen Co., Cal., is 4,280 feet above the sea, and contains a "stuck-up" population.

— Karley Blanchard of Lyndon, Vt., dug a bill of potatoes, week before last, containing just two Jackson Whites, one weighing 74 ounces and the other 22. Few in a hill, but not exactly "small potatoes."

— The late Peter Force, of Washington, printer, collected a great library of books, pamphlets and documents on American Affairs, and preserved them carefully. The New York Historical Society has recently bought them of his heirs, for $50,000.

— It is said counterfeit Treasury note coupons are manufactured to a large extent, and the public are advised to purchase none unless they see them detached from the notes to which they belong. It is urged that the Treasury Department redeem no detached coupons, so as to foil the designs of the counterfeiters.

— On Wednesday last fifteen hundred Spencer rifles, in boxes, were seized by the Canadian authorities at Niagara City. The contents of the boxes were accidentally discovered in overhauling the railroad freight. The authorities report it a case of Fenian smuggling.

MY COUNTRY'S FLAG.

(Written in Lima, Peru, by a descendant of a Portsmouth sire, on receiving the news of the victory of Richmond.)

Hail! to those glorious Stars and Stripes,
The banner of the free;
The hope of bond and freeman,
Emblem of liberty.
Its stars by heaven were lent us,
As a beacon to the world;
And coward tyrants tremble
When they see those stripes unfurled.
Like the Pole Star in the heavens,
They shine o'er land and sea,
To guide the wandering pilgrim
To the shores of liberty!
Then may that flag forever
Still shine o'er land and wave;
I was born beneath its shadow—
May it float above my grave!

II.

In visions oft I've seen it,
When through the battle borne—
A thousand shot had pierced it,
By shell 'twas rent and torn;
Yet proudly still it floated
O'er that dark, tempestuous flood
Of wild and fearful carnage,
Of fire, and smoke, and blood.
And foemen fell before it,
Like leaves before the storm,
And charging squadrons withered
As if by spell or charm;
And ever pressing onward,
Its defenders fought their way,
Till its stars told by their gleaming,
Freedom had won the day!
Then may that flag forever
Still float o'er land and wave;
I was born beneath its shadow—
May it float above my grave!

III.

Oh! curse the feeble coward
Whose hand should dare unclasp
From the staff that upward bears it,
Ere death should loose his grasp.
But doubly curse the traitor
Who first his sword did draw
Against that sacred banner
Of liberty and law;
May his corse unburied fester,
Till his bones, rent one from one,
O'er hill and valley scattered,
Lie bleaching in the sun.
But to the patriot soldier
Who has fallen in the strife,
And 'neath his country's banner
Hath yielded up his life,
Bare gently, mother earth, thy breast,
Receive thy gallant son,
Oh! softly lay him down to rest,
His task on earth is done;
In his country's flag enshroud him—
The stars upon his breast—
And let sister stars in heaven
Smile o'er his place of rest;
And let white and colored freedmen
Shed a tear upon his grave,
His arm your chains hath riven,
He died to free the slave!
Then may that flag forever
Still float o'er land and wave;
It shadowed o'er my cradle—
May it float above my grave!

G. H. HAYDEN.

☞ The Portsmouth corres pondent of the Boston Traveller writes thus of our coming Lyceum Course:

The "Citizens' Lyceum Association" has perfected arrangements for the best course of lectures ever incepted in this city. J. B. Gough delivers, Oct. 23d, the opening lecture on "Habit"; to be followed by Charles Carroll Morgan, on "Vegetable and Animal Life." Mr. Morgan is delivering courses of lectures in various sections of the country, and is successful to an eminent degree in closely interesting large audiences. Rev. J. C Fletcher's is "Two Thousand Miles up the Amazon," a theme which he will doubtless elucidate in an exceedingly edifying manner. Geo. Wm. Curtis and Rev. E. H. Chapin are also engaged to lecture in their own inimitable way. Wendell Phillips will independently discourse on "The Times." Miss Helen Eastman of Lowell, a lady who possesses charming elocutionary powers, and Mr. George M. Baker, of Boston, are to deliver Readings. Rev. A. L. Stone and Hon. J. W. Patterson, two "silver-tongued" orators, will favor us with a sample of their fervid eloquence. Dr. Holland will recite his humorous poem entitled "Brother Jonathan's School." Vocal and instrumental music of a high order will lend its spell of fascination to each evening's entertainment, and the multitude of lyceum-goers in this city and vicinity may well be congratulated on the rich mental feast which is so sumptuously spread out for their perfect enjoyment and enduring benefit.

— A trout was caught on Tuesday in Sebago Pond which weighed ten pounds.

— Horace P. Willard, who recently placed obstructions on the railroad track between Wells and Kennebunk, has been sentenced to 15 years in the State Prison.

— A beautiful mountain lake in California has been named Lake Angela, in honor of Miss Angela Starr King, who was there at the christening.

— Jacob Kretz of Easthampton, Mass., who about two weeks since was called out of his house at midnight and brutally assaulted by a gang of drunken ruffians, has since died from the effects of his injuries. His assailants are under arrest.

— At Augusta, Ga., Oct. 11, a large portion of the building formerly used for a Confederate foundry and machine shop, together with the boiler, lathes, tools, &c., was destroyed by fire. A corral was also burned, but the horses were all saved. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

— A new half-mile trotting park has just been completed out on the Kennebunk road, a little above the Five Points. We hope the race course will improve that locality. There are many men who would eagerly take a $50 share in such an enterprise, and yet consider two dollars paid for a home newspaper as a prodigious waste of money! "We are are all poor critters," but some are poorer than others.—Biddeford Journal.

☞ At Waterville, Me., on Wednesday, an accident occurred during the race between Lady Jane, Sorrel Jonathan, Lady Dixfield and Frank Drew. The Drew horse's sulky broke down, the driver was tumbled out and the horse started on the run. Overtaking Sorrel Jonathan the sulky to which he was attached was smashed by the junction and the driver, Mr. F. S. Palmer, was thrown out also. Both horses kept running at a high rate of speed, greatly to the amusement of the spectators, and doing no harm to either men or horses competing.

TENNESSEE. — At Nashville immense frauds in the revenue have been discovered. The U. S. Collector investigates. A large liquor house has swindled the Government of $150,000, but will be compelled to refund at once or pay $200,000.

A. A. Harris has been arrested by order of Gov. Brownlow, according to a requisition from Gov. Bramlette. Harris has been indicted in a Kentucky Court for a felonious act committed during the war.

There are exciting times in the Tennessee Legislature on the negro franchise question.

— The waste mill connected with the paper mill of J. H. Simmons, in Southampton, Mass., was destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. Charles H. Lyman has been arrested on suspicion of having set the fire.

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the disease or action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. s29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff clears the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1365, New York City.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 13.—Levi L. Holt has been conjugating the verb "drink" thro' its different moods and tenses about town for the past few days, until he suddenly finds himself in the iron grasp of the law, to answer to the charge of drunkenness. Fined $3, and costs $3.86.

Levi Cowell is found alone on the cold door-stone, and by his saddened moan, and a drunken tone, attracts a policeman all tattered and torn. [Having some regard for the feelings of our readers, and for fear the policeman will sue us for tearing his garments in such a shocking manner, we we shall leave the rugged heights of poetry and descend to the smooth and level plains of prose, otherwise we shall never be able to tell the reader what became of Mr. Cowell.] A door-step is a poor pillow for a man who is drunk, but it was the best Levi could do, poor fellow; he was too drunk to go further, and so lies down and sleeps until the police find him. His accommodations are not the best, yet it costs him $6.86 to get out of them. What an amount of trouble rum causes a man, don't it?

☞ All those afflicted with diseases of the throat or ear will be interested in Dr. Campbell's advertisement this morning, announcing the prolongation of his stay with us for two weeks. To his success, the mass of local evidence he offers, is indubitable proof; and by our exchanges we have noticed that success is uniform with him wherever he has been in the State. His consultations are without charge, and visitors will find that to his skill he adds the further recommendation of affability to all.

☞ Lieut. Commander James Thornton has been assigned to temporary duty at this Navy Yard. Thornton was 1st Lieutenant of the ship Hartford at the capture of New Orleans, and afterwards Lieutenant of the Kearsarge at the time of the sinking of the pirate Alabama.

☞ The foot-race for $100 a side, at Sagamore Bridge, on Thursday afternoon, between a resident of this city and an attache of Yankee Locke's Troupe, resulted in favor of the latter. Time said to be 18 seconds, distance 125 yards.

☞ The venerable Madam Eustis, widow of Governor William Eustis, died at her residence in Roxbury, Mass., on Thursday, at the age of 84 years. She was the daughter of the late Wood bury Langdon of Portsmouth, and has survived her husband more than forty years.

☞ Messrs. Betton & Co. sell at auction to-day the new double-house on Anthony street, between State and Islington. A nice house, in a good location.

Mr. Wendell will sell a variety of household goods, at his rooms, in the morning, and also hold his regular afternoon and evening sales.

☞ Thanks to John S. Harvey, esq., for a liberal sample of the yield of his grapevine this year, as usual. Nobody confers more favors on this Chronicle, than our old friend and former neighbor.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Jas. S. Pierce for full files of late Panama papers, and to Senator Clark for public documents.

☞ See advertisement in another column of a new Corn and Flour Store recently started in Kittery.

☞ One Company of the 3d Regiment U. S. Artillery is to be stationed at Fort Constitution.

[Communication.]

BUSINESS.—Mr. Editor: Is it not for the interest of merchants who want customers and real estate owners who want tenants to form themselves, with others who will take a lively interest in the matter, into an association for promoting all kinds of manufacturing in Portsmouth, by inviting every kind of a mechanic here that can carry on his trade here as cheaply as elsewere? And not only invite them, but help them to get lots for their shops and houses at low rates? and perhaps lend a little money in some instances?

It will be time and money well spent. It will pay better interest than rail-road stock or shipping. Establish those different manufactories at South street, Christian Shore, and the western part of the city, so that they will have a plenty of room for building shops and houses for their men to live in; and in ten years five hundred families would thus be added to the town, averaging three to a family; with a good prospect for the number continually to increase from that source. As we are now situated, if ship building is dull and the factory stopped, we have blue times; having to rely almost entirely on the Navy Yard. But with all kinds of mechanical works, we should not be dependant on one or two kinds of business to keep up the interest of the town, consequently merchants would go on more evenly in business, there would never be a time when every kind of business would be at a stand still, as we sometimes now have it, and always have been subject to at certain times. P.

☞ We learn that the daily wages of the workmen on the Navy Yard for the months of October and November is twenty-five cents less than during August and September, the rate of pay being revised every two months.

— Gen. Grant is about to reduce the U. S. army to the standard for peaceful times, by order of the higher powers.

— An order has been issued by the War Department reducing the number of officers doing staff duty in the army.

— An order has been issued to muster out the 23d corps, composed exclusively of colored troops, and now doing duty on the Rio Grande.

— At the age of five weeks, Summit City, Cal., contained 200 houses and brush shanties, of which four-fifths were whiskey shops or restaurants.

☞ It is estimated that $2,000,000 worth of Five-Twenties will go by Saturday's European steamers; also nearly 20,000 shares of the Erie Railroad, and considerable of the Illinois Central.

☞ We have tried Dr. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, and know it to be all that it is recommended to be. Cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, &c.; also pain or distress in the stomach or bowels, are readily cured by it. It is very palatable, and contains no opiates.

—AND—

Diseases of the Throat.

Extension of Dr. Campbell's Stay IN PORTSMOUTH.

DR. CAMPBELL,

At the earnest solicitation of numerous patients and persons desirous of consulting him, will extend his stay at the

Franklin House, Portsmouth,

Until Saturday, Oct. 28.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anybody. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the special care that had been given him early in age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at the time of commencing Dr. C.'s treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on: the skeptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H. My son faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time he was rewarded by a FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING.

SIMON J. TORR, South Dover.

KITTERY POINT, Me., Oct. 5, 1865.

DR. CAMPBELL, Franklin House, Portsmouth—DEAR SIR: I have been deaf, with at times discharges from my ears, and have taken your line of business to their large assortment of Tools, viz:—Screwing Machines for Hand and Power; Peace's Patent Power Hand Screw Machines; Patent Screwing and Cutting off Stock. Also all other Tools used in the trade. Manufactured and for sale by CAMDEN TUBE WORKS, Camden, N. J.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-boe. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the shoes have a finer finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes are sold at the same price hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

Morning Chronicle.

A BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATION.—At one of the anniversaries of a Sabbath School in London, two little girls presented themselves to receive the prize, one of whom had recited one verse more than the other, both having learned several thousand verses of Scripture. The gentleman who presided enquired, "And couldn't you have learned one verse more, and thus have kept up with Martha?" "Yes, sir," the blushing child replied; "but I loved Martha, and kept back on purpose." "And was there any one of all the verses you have learned," again enquired the President, "that taught you this lesson?" "There was, sir," she answered, blushing still more deeply: "In honor preferring one another."

—Some Englishmen lately visited the summer palace of the King of Sweden at Stockholm, and were shown over the apartments at their request by a man whom they found seated on a bench in the courtyard. The Englishmen began to tell anecdotes of King, and demanded if they were true. The guide, a model of discretion, said so many stories were told of His Majesty, some true, some false, that it was difficult to say what was correct, and that as he was connected with the royal household, it was not for him to say. The Englishmen begged pardon for their curiosity, and it was heartily granted. At last, after they had seen everything, they took leave of their guide, and thanking him for his courtesy, expressed their regret that they had not seen Charles XV. The guide raised his hat, and saluting them gracefully, said, "I am the king," and then left the Englishmen not a little astonished.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
There, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and collections of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, SEVEN ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

THE GREAT
CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY!
DR. LAROOKAH'S
Indian Vegetable Pulmonic Syrup!
The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:
Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.
This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of this never failing Remedy, I have only to refer to the written testimonials of Hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:
REV. G. C. INGALLS, of Melrose, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."
REV. B. F. BOWLES, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr. Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I would confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."
REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gansevoort, Sar. Co., N. Y., says: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."
DR. FORTER, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."
HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."
W. K. BOWEN, 88 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."
Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Bottle.
DR. LAROOKAH'S
SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND!
It is double the strength of any other Sarsaparilla Compound in the market.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you the sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1865.

SOUTHERN REPRESENTATION. — The following gives an instructive view of southern representation in Congress. The first column shows the number of seats in the House of Representatives to which each Southern state would be entitled on a white basis of representation. The second shows what they will be entitled to by counting the "whole number of free persons," now embracing the freedmen; and the third shows their representation on the old three-fifths basis, when slavery prevailed:

	White basis.	Whole.	Old three-fifths basis.
Delaware,	1	1	1
Maryland,	4	6	5
*Virginia,	8	12	11
North Carolina,	5	8	7
South Carolina,	2	6	4
Georgia,	9	9	7
Florida,	1	1	1
Alabama,	4	8	6
Mississippi,	3	6	6
Louisiana,	3	6	6
Texas,	2	3	4
Arkansas,	2	4	3
Tennessee,	7	9	8
Kentucky,	7	9	8
Missouri	9	9	9
Totals,	66	102	84

*West Virginia is included in Virginia.

Thus far (says the Boston Journal) the voting of the South has been done wholly by the whites, who, by reason of the three-fifths rule, have had eighteen more representatives than their numbers would have entitled them to. If they continue the exclusion of the negroes from the polls, they hope to gain under the next apportionment sixteen additional Representatives on the credit of the disfranchised blacks, or thirty-four more than they would be entitled to on the basis of their own numbers. To state this monstrosity of injustice, not only to the negroes, but to the voters of the North, who, since the number of representatives is fixed, lose all that the South gains, is enough to prepare the way for its certain removal. Justice requires either that the blacks shall cast the vote themselves, of which their late masters have thus far been enjoying the sole benefit, or else that representation shall be based on legal voters alone. Both reforms would work well. At any rate, the abuse of allowing one amnestied traitor at the South to count on Congressional representation as much as two loyal men at the North, manifestly ought to be brought to an end.

VIRGINIA. — Advices from Richmond state that it is feared that two of the Congressmen elected will not take the oath.

The constitutional amendment is adopted by an almost unanimous vote. It removes disability from holding office as applicable to those who prominently participated in the rebellion.

VIRGINIA. — The Herald's Richmond correspondent says Charles Palmer, the well-known Unionist candidate for State Senate, has been defeated by John H. Gilmer. Out of five candidates for Congress and the Legislature only one Unionist, Franklin Stearns, for the Legislature is elected.

CALIFORNIA.—The Union men in California, in the choice of members of the new Legislature, have gained a complete victory. The Senate stands 33 Unionists to 7 Democrats. In the House the Union party is sure of 15 majority, and it may go two or three higher. A Union U. S. Senator, to succeed Mr. McDougall, is thus insured, but who it will be is rather uncertain, from the multiplicity of candidates.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The first reports gave 5000 Union majority in Pennsylvania:—the latest give Gen. Hartranft, (Union,) about 20,000, and say the House of Representatives will consist of 66 Republicans and 34 Democrats. Of 11 Senators elected 8 are Republicans and 3 Democrats. The Legislature will stand—Senate 20 Republicans, 13 Democrats; House 66 Republicans, 34 Democrats. An ex-rebel paper in Richmond, thinks our elections in the loyal States are not of much account, but it is a mistake, as rebels and copperheads will find out.

NEW JERSEY.—There is a sign from New Jersey, promising the complete redemption of that State, and the election of a Legislature in November, which shall ratify the anti-slavery amendment to the National Constitution. Newark, which seemed almost hopelessly against the Union party, has been carried by it at the charter election, by a handsome majority. Kilpatrick had a discussion in that city on Saturday evening last with one of the champions of the Democratic policy, which may partially account for the Republican success. It is understood among the politicians of New Jersey that as goes Newark so will go the State at the general election.

GOLD, Saturday, 144 7 8. Sent to Europe $600,000.

☞ A joint committee is to be appointed by the U. S. convention of the Episcopal Church, to agree on a Standard Prayer Book, to act during the recess. A committee has been appointed to settle the differing plans of receiving the Southern Bishop Wilmer.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY. — Boston, Oct. 14, 1865.—The effects of our long drouth ceased not with it, but are more visible now, if possible, than while the dry term continued. The usual gorgeous autumnal display in our woodlands and forests will be limited this season mostly to the lowlands and swamps, the trees on the high ground having lost a great portion of their leaves during the drouth.

Among the sons of Portsmouth who have settled themselves down in Boston is Mr. Robt. B. Henderson, of the firm of Roundy, Birch & Henderson, No. 19 Milk street. Their business is the manufacture of bonnet frames, ruches, caps, nets, and other female head gear. Employing one hundred and fifty girls, and with but one competing house in the city, they do a lively business, and will be found a most agreeable trio by those having dealings with them. As some papers are pleased with "coincidences," I call your attention to the fact that the initials of Mr. Henderson's name are precisely those of the firm, Mr. Samuel C. Hervey, formerly located in your city, is a salesman in this house.

Croquet, which has had such a wide-spread popularity, is about "played out" for this season. "Lawn billiards," indeed! As well yoke Pegasus to an ass, as connect the noble game of billiards with croquet. No one who has ever known the life-like elasticity and obedience of the ivory spheres of the one, and then felt the dull, heavy thud with which the mallet strikes the wooden ball of the other, would ever admit such an assimilation of names. If the name is to be persisted in, I advise a different orthography, so that dealers who expose the implements of the game for sale instead of labelling them "For Lawn Billiards," should make the placard read thus: "For-lorn Billiards." Yet croquet has its merits, as have all games that keep us out of doors and lead to greater social intercourse between the two sexes. The more amusements there are enjoyed in common, the less likely are young men to seek the club-room or kindred places, where stimulants of an artificial nature are resorted to. As the English have adopted a costume fashioned like the gymastic dress for the croquet ground, some think this game is likely to accomplish what female conventions could not do and what the dictates of common sense have been equally powerless to effect—as whatever is fashionable is sure to come into general use. Why a short skirt is more objectionable than a long one paged-up, I am at a loss to conceive; and with the costume which accompanies the former, such exposures as are ever being made in crowded public conveyances and like places are absolutely impossible. As with skating, so with croquet, its devotees are mostly ladies having pretty feet.

A young friend recently had some traveling shirts made from material he had found in the countingroom of his father's mill, in Little Rhody. On being questioned as to the use of such cloth in a cotton mill, he replied that he believed "they used it on the mules." The laugh which followed at his expense effectually chased all shadows from the faces of the company present.

The Post of this morning speaks of the battles of "Shiloh" and "Pittsburg Landing." In my ignorance, I had always supposed the two names were synonyms for one and the same battle. Being an active participant therein, (as any one will testify who witnessed the remarkable time I made over some parts of the field when——retreating,) I failed to perceive any cessation in the din of battle from the time of the attack at the little church of Shiloh, on that beautiful Sabbath morning in April, '62, until the exultant rebels pressed hard upon Grant's forces at the "landing," about sunset."

CURRENCY.—In a speech, Mr. McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury, at Fort Wayne, made last Wednesday night, in plainly gives his views on National finances. He said he was not one of those who seek to make a secured paper currency the standard. On the contrary, he belonged to a class of persons who, regarding a metalic currency alone as an impracticable thing among an enterprising and commercial people, nevertheless look upon an irredeemable currency as an evil which circumstances may render necessary, but which is never to be sustained as a policy. By common consent of the nation gold and silver are the only true measures of value. They are the necessary regulators of trade. He favored a well secured controvertible paper currency, and expects Congress to help him establish it.

☞ A Washington correspondent says the Mexican Legation there have received intelligence from Mexico that Gen. Diaz, Commanding General of the army of the East, who was taken prisoner by the French when Oaxaca fell, and kept in Puebla under guard as a prisoner of war, has succeeded in making his escape from that city and rejoining the Republican forces. At the date the letters were written Diaz was in the State of Oaxaca, at the head of a respectable number of troops, preparing to assume the offensive. The inhabitants of La Sierra and Lacauada in that State were in arms against Maximilian, and Gen. Diaz was organizing them into regiments and brigades. Great alarm prevailed at the Imperial Court in consequence, as Gen. Diaz is recognized even by his enemies as the ablest commander the Liberalists have. In Zacatecas a number of people had been arrested on the charge of being engaged in a conspiracy to overthrow the Imperial authorities there. The inhabitants, on hearing a report that the American army of observation on the Rio Grande had made a hostile demonstration against the Imperialists forces had every preparation made to rise en masse against the invaders.

☞ The release of Alexander H. Stephens from Fort Warren, on parole, will meet with general public favor. In Georgia, we doubt not, his large influence will be exerted most favorably to the Union cause. If we are correctly informed (says the Transcript) in regard to his present view of public matters, a brief visit to New Jersey and a few speeches to the citizens of Camden & Amboy would prove beneficial, and aid in the adoption of the anti slavery Amendment to the Constitution.

SANDERS' FAILURE.—George Sanders, on being summoned last week as a witness before the Montreal Court trying the attempted kidnappers of himself, remarked among other things in his testimony, which abounded in profanity, "I am one of those who adhered to the Southern Confederacy, and don't mean to abandon it!" The story comes from the trial, that S. has been getting up a conspiracy for his own abduction. At any rate, this was the plea of the defence, and it was proved that George was a consenting party to the affair, and that the poor wretches at the bar were actually lured on by him and the detectives, in order, as it is supposed, to make him the hero of a sensation, and get up a fresh quarrel between the United States and Canada. The jury, therefore, could not agree that the prisoners had committed any offence, and were discharged.

FENIAN CONGRESS.—An official circular has been issued by the Fenian authorities, calling a National Congress of the fraternity to meet at Fenian Hall, Philadelphia, Monday. All the States and Territories, it is said, will be represented.

THE WIRZ TRIAL draws to a close.—The witnesses for the defence damage his cause more than they help it.

— The returns from the Western elections are good. In Iowa, the Republican candidate for Governor is elected by 20,000 majority on a light vote. If the vote had been larger, the Union majority would have been greater. The significance of this triumph proceeds from the fact that the successful candidate for Governor manfully declared himself for negro suffrage.

— Meetings are being held, and considerable sums raised by subscription, in Great Britain and in the European Continental nations, on behalf of the destitute freedmen in this country. The money is to be used in supplying the physical and educational wants of the negroes. Rev. Dr. Storrs of Cincinnati and Rev. J. Sella Martin of New York are doing effectual missionary work for the negroes, in Great Britain.

— A machine is now on exhibition in the Mechanics' Fair in Boston, to seed raisins. It takes out every seed, without breaking the raisin to pieces, and opens holes in the fruit, enabling its fine flavor to escape and enter the articles in process of cooking.

— In Nevada county, recently, a miner being short of funds, pawned his pick at a hotel for lodging and breakfast. In the morning, on departing, he deliberately drew his six-shooter, and informed the landlord that he was prepared to redeem his pick. The landlord had no use for the article, and handed over the pick.

LIBERALITY.—At a meeting in the city of Glasgow on the 23d ult., Dr. Storrs said that the people of Great Britain had already contributed £50,000, or about $250,000, in gold, for the relief of the freedmen. When it is considered that this is mainly the offering of the middle or poorer classes, the amount is quite remarkable, and is a token of something more than an outward profession in behalf of our cause. This is an appropriate return for the "provision ships" and other free offerings which have gone from America to the suffering classes of Great Britain.

STOCKBROKING BUSINESS.—The internal revenue tax on brokers' sales in New York, for the year ending Sept, 30, shows in the aggregate the enormous amount of six thousand and seventy-three million seven hundred and eight thousand eight hundred and eighteen dollars. Quite a number of the firms have only made returns for one, two, three and five months. The Herald says if the list included a full statement of all the houses for the entire year, the amount of sales would exceed three times our entire national debt.

S. Vance's Submerged Well Pump.

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supercede all other Well Pumps now in use.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all pumps yet invented.

THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump exceds anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the cheapest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.

SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

Extension of Dr. Campbell's Stay

IN PORTSMOUTH.

DR. CAMPBELL,

At the earnest solicitation of numerous patients and persons desiring treatment, will extend his stay at the

Franklin House, Portsmouth,

Until Saturday, Oct. 28.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my son Henry, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anybody. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during the continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at the time of commencing Dr. C.'s treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on: the skeptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H. My son faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time he was rewarded by A FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING.

SIMON J. TORR, South Dover.

KITTERY POINT, Me., Oct. 5, 1865.

DR. CAMPBELL: Franklin House—Dear Sir: I have been deaf from earliest infancy, with at times discharges from my ears, and have suffered intensely from catarrh, and excessively painful noises in my head. I am only too happy to certify that under your skillful treatment I can now hear as well as any one, the deafness gone, and I have so to speak, "AN ENTIRE NEW HEAD." The distress is gone entirely. If it can be any benefit to humanity or yourself, I am perfectly willing that you should refer to me, or my husband, Mr. Benj. Seaward of the Navy Yard. Rest assured I shall send all afflicted at myself to you. Wishing you every success, I am, my dear Doctor, very gratefully and respectfully yours,

MRS. MARY A. SEAWARD.

Certificate of Miss Junkins.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 10th, 1865.

When five years old I had the scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant running from them, most revoltingly offensive to myself and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I was INCURABLE, and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbor (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 27 years' duration by Dr. C., I placed myself in his hands for treatment. At the time of doing so there was a perforation of the drum of one ear, the discharge was more constant and profuse than ever before or both, I could not hear a watch tick or without the greatest difficulty understand conversation unless spoken to close to my ear. I carried out the treatment prescribed by Dr. C. but three months, at the end of which time the discharge from one ear had CEASED ENTIRELY, the perforation of the drum had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick a good distance, and sustain a conversation across the room. My other ear discharges a very little at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to send for more medicine. My hearing in that ear, however, is greatly improved, while the bad smell is entirely gone. I reside with the family of Mr. Young, at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time.

ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS.

Certificate of Mr. Stephen Blanchard.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct 4th, 1865.

Grateful to Dr. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, for being the means of completely restoring me to health, I cheerfully make this statement of my case, for the benefit of others similarly affected.

Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh, in its most severe form; my head, throat and nostrils were badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health completely broken down; so much so that I was forced to abandon my work at the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no help, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C. one year ago. In three weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the "fastening department" at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have remained there nearly ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and am a living evidence that by Dr. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH can be CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, my sense of smell has returned, acute as ever, and I can now breathe but a trifle but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I carried out my treatment at home, without any difficulty or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice—Persons who doubt can call on me at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to verify this statement. STEPHEN BLANCHARD,

Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsm.

Certificate of Mr. Davidson.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

I have been for fourteen years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fœtid discharge from it all the time. I have tried almost everything, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few months succeeded in removing a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly; and since then, by the use of the Doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These Celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Russell on Water street of three dollars and forty-four cents in currency. Fined $5 and costs $5.28, and ordered to pay said Russell treble the value of the property stolen.

John Frazier, for larceny of cordage from a schooner at the North End, sent to jail for sixty days, ordered to pay costs $5.74, and disburse the owners of the hemp $80, being treble the value of property stolen.

"O, my offence is rank; it smells to Heaven," ejaculated James Berry, or if he did not actually quote those words of Hamlet's uncle, he might have done so with great propriety,—as James was terribly mixed up with bad rum, and—unlike many of his predecessors—he seemed to realize the fact, for when in default of the stamps($6.86) he was informed that it would be necessary to sojourn awhile at the House of Correction, he protested against the sanitary measure, declaring that he could not and would not submit to such an arbitrary disposition of himself. Whether he went or not, we don't know, but suppose he did, as the Marshal says he left Mr. Berry looking through the grates.

George C. B. Roof and Christopher Henry are two gentleman who were, long since, initiated into the art of making tip-top bread from the raw material. They have, doubtless, arisen morning after morning before the break of day, thro' winter's cold and summer's heat, thro' rain and snow, and driving sleet, to knead the dough, and mix the meat for pie 'an cakes, and all complete, and so on, while the fair maiden—who daintily broke the smoking roll at the breakfast hour, and conveyed it to her mouth between her tiny thumb and finger, the movement meanwhile describing the arc of a circle—was just preparing for a night's rest, to dream of the unfortunate young man, whom she had entrapped, and, in a certain sense, paralyzed, by her bewitching manners.

But notwithstanding the amount of physical energy displayed by these two bakers in the matter of bread making, still they have a physical weakness for the distillations of old rye, and for this beverage they leave the dough and out they go and travel from Newburyport to this city to get drunk, and get into the House of Correction for thirty days each. Foolish men to take such pains to debauch themselves.

☞ How could there be a better chance for a good time, than is offered by the Promenade Concert to-morrow night? The new Temple Hall is a grand place for a dance; and those who don't dance, can have a fine view from the gallery—in either place for a very little money, and in both a rich and varied musical treat. We know what we say, when we tell the musical people of Portsmouth, that if they really wish to preserve their Cornet Band, at least in its present excellence, they must lend a helping hand—for such musical notes as theirs, cannot be produced without greenback notes.

☞ The new Pump advertised by Messrs. Israel Marden & Co. we have examined and tested; and we consider it the best thing of the sort we ever saw, as do all who examine or try it. We don't see how it could be improved, for simplicity or ease and power of action; and the materials of the pump itself are almost imperishable. All who use a Pump should certainly look at Vance's patent—and then if they don't want to try it, we are mistaken.

☞ No one need hesitate to purchase a ticket for the Lyceum, for fear of being crowded, as the number is limited to 1000, and 1200 persons can be comfortably seated in the Temple.

NAVAL.—Chief Engineer Roberts, of Waltham, who has just returned home from Europe, in the Niagara, will relieve Chief Engineer Bartleman at this Navy Yard.

REV. MR. MOORE.—At a meeting of Central Church Society, Portland, held on Monday evening last, the resignation of the pastor was presented. Mr. Moore was requested to withdraw the resignation and to accept a leave of absence until next June, his salary to be continued, and the pulpit to be supplied during his absence. The society also offer to erect a dwelling for his occupancy on his return. This church and people are very unwilling to sever the ties which bind them to their beloved pastor, and are using every effort to induce him to remain. The meeting adjourned until Friday evening next. We understand Mr. Moore to be as grieved at parting with his people as they are at his going away; also that the reasons that induced him to go are so far independent of the points concerned in the generous offer of his people as not to affect his decision in the case. His closing labors with the Central Church will occurred yesterday, and he will leave the city during this week.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Amoskeag Manufacturing Company have recently sold their mill and buildings belonging thereto, upon the east side of the Merrimac at Hooksett, to a party of Boston gentlemen, for the sum of $150,000.

—— The Rochester (N. H.) Courier states that Mr. Elijah Jenkins, on the Meaderborough road in that town, has an orchard of about five hundred trees, bearing mostly baldwins and russetts, for the apples of which this fall he has refused $1600. There are probably 250 barrels.

CHOLERA.—The U. S. Deparment of State has been officially informed that the cholera has almost entirely disappeared from Constantinople. The infection at Palma, the capital of the Island of Majorca, appears in a very aggravated form and seems to baffle human skill.

A report had reached Port Mahon that the disease is spreading into the interior of Spain.

Intelligence from the Consul at Marseilles, France, is to the effect that that terrible disease is frightfully on the increase there Eighty thousand citizens have left the city and the deaths now average between 50 and 60 per day.

— The work room of James Watt, the inventor of the steam engine, is just as he left it, in the attic of his house, where he was driven by a scolding wife. The will of his son required that the room should be left just as it was when his father went out of the door for the last time. The door was recently opened for the first time in 30 years.

— In a letter dated La Grange, Ga., Sept. 30, B. H. Hill denies emphatically the sensation story recently circulated concerning the manuer of Wm. L. Yancey's death, which, it will be remembered, was said to have occurred from injuries received in a personal recontre with Hill in the rebel Congress.

— An anvil block weighing 160 tons has been cast at the Midland Works, Sheffield, England. The enormous cast was six weeks in cooling. The mould was dug out in the centre of the workshop, and the molten iron run into it from five furnaces at once, the filling occupying twelve hours. The anvil, when finished, has to receive the blows of a twenty-five ton Nasmyth hammer.

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains one of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. The amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than other Horse Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE CLOSED.

ITS HISTORY.

In compliance with orders from the Provost Marshal's Bureau at Washington, the office in this city was closed last Tuesday, and with it the office of Provost Marshal ceased,—Capt. Daniel Hall being honorably discharged from the Government service.

The office was opened on the 11th of May, 1863, by Capt. John S. Godfrey as Provost Marshal. On the 25th day of December, 1863, Capt. Godfrey was ordered to report to the Q. M. General for duty elsewhere, and Capt. Theodore A. Ripley of the 14th N. H. Vols. was appointed provisionally as his successor. On the 7th of January, 1864, Capt. Ripley was relieved by Capt. Nathaniel Wiggin of Dover, who remained in office about seven months, and resigned. Capt. Daniel Hall of Dover was then appointed, and assumed command on the 5th of August, 1864, continuing in office until its close. Capt. Jeremiah C. Tilton of Sanbornton, and Dr. Jeremiah F. Hall, were respectively appointed Commissioner and Surgeon when the office was established, and remained as such until the close of the war; at which time they were honorably discharged. All of the above named officers had military experience, except Capt. Wiggin.

This district is the most populous in the State, containing, by the census of 1860, 120,629 inhabitants and about 2500 square miles of territory. The whole district contains 82 towns, each of which was made a sub-district, and enrolling officers appointed therefor. These officers, twenty-four in number, were appointed on the 26th of May, 1863, and the enrollment was completed on the 7th of July, 1863. The number of classes in the District reported as liable to military duty was about 14,500.

On the 3d of July 1863, a call was made by the President for 300,000 men, the quota for this district as assigned was 1968, and a draft ordered for that number, with fifty per cent. additional.

The draft was commenced on the 10th of Aug. 1863, and was concluded on the 30th of Sept. 1863, with perfect quietness and no demonstrations of opposition. Most of the drafted men reported promptly, and cheerfully submitted to the required examination. The total number drafted was 2961, of which 848 put in substitutes, 208 paid commutation, 58 served personally, and 1837 were exempted for different causes, with the exception of 125 who failed to report. In October a call was made for volunteers, which was responded to by liberal enlistments throughout the District. On the 1st of February 1864, another call was made for troops which was consolidated with those of July and October 1863, and a new quota was assigned under the three calls: but inasmuch as the 1419 men voluntarily enlisted under the October call added to those held to service at the July call, more than filled the quota under the February call, no call was required.

Another call was made March 14th 1864, for 954 men in this District, which was partially filled by volunteering. A supplementary draft to fill deficiencies under all calls up to that date was ordered by the Department and commenced May 17th, and finished June 7th, 1864. The total number drawn in this draft was 507, of which 137 were legally exempted, and 118 discharged by order of the A. A. P. M. Gen. On the 18th of July 1864, the President issued his call for 500,000 additional troops, and the quota for this District was 2262. In anticipation of this call efforts had begun as early as the 1st of June to supply it, in advance, with volunteers and substitutes for enrolled men: and so large were the enlistments that by the middle of September the indebtedness was reduced to about one hundred, for which number a draft was made on the 19th of Sept. 1864; but before the time for the men to report had expired, the quota was filled by volunteers.

Under the President's call of the 19th of December 1864, for 1192 men from this District, the President by special order set aside a portion of this quota and it was reduced to 278 men, which was almost wholly filled by volunteers from this State. A few towns being in arrears, a draft for the deficiencies was concluded April 11th, 1865. This, as well as the draft of September, was practically obviated by filling the quota with volunteers before drafted men could be examined.

This was the last call and last draft for troops in this District, for the suppression of the Great Rebellion. On the 10th of April the news of the surrender of Gen. Lee was received with the wildest demonstrations of delight, and the last man was enlisted in the office for the army of the U. S. on that day. So earnest and efficient had been the local authorities and individuals to meet the demands of the Government, that at this time every town had filled its quota, except Bartlett, which lacked one man. Most of the towns had furnished a large surplus beyond all calls; 5902 having only been required, while the District had furnished 6476. Thus supplying to the army a surplus of 574 men. There now remains upon the enrollment list, 10,208 names. This number are all supposed to be fit for military duty, every exertion having been made to strike therefrom those incapacitated by improper age or otherwise.

The following may be regarded as a summary of the work done by the office since it began operations, sufficiently accurate for all practical purposes:

Number of men examined at the office,	10,000
Deserters arrested and fined,	250
Men actually entered service thro' the office,	4,000

There have been enlisted for the District in this office and at other offices, 6486 men, the bounties for which amounts to $3,491,075, exclusive of the Government bounties. This is an average of $538,25 per man. The Government bounty would probably augment the amount to $5,000,000. The average cost per man for Rockingham County was $621,99; Strafford County, $489,47; Belknap County, $612,93; Carroll County, $576,22. The highest average bounty paid was by the town of Effingham, $742,42; and the lowest, by Centre Harbor, $275,19. The average bounty paid by the city of Portsmouth for all the men furnished was $423,27. The City of Portsmouth has furnished since the opening of the P. M. Office, 743 men for the public service.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert F. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

DOUBTFUL.—The N. Y. Observer speaking of the result of the Connecticut election says:

"This action is very significant. It shows plainly that impartial suffrage, not universal suffrage is what the people want.* We have no doubt that an amendment to the Constitution giving the right of suffrage to all men of intelligence and good character would be adopted by an overwhelming vote." †

NOTES.—*We do not see how this result is shown. Only a few years ago, at the dictation of the slave power, the sham democracy of Connecticut disfranchised 1000 or 2000 of her native voters, not because they were ignorant or vicious, but because they were black or yellow, or because their mothers were! Not a few of the men who voted then to take the ballot from them, and who now voted to keep it from them were imported citizens, as ignorant as themselves.

† This may be true, or may not. The other vote is no evidence of it. If it be true, there will be a chance to prove it;—for the friends of equal rights in Connecticut though now defeated, will move again.

LOAFERS.—This wretched class of humanity having become a nuisance in California, (as they always are, wherever they may be,) the Dutch Flat Enquirer favors them with this short address:

"Stand up here, you lazy rascals, and let us reason about your daily vocations. Hold up your sleepy heads and say why sentence of the most unqualified condemnation should not be passed upon your conduct. How can you possibly have the impudence to stretch your lazy bones on store boxes, or block up the post office door with your carcasses, to the no small annoyance of the busy working people, who are engaged in some useful occupation? How can you be content to pass away the time in lounging around to avoid the rays of the sun—in company with your equally lazy companions, the dogs; perchance once in a while setting your canine friends to fight, for the sake of brutal love of fun?"

EXPANSION OF ICE. — Rev. Frederic Gardiner gives, in the last number of Silliman's Journal of Science, some curious experiments of his, made on the ice of the Kennebec River, in Maine. By inserting a line of stakes in the ice across the river in the early part of February, he found, in the middle of March, there had been an expansion of the ice of over twelve feet in breadth of 500 feet. As during this time the temperature of the water was nearly equal, the expansion must have been due to the sun's rays, which was proved by the fact that there was the least expansion on the eastern side, where the ice was partially shielded from the sun by a high bank.

ROUSING BIG TOAD—or Rousing Big Story.—The Virginia (Cal.) Enterprise says that a toad was found in a cave near the Hot Springs, near Say's station, in the Truckee District, which is about three feet long and two feet broad across the back. Its weight is supposed to be not less than seventy pounds. When disturbed, it moves about, making a puffing noise. It is a black, ugly monster, with warts on his body as large as a medium-sized potato, and has a mouth that opens like the jaws of a carpet sack.

— The Island of Newfoundland is being unusually favored at this time. The shore fishery at the island continues excellent, and the weather at Labrador is very favorable for the curing of the fish that have been caught. The potato crop is said to be good, and free from disease. All other crops grown on the island have turned out well.

— A cool sort of a coward was a soldier who was tried by Court Martial in New York for being guilty of cowardice at the battle of the Wilderness, and sentenced to be shot. He was taken to Broome Street Barracks, but had not been there half an hour when he sent a polite note to the officer below for a pass. Those in charge of the office failing to keep a correct account of their prisoners, gave the pass, and he walked out and has not been seen since.

— During an altercation at Silvey Barracks, Rhode Island, on Thursday night, between John Fay and Wm. L. Townley, the latter was shot in the abdomen by Fay, and will probably die. Fay is an Irishman his victim is from Albany.

— The most extraordinary instance of patience on record, in modern times, is that of an Illinois Judge who listened silently for two days while a couple of wordy attorneys contended about the construction of an act of the Legislature, and then ended the controversy by quietly remarking; "Gentlemen the law is repealed."

— A teapot full of dirt from a mine near Burnt river, Oregon, yielded $3,700 in gold. Healthy little "drawing of tea!"

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabiale, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle; and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1865.

POOR ETHERIDGE.—A Cairo dispatch states that on the second day of the trial of Emerson Etheridge, the accused, who was permitted to plead his own case, read a plea denying the jurisdiction of the Commission, which the Court overruled, and Etheridge filed an exception to the ruling. He then plead not guilty to all the charges and specifications, except the second specification and second charge, to which he plead guilty, and the Court allowed him to introduce the whole letter from which the extract was made. This letter is known as the Dresden letter, dated June 28, in which he made the declaration that Tennessee had no law but force, and no semblance to a civil government, State or Federal, but a usurpation enforced by the bayonets of negroes. [Nothing galls a traitor worse than a negro bayonet.] After some evidence for the prosecution, the accused presented the Court with a written statement which admits all the facts in the first charge, namely: the encouragement of resistance to the enforcement of the laws.

REMAINS OF THE REBELLION.—A New Orleans dispatch of Oct. 15 says Mr. Watterson, the official agent of the government sent to inquire into the condition of Southern affairs, left Saturday afternoon after a short stay. It is understood that his opinion of the Freedmen's Bureau is, that it is an unnecessary burden to the government.

The Provost Marshal has ordered an inspection of the city registered voters, with a view to strike from the rolls the names of a certain portion charged with acts of disloyalty antecedent to the President's proclamation, and of those who, in 1862, registered themselves as enemies of the United States. This would strike off a fifth of the registered voters of the city. Governor Wells protests against this as an interference with an established State law, and if the Provost Marshal persists, he will appeal to the President.

COTTON IN ILLINOIS.—It is estimated that in Illinois no less than 25,000 bales of cotton will be raised this year on farms along the line of the Illinois Central Railroad, against 5000 bales last year. In Union county it has been found difficult to procure white laborers to secure the cotton crop, owing to the prevalence of fever and ague. In order to save his crop a planter near Jonesboro resorted to the employment of negroes. These were set upon by a mob of a low class of whites, who, disguised, attacked them with guns while sleeping. Shots were fired into their quarters, injuring no one, but frightening most of the negroes off the plantation, and the foreman was notified that negroes would not be permitted to work on the plantation. Could anything be meaner or more ignorant?

NEW YORK.—The chief interest in political matters now centers in the New York election, which takes place early next month. The Union papers speak hopefully, though there is not so much activity as there should be. The World, which is the Democratic organ, is preparing its followers for defeat by suggestions like the following: "Nothing but the impediments created by the registry law in large cities will prevent our carrying the State by fifty thousand majority." An efficient registry law which will secure honest voting will no doubt be a serious obstacle in the way of rolling up those Democratic majorities for which New York has been famous. We do not know how efficient it will be in New York,—but we honestly like to ask, What could be more thickness than the majority obtained by such means as the World suggests?

FREE WHITE SCHOOLS IN VIRGINIA. The Richmond Times says: After one week's operations the free schools under the control of Prof. C. T. Chase, of the Union Commission, have been pronounced a decided success. But three or four teachers have been employed, thus far, in organizing classes; but the rooms have been crowded to overflowing. The buildings of the Confederate Laboratory are fitted up for the reception of indigent white children; and the novelty of a free school in the city creates great interest among parents. We learn that similar schools, under the control of competent teachers, will soon be established in various parts of the city.

☞ A San Francisco dispatch of Oct. 14, mentions a great loss of life by the explosion of the boiler of the steamer Goesmite. Twenty-two whites and thirty-two Chinamen were killed, and thirty-two whites wounded. The following are some additional names of the killed: James H. Barnes of New Hampshire; H. M. Dakes, New York; Louis Lillie—he has a brother in Wisconsin; C. C. Jacks, San Francisco; G. L. Smith, Boston. Business is rather quiet; high prices and limited consumption check speculation.

— The Ocean Mills, at Newburyport, have declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The publishers of the Concord Daily Monitor have just commenced the issue of a handsome Quarto Weekly paper, at $2 per year in advance.

—— Rev. G. T. Flanders has resigned the pastorate of the Universalist Society in Nashua. We understand that he goes to Portland with a salary of $2000, and five months' leave of absence, in order to enable him to visit Europe.

—— Rev. E. A. Jameson has sought and obtained a dismission from the East Congregational Church in Concord.

—— The Amoskeag Manufacturing Company Manchester are to build ten more steam fire-engines for the New York Fire Department.

—— Mr. G. A. White has ceased to be editor of the Nashua Telegraph. Mr. C. V. Dearborn succeeds him.

DIED AS A FOOL DIETH.—Last Saturday evening, in Cambridge, Mass., two young men named James and Christopher Garrett, the former a late member of the 29th Massachusetts regiment, the latter of the 3d Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, lately mustered out of the U. S. service, entertained a party of their friends at their father's house. While dancing was going on Daniel Garrity, also a returned soldier, but no acquaintance of the above-named parties, entered the house and began to annoy the dancers and otherwise aggravate a disturbance and his misconduct at length became so great that the mother of the Garrett boys said the party must break up.—Garrity refusing to leave, Mr. Garrett, the father of the boys, pushed him out of the house and down the steps, whereupon a fight ensued. The Garretts told Garrity if he did not leave they would shoot him.—Garrity's friends seeing the state of affairs carried him home; but he soon after returned and found the Garrett boys on the steps of their father's house, each with a gun in his hand. Garrity threw a stone at them, which went in at the open door and struck a little sister about 6 years old. Immediately thereafter there was the report of a gun heard and Garrity fell mortally wounded, but lingered till Sunday noon, when he died, leaving a wife and three children. He must have been drinking, for sober men never act as he did.—The two Gerretts of course are arrested. They are both young men, James being 18 years of age; and Christopher acknowledged that he fired the gun, but that he did not intend to kill the man, but only to frighten him away. He averred that he did not put a ball cartridge in the gun.

THE FREEDMEN.—A large meeting was held in the Academy of Music in Philadelphia Wednesday evening, for the purpose of starting an organization on the basis and plan of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, for the supervision of the moral needs of the freedmen of the South. Bishop McIlvane of Ohio presided, and speeches were made by Rev. Dr. Bellows, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Wm. Loyd Garrison. It is proposed to raise $100,000 for the education of the freedmen.

☞ From England and Ireland we learn that Fenian arrests continue. About 200 in all have thus far been arrested. A suspicious vessel, flying the American flag, and supposed to be one of those with arms, had appeared off Queenstown, but again put to sea. A strange vessel is said to have sent a letter on shore, which was found to contain a bill for £1000 in favor of a member of the Fenian organization.

The examination of the six Fenians at Dublin was concluded on the 2d. Additional evidence developed nothing new of moment. Five of the prisoners were committed to take their trial for high treason. The prisoners denied that the indiscriminate slaughter of the higher classes was ever meditated.

☞ T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, will publish from advance sheets on November 11th, "Our Mutual Friend," Charles Dickens' new novel, complete and unabridged, with all the illustrations of this popular author's writings. We predict for "Our Mutual Friend," a very generous reception, as it is one of his best books.

— At Philadelphia, on Monday, there was a grand parade of firemen, fire engines, &c. There were 35 steam engines belonging to Philadelphia, 114 engine companies, ambulances, hose carriages, and hundreds of thousands of spectators.

— In Pennsylvania, it is now said the majority on the home vote will certainly exceed that of President Lincoln on the home and army vote by several thousand. The Union party will have two-thirds of both branches of the Legislature. The Union party gains in 38 of 42 counties officially reported.

— In the North Carolina Convention, last Saturday, a resolution was passed requesting the President to remove all negro troops from the State. Poor fellows, "they went out for wool, but came home shorn."

— The Navy Department will close up its sales of steamers and sailing vessels by disposing of twenty-two at public auction in New York on the 25th inst. They will be sold to the highest bidder without reserve.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 16.—Daniel Hennessey had a very Websterian look Monday morning on appearing before the court of justice. By "Websterian," we mean that he resembled the immortal Daniel Webster in one respect, viz: having, like the great statesman, a big head. In fine, it was with the utmost difficulty that Daniel could adjust his chapeau this morning. Perhaps the rain caused his head to swell, and perhaps it didn't. We will not indulge in speculations upon the matter, but will merely chronicle an incidental fact of which we are reminded while speaking of this unfortunate Milesian, i. e., that Daniel Hennessy was fined $3 and costs $3.86, for being drunk last Saturday evening. Of course this had nothing to do with the hat arrangement.

John E. Morgan, drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

MRS. CARY BEFORE THE LYCEUM.—To satisfy the many inquires in regard to Mrs. Cary's singing before the Lyceum, we would state from good authority that it is intended that this favorite singer will appear once or twice during the course. No vocalist has been received in Portsmouth with so much applause for many years, as has Mrs. Cary. She has a multitude of admirers in this city, and well deserves it.

THE FREE LECTURE ON GEOLOGY, this evening, ought to attract all who feel an interest in that Science, — as Professor Gunning is well qualified to instruct and entertain an audience with the latest discoveries and best approved theories. He has received high commendation of his lectures from some of the best papers in Boston, and from Prof. Agassiz. His course is eminently worthy of encouragement.

☞ Mr. Haraden advertises to put on the patent Rubber Mouldings and Weather Strips for doors and Windows, which are also advertised by Mr. Bradstreet on the 4th page. They appear to be a very desirable article.

☞ That Promenade Concert at the Temple comes off to-night, and all who love good music and dancing ought to be there, as well as all who regard it an advantage to have a good Band in the city. See advertisement.

☞ Lyceum commences next Monday. Have you got your tickets for Gough's opening lecture? Last year there was a call at the last, which could not be supplied.

☞ It be seen by the advertisement that Mr. Wendell commences an extensive sale of Housekeeping and Woolen Goods tomorrow forenoon, to continue for a few days.

☞ Lieut. Commander Caldwell has been detached from duty as senior officer of the Inventory Board at this Yard, and ordered to the Naval Rendezvous at Boston.

☞ Wilson & Co's Dramatic Company open at the Temple for a short season, on Thursday night.

☞ Special attention is invited to the advertisement of Vance's patent Submerged Well Pumps as an article far superior to any other pump ever offered to the public.

INDIAN WAR.—A telegram from Gen. Pope gives Central City dates to the 27th ult. General Conner had surprised the Indians on Tongre river, killing fifty and capturing all their winter stores and 600 horses. Colonel Coles had had three days fighting, killing and wounding over 200 Indians, and scattering them, with the loss of their stores, camp equippage and several chiefs. Our loss was not over fifty in killed and wounded.

REPUBLICANS IN MEXICO.—The Times' Havana correspondent has information of a very important insurrection in the Department of Ojaka, Mexico. The Republicans had met with great success in their capture of Tehuacan, capturing greater supplies of money and arms than was supposed, and were able to equip a large force.

OHIO.—The Tribune's Columbus dispatch of the 15th says returns from all the counties give Cox a majority of 28,277, while the average majority on the State ticket is 30,000. The Legislature stands, Union 25, Democrats 15, in the Senate; and 70 Union to 35 Democrats in the House. The soldiers' vote will not be counted until next month.

GRAIN.—Speculators who have bought grain in the West in the belief that the crops would turn out short have been disappointed, as receipts at several leading markets are much heavier than last year, and they will be obliged to keep their stocks until next spring, for lack of means to send them East, when they will have to sell at a heavy reduction. There will be then no foreign demand, as England can supply herself elsewhere than in the American market, and hence the speculators must suffer. It is reported that, owing the action of the Western banks, many of the most extensive speculative operators will come to grief before the new year commences.—Boston Journal.

— The incendiary who kindled the terrible conflagration in Augusta has confessed his guilt. His name is George W. Jones, and he comes from China, Maine.

COMMERCE IN THE SOUTH.—It is stated that the St. Louis and New Orleans tonnage, now over 40,000 tons, is 33 per cent. in excess of that of 1859. The Ohio river tonnage has increased 50 per cent. and the Missouri river 50 per cent. since that time.

JEFF. DAVIS.—The Times' Washington dispatch says the President said to the South Carolina Delegation that Governor Magrath may be released, but no hope for Jeff. Davis has been vouchsafed.

— In South Carolina, about 40 persons suspected of being thieves from the North have been arrested by Gen. Bennett, who was informed that between 400 and 500 had started for North Carolina.

—DEALERS IN—
S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.
This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.
ITS ADVANTAGES.
FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—The Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.
SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.
THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.
FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.
FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.
SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.
☞ Manufactured by S. VANCE & CO., No. 31 Liberty Street, Newburyport, and for sale in Portsmouth by the Sole Agents for N. H.,

☞ We are permitted to refer to Mr. MONROE HOLMES and to Mr. FRANK W. MILLER of the Daily Chronicle, who have these new Pumps in use on their premises,—for testimony to their excellence.

DEAFNESS!
CATARRH!
—AND—
Diseases of the Throat.
Extension of Dr. Campbell's Stay
IN PORTSMOUTH.
DR. CAMPBELL,
At the earnest solicitation of numerous patients and persons desiring treatment, will extend his stay at the Franklin House, Portsmouth,
Until Saturday, Oct. 28.
HOME TESTIMONY.
Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.
TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Wm. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently cured, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anybody. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at the time of commencing Dr. C's treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on; the sceptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H. My son faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time he was rewarded by a FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING.
SIMON J. TORR, Shoe Manufacturer.
KITTERY POINT, Me., Oct. 5, 1865.
DR. CAMPBELL, Franklin House—Dear Sir: I have been deaf from earliest infancy, with at times discharges from my ears, and have suffered intensely from catarrh, and occasionally painful noises in my head. I am only too happy to certify that under your skill the treatment I can now hear as well as any one, the discharge has gone, and I have no to speak, "AN ENTIRE NEW HEAD." The distress is gone entirely. If it can be any benefit to humanity or yourself, I am perfectly willing that you should refer to me, or my husband, Mr. Benj. Seaward of the Navy Yard. Rest assured I shall send all afflicted sufferers to you myself, wishing you every success, I am, my dear Doctor, very gratefully and respectfully yours,
MRS. MARY A. SEAWARD.
Certificate of Miss Junkins.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 10th, 1865.
When five years old I had the scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant suppurating from them, most revoltingly offensive to myself and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I was INCURABLE, and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbor (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 27 years' duration by Dr. C., I placed myself in his hands for treatment. At the time of doing so there was a perforation of the drum of one ear, but the discharge was not constant and profuse than ever from both, I could not hear a watch tick or without the greatest difficulty and painful concentration of mind spoken to close to my ear. I carried out the treatment prescribed by Dr. C. but three months, at the end of which time the discharge from one ear had CEASED ENTIRELY, the perforation of the drum had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick at a good distance, and sustain a conversation across the room. My other ear discharges a very little at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to send for more medicine. My hearing in that ear, however, is greatly improved, while the bad smell is entirely gone. I reside with the family of Mr. Young, at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time.
ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS.
Certificate of Mr. Stephen Blanchard.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct 4th, 1865.
Grateful to Dr. Campbell for the use of Franklin House, for being the means of completely restoring me to health, I cheerfully make this statement of my case, for the benefit of others similarly affected.
Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh, in its most severe form; my head, throat and nostrils were badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health was much broken down, so much so that I was obliged to discontinue my work at the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no help, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C. one year ago. In three weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the "fitting department" of the Navy Yard, with Navy Yard, and have remained there steadily ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and am giving evidence that Dr. Wm. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH CAN BE CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, my sense of smell has returned, acute as ever, and I can in this certificate but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I carried out my treatment at home, without any difficulty or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice.—Persons who doubt can call on me at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to verify this statement. STEPHEN BLANCHARD,
Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsm.
Certificate of Mr. Davidson.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.
I have been for years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fœtid discharge from it all the time. I have tried almost everything, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few moments removed a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly, and since then, by the use of the doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawim

Duryea's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

YORK COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR was held at Saco and Biddeford last week. The cattle entries were not very numerous, but some of the best ever shown in the county were put on exhibition. The show of family, matched and trotting horses, the Portland Star says, was unusually good. The exhibition of fruits and vegetables indicated increased attention to these branches, and successful skill in producing them. A few years ago the society were burdened with a debt of $3000. It has all been paid off but $400, which the receipts of the present Fair, it is thought, will extinguish. On Thursday there was a trotting contest for premiums of $25, $15 and $10. Two entries were made for each. The entries for the second premium were: Fanny Drew, by John Drew; Billy, by Geo. Lane. Billy won in 2:56.

We were unable to accept an invitation from the officers of the Society to attend; but as the bay gelding "Billy," here mentioned, now belonging to Mayor Shaw of Biddeford, was formerly owned in this city, and is still remembered as one of the quickest steppers ever owned about here,—a short account of the trot, by a spectator, will not be without interest to many of our readers:

The great race for the York Co. Fair premiums came off on Thursday afternoon. The track being clayey, the rain the previous night made it heavy, and rather dangerous at the corners, or "turns." "Billy" was put in for the 2d premium, to help the sport—his owner supposing that there would be some big guns in for the 1st. There were two entries for each of the three premiums. Billy went first against "Red Bird" of Limerick. Time 3:06, the Bird a long way behind. The 1st premium horses then went, in 3:10—best time either of them made in either heat!

As soon as Billy made the 3:06, there was a rush to enter for the 2d against him; and the judges actually ruled to let them in and give them the inside! Not much of a ruling, considering that all entries were to be made Wednesday, and that one heat had been trotted and Billy had won it! However, to see the fun, his owner consented for him to go again,—and he just cleaned them all out in 2:56.

In the first heat he got a shoe loose, and went around with it cutting into his opposite leg—the shoe off at the end of the heat, and they had to have that reset. As it proved, he beat the best time of the 1st premium horses 14 seconds, although he cannot take the 1st himself, as he was entered for the 2d. I think he could have been driven around easily in 2:50, as his driver didn't force him at all—2:56 on this half-mile track being about the same as 2:51 on a mile track. He seemed to be afraid of the short turns at the corners.

Yours, C.

This pretty well establishes Billy's old claim to be a '45 horse, if not '40; for 2:50 (which it is evident he could have made) on that Saco track, with its bad, sharp turns, and especially in its very muddy and heavy condition, must be allowed as good as 2:45 or better at the Riverside—good day and good track. Well done, "Billy I. O. U." It is also to be remembered that he is kept for a gentleman's road driving, and was fat as a cub and in no sort of condition or training for his best time.

REDUCTION OF WAGES AT THE NAVY YARD.—An order of much importance has been received at the Charleston Navy Yard regulating the pay of the workmen. The first class of ship carpenters have had $4 per day. Hereafter under the new order they receive the same for old work and $3.50 for new work. The bolters, belonging to the same gang, have been reduced from $3.50 to $3; the house joiners, boat-builders, sparmakers, blacksmiths, plumbers, coppersmiths, and gun-carriage makers have been reduced from $3.50 to $3.25; tinsmiths and blockmakers from $2.75 to $2.50; machinists, ropemakers and sailmakers from $3.25 to $3. The pay in the other departments is the same, with the exception of the laborer's gang, which was formerly divided into two classes, receiving $2 and $1.75 per day. They henceforth will be paid $2 without distinction.—Traveller.

In connection with the above item we propose to show the disparity which exists between this Navy Yard and that at Charlestown, in the matter of remuneration of the workmen employed at each. The difference in the wages of employees there and here will average seventy-five cents to each man, and why such a distinction is made, within a distance of fifty miles with equally good mechanics, we cannot see. The following list shows what wages are being paid at this station: Borers and Bolters $2.25; Boat Builders $2.50; Ship Carpenters $2.75; Coopers $2.25; Gun Carriage Makers 2.50; Joiners 2.50; Sawyers 2.50; Spar Makers 2.50; Boiler Makers 2.75; Brass Founders 2.75; Tinners 2.50; Plumbers 2.75; Machinists 2.75; Coppersmiths 2.75; Blacksmiths 2.75; Laborers 1.60; Masons 2.75; Riggers 2.25; Sailmakers 2.50; Iron Platers 2.75. All of the above-mentioned departments were reduced to the present rate on the 10th of this present month, being a reduction of twenty-five cents on every man, save the Calkers, Painters, Teamsters and the Laborers, the three former remaining unchanged, and the latter (laborers) reduced fifty cents,—formerly $1.75. These rates of pay refer only to the first classes. Other classes are generally 25 cents lower according to their grade.

FADED LEAVES.

The hills are bright with maples yet,
But down the level land
The beech leaves rustle in the wind,
As dry and brown as sand.

The clouds in bars of rusty red
Along the hill-tops glow,
And on the still, sharp air the frost
Is like a dream of snow.

The berries of the brier-rose
Have lost their rounded pride;
The bitter-sweet chrysanthemums
Are drooping heavy-eyed.

The cricket grows more friendly now,
The dormouse sly and wise,—
Hiding away in the disgrace
Of nature from men's eyes.

The pigeons in black wavering lines
Are swinging toward the sun,
And all the grain and withered fields
Proclaim the summer done.

His store of nuts and acorns now
The squirrel hastes to gain,
And sets his house in order for
The winter's dreary reign.

'Tis time to light the evening fire,
To read good books, to sing
The low and lovely songs that breathe
Of the eternal spring.

ALICE CARY.

☞ The English government and people were full of wrath because a passport system was established in this country for the detection of rebel emissaries. Now mark the consistency of John Bull. Every person who lands in Ireland from America is made subject to an examination that extends to everything on his person, or in his baggage, to every paper, and every bit of linen; and if a revolver or a powder-flask is found in his trunk, it is confiscated.

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years strolling through the south in the Secret Service of the Tribune, from the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling escape and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting books of the crisis ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The Iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The Iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

THE LATE PROVOST MARSHAL.—We call attention to an article in another column giving a partial statistical history of the Provost Marshal's office. The data therein contained was compiled from the very elaborate and interesting final report of Capt. Daniel Hall, to the Provost Marshal General. The document is one of much interest to the citizens of this district, and we hope to be able to make further extracts therefrom. Capt. Hall's position has been a very difficult one to fill, and his duties have until lately been most onerous; but we think we shall not be contradicted when we say that he has given universal satisfaction to the thousands who have had occasion to do business with him. Always prompt, courteous, and in every way ready to meet the wishes of the community, when in accordance with the regulations of the Government; he has very ably conducted affairs in his department. We are not apprised of his future intentions.

U. S. COURT.—The October term of the Circuit Court was held at Exeter this week: Judges Clifford and Harvey presiding. The term was of short duration, adjourning on Thursday. The case of the U. S. vs John Grimshaw of this city, convicted of aiding and abetting desertion, entered at the Court one year ago and which has been continued for sentence upon a motion to set aside the verdict, was continued until next term. Judge Clifford not being ready with his opinion. Thomas Caswell of Strafford, on trial for harboring a deserter, (Jabez McDuffee,) was acquitted, the jury being out about one hour. U. S. Attorney Rand for the prosecution and Judge Eastman for the defence. The next term of the Court will be held in this city, May 8th, 1866.

APPOINTED.—Kendrick D. Batchelder of Exeter, has been appointed U. S. Commissioner for this District, by the Hon. Judge Clifford of the U. S. Supreme Court.

SUDDEN DEATH.—News was received in this city on Tuesday, by telegraph, of the very sudden decease of JOHN M. BENEDICT, a dry goods merchant of New York. Mr. B. married a daughter of the late Wm. Petigrew of this city. She is on a visit at Portsmouth, and was expecting the arrival of her husband at the same time the news of his death came. Mr. Benedict was an excellent man, and a very kind husband and father.

DROUTH.—For about two months Star Island has been without water, except what has been brought from Portsmouth. There are over a hundred residents there, and ten barrels of water from the Portsmouth aqueduct is carried out daily. The wells and cisterns of Appledore and the other isles are also all dry. A condenser to make fresh water from salt, would be a very desirable apparatus for that locality.

PERSONAL.—Brig. Gen. Cyrus Hamlin has been sojourning with his friend, Col. Mark F. Wentworth, at Kittery, Me. for the few days last past. The General looks "every inch a soldier," and his record shows that his appearance is not deceptive.

LAUNCH.—The gunboat "Resaca," intended for a despatch boat, will be launched from the Navy Yard in a few days, preparations having already been commenced. She is expected to be a very fleet craft.

AN INDIAN of good address presented himself at the Franklin House one evening this week, and desired to stay all night. His name was registered and at the proper time he retired. About two o'clock the following morning the boarders were aroused by a party making efforts to enter their rooms. Messrs. Hadley & Perkins were promptly on the spot, and after a short search discovered his Indianship prowling around the apartments, with a large cloth bag, evidently intending theft. He was taken in charge and delivered to the "guardians of the night." No complaint being made against him, he has probably gone on his way rejoicing.

An auction sale of the furniture and effects, at the Provost Marshal's Office, took place last Saturday. Joseph P. Morse, Esq. was the auctioneer, and the attendance being good, the bidding was spirited. Each one seeming anxious to have a "trophy" of the establishment. The "Draft-wheel" which has been the terror to so many, started at fifteen cents, and was knocked off to Sampson L. Russell of Ward 3, for seven dollars. The wheel in Capt. Eaton's office at Concord, was sold for only three dollars.

PRESTIDIGITATION.—A foot race took place at Sagamore Creek on Thursday, for a purse of forty dollars, between George Shannon, "the whip," and William Strickland, of "sock and buskin" popularity—the latter belonging to Yankee Locke's Dramatic Company. Strickland won the race and money easy.

Morning Chronicle.

— In five of the southwestern counties of Kansas, there have been, within the past three months, six thousand five hundred and forty acres of land entered, and seven thousand five hundred and nine taken up as homesteads.

— Down in Georgia, when the school ma'am asked a little darkey, "what's that letter?" he rolled up the whites of his eyes and said: "I know that well enough by sight, but I'm bressed if I can call it by its name.'

— At a recent election in Australia, naturalized Chinamen voted for the first time. Being utterly free from political prejudices, and wholly impartial in their views of both men and principles, they formed a delightful field for exercising electioneering skill.

— "You do wrong to fish on Sunday," said a clergyman to a lad whom he saw so doing. "Well, sir," replied the boy, "it can't be much harm' for I ain't cotched nothink."

— Why is a person asking questions the strangest of all individuals? Because he's the querist.

EXTRACT
RYE.

What Is It?

Ask the thousands who are using it.

Make the inquiry anywhere from one end of this glorious Country to the other.

Some People Call it the very best OLD RYE WHISKEY THEY EVER TASTED; PERHAPS THEY ARE RIGHT.

Try It and See.

It is made from

RYE,

And Nothing Else, and from the Best Rye at that.

NONE OF YOUR
Musty, Mouldy, Heated Stuff,
BUT THE VERY BEST OF RYE THAT GROWS IN THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY.

It is enough to do a Man's soul good to taste it, and see how different it is from the STRONG, FIERY STUFF that people use for

RYE WHISKEY.

It is made different; it retains, by a peculiar mode of Distillation, The Very Medicinal Qualities that have made it so popular.

If you want to use a pure, genuine article of Spirit to stimulate a weak Stomach, or to give you renewed health and long life, use the

Extract of Rye.

It is put up in large square bottles, which contain the name of

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the— MAGEE PARLOR STOVE with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

IF WE KNEW.

If we knew the cares and crosses
Crowding round our neighbor's way,
If we knew the little losses
Sorely grievous, day by day;
Would we then so often chide him
For his lack of thrift and gain,
Leaving on his heart a shadow,
Leaving on our life a stain?
If we knew the clouds above us
Held but gentle blessings there,
Would we turn away all trembling
In our blind and weak despair?
Would we shrink from little shadows
Lying on the dewy grass,
While 'tis only birds of Eden
Just in mercy flying past?
If we knew the silent story,
Quivering through the heart of pain,
Would our manhood dare to doom them
Back to haunts of guilt again?
Life hath many a tangled crossing,
Joy hath many a break of woe,
And the check tear-stained is whitest,
This the blessed angels know.
Let us reach into our bosoms,
For the key to others' lives,
And with love toward erring nature
Cherish good that still survives;
So that, when our disrobed spirits
Soar to realms of light again,
We may say, "Dear Father, judge us
As we judged our fellowmen."

— A fatal accident occurring on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Saturday, near Lancaster, killed 9 persons. The accident was caused by the breaking of an axletree, the brake part of which struck the bottom of the car near the front end and tore out part of it, precipitating the occupants of the seats on each side to the ground, where they were run over by the wheels of the rear truck.

"The very first canon of nursing, the first and last thing upon which a nurse's attention must be fixed, the first essential to a patient, without which all the rest you can do for him is as nothing, with which I had almost said you may leave all the rest alone, is this: To keep the air he breathes as pure as the external air, without chilling him. Yet what is so little attended to? Even where it is thought of at all, the most extraordinary misconceptions reign about it.—Florence Nightingale.

TARRANT & CO.
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT, as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1865.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—In the Episcopal Convention, in session in Philadelphia, Horace Binney on Sunday introduced the following:

Resolved, That this house, in most cordially concurring, as it has done, in the resolution of the House of Bishops, appointing a day of thanksgiving for the return of peace to the country and unity to the church, most respectfully expresses to the House of Bishops its most earnest desire that in the religious services to be appointed for the day, especial thanks be offered to Almighty God for the re-establishment of the national authority over our whole country, and for the removal of the great occasion of national dissension and estrangement, to which our late troubles were due.

A noisy discussion followed. Mr. Binney said there are truths to which no utterances have yet been given. Various motions were made, and finally the resolution was laid on the table or virtually rejected, by the following vote: Clerical 10 to 6; lay, 15 to 7: total 25 to 13.

We consider this very encouraging,—that one-third of the lower House are loyal and anti-slavery. To be sure, when the Southern churches and bishops come in, as they will come, the proportion will be changed: but the leaven is there, and it will work. If any outside parties suppose that the Episcopal Church stifles free thought beneath its established forms, they only deceive themselves. There is great a variety of opinion on all subjects, within that church, as there can be out side it, though the mode of expression may be quite different. Tyng and McIlvaine are there, as well as Hopkins and Potter:—and public opinion operates on the Protestant Episcopal churches, as surely it not quite so speedily, as on others. The world moves, and all go with it.

MEXICO.—Advices from Balize inform us that the English Government has repudiated the attempt by Maximilian in 1864 to extend the boundary of the Mexican Empire into British Honduras by means of a military mail from Yucatan. Maximilian acquiesces.

Advices from Mexico confirm late reports of the activity of the supporters of Juarez. Leading Republicans are defraying the expense of arming the guerilla bands. At Tampico and along the coast Imperialism was decidedly declining.

☞ The great Fenian Convention at Philadelphia, is sitting with closed doors. John O'Mahoney, Head Centre, is presiding. Rumors of the most exciting orders are afloat. One is that a plan for a Provisional Government, or Irish Directory, will be urged, with authority to issue bonds, commission privateers, &c. Important private advices are said to have been received in cipher by the steamer at Father Point.

FORTY PERSONS POISONED.—The St. Louis Republican of Thursday says: "We hear of an awful tragedy that occurred last week in the town of Shiloh, Randolph county, Illinois. It appears that two physicians, Drs. Campbell and Miner of that place, recently sent to the drug store of A. A. Anderson, in Chester, for a quantity of calomel. In one day the medicine was administered to forty persons, when it was discovered that with the calomel there was mixed corrosive sublimate, a violent poison. All of the patients were taken with alarming symptoms, and in the cases of seven of them the result had proved fatal at the date of our advices, and it was feared that others would not survive. Among those whose death ensued were a family named Mellinger, consisting of man, wife and child. A sister of Dr. Campbell, an intelligent and interesting young lady, died in a few hours after having taken the dose prescribed by her brother.

THE ITALIAN CHURCH.—On Monday, at Philadelphia, in the Episcopal Convention, Rev. Dr. Higbee presented the memorial of Rev. Mr. Chauncey Langlow, of the diocese of Maryland, formerly American Chaplain at Rome, representing that there is in Italy a large and growing party of priests and others who advocate a reform in the Church of Italy, in accordance with the principles of the English reformation, and who appeal to the American Episcopal Church for encouragement and counsel. Dr. Higbee moved that the memorial be referred to the special committee appointed on Saturday, on this subject, and that the committee be enlarged. The motion was adopted. The memorial was read by the Secretary. It shows a remarkable condition of affairs in the Italian church, where a reform movement has already enlisted the active co-operation of thousands of the Italian priesthood.

GOLD, Tuesday, 146 1-2.

— The ex-rebel Gen. Lee has just subscribed an oath faithfully to support all "proclamations and laws which have been made during the existing rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves."

For the Chronicle.

HIGH PRICES. — Messrs. Editors: We have several times called your attention to the exorbitant price of the necessaries of life: higher in our market, according to the price current, as published in many of the public journals, than in any other city in New England. No justification or valid reason can be assigned for it, and it is immoral to demand for anything more than its value. It is conceded that the inflation of the currency tends to enhance prices, but after the war was ended we believed that farmers, traders, laborers, and all other classes, acting patriotically, and with a sense of justice, would reduce these prices, and this has been done in some parts of the country. Instead of being in danger of a famine, the agricultural crops in New England, the Middle States, and particularly the Western States, are abundant. It is, as a general rule, the scarcity of an article which gives it a high price in the market. The wealthy can stand high prices, because they have plenty of money; but they bear very heavily upon the middle and poorer classes, especially upon poor widow women with a family of children. Some speculators purchase goods very cheap at a distance, and send the same here at the very highest prices. Can such conduct be justified? We are assured that those who have no conscience, or one that is seared, attempt to justify it. They hold to the doctrine that an article is worth what they can get for it in the market. This is false logic. Farmers and traders admit that prices are outrageously high, but because one class ask too much, another class will follow their example. It is rendered certain that a vile and unprincipled class of speculators during the war, and since, having sufficient wealth, purchased up, to a large amount, the necessaries of life, in order to raise the price and take advantage of it. They ought to be despised by all good men. They got articles inserted in the papers that the wheat crop in the great West was nearly spoiled by wet weather. Hon. Horace Greely contradicts that story as follows:

Mr. Greely writes from the West that Minnesota has a bounteous supply of wheat, and is now selling it at cash prices ranging from 75 cents to $1.05, according to the accessibility of the point from which it is marketed.—Western Wisconsin is likewise favored. The wheat crop of each is estimated at thirty bushels per acre. The corn crop is likewise large and well ripened.

Flour, per bbl., is selling in many parts of the country at from 7 to 8 dollars.

There is abundance of pork in the Western States, and we trust that some of it will soon be brought to our own market.

Farmers and traders, instead of reducing the price of butter to a reasonable value since the war, demand 50 cts per lb.! which is more than double its value. We have sold, in past time, excellent butter for 11 cents per lb. and it is now worth no more than 17 cents per lb.—but, according to the price current it is sold in many places at from 20 to 30 cts. per lb, and cheese at 12 cts. per lb. In some cities people have combined not to purchase butter until the price is reduced. Their example being followed, the price would fall in a fortnight, for there are as many cows, or more, in the country than at any previous period. We extract the following from the Portland Star of the 4th inst.

Butter. — Those farmers who refused fifty centsper pound for butter, last fall, and in the spring were glad to get twenty-five for it, may "get their fingers bit" again this season, if they are not careful. The season at the West has been favorable for butter making, and when the products of the prairies reach the market, prices must come down.

We think that the price of meat provisions will also soon fall. It should be reduced at least one half less than is now vended in this market.

F. J.

EDITORIAL NOTES.—No doubt speculation has something to do with high prices; but speculation alone cannot create them. They rise from demand and great supply, and then speculation blows them higher. And then, on the other hand, the cheap stories that we get in the papers, about cheap prices here and there, are often fictitious. For example, an item went the rounds, not long ago, that Potatoes in Bangor, were 50 to 60 cts. But a cargo, just bought there cost 70 to 75 cts. So we were told, butter was at a certain price in Concord, but the Concord papers promptly said, We would like to buy at that price, but cannot.

The proper way, both for fair retail trader and consumer, is, when prices seem too high, to buy sparingly, and use without waste. The market, in due time, will regulate itself.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for November, has "Protection" for its frontispiece.

THE REBELLION RECORD, No. 50, contains portraits of Maj. Gens. Canby and Couch (the latter General being the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts). Also Documents. D. Nostrand publisher, New York.

THE ECLIPSE.—The Richmond Bulletin says the great eclipse on Thursday morning will pass through Georgia via Sherman's march, to Savannah, and thence to Africa.

DAMAGES ON A DESERTER.—A trial has been held by the Superior Court at Boston, in which James Mulchearey claimed damages in $10,000 from Dr. H. I. Bowditch for marking or branding the letter D on the left breast or side of the plaintiff. The plaintiff set forth that an application of caustic of some sort was made by the defendant, who was examining surgeon at the head-quarters of the Provost Marshal of the 4th District, which created a painful sore, besides branding him as a deserter, and that he was obliged to call a physician and apply poultices for some days, to the part affected.

The defendant offered testimony showing that the plaintiff presented himself for enlistment, and on being questioned, was understood to say that he deserted from the English army a short time previously, and thought he could do better by coming here and enlisting. On being asked if he would not again desert if enlisted here, he replied to the effect that he had not fully made up his mind. It was also shown that the application made on the person of the defendant was performed very quickly and comprised three marks. The jury failed to agree after being out all night, and were discharged. It is stated that the jurors marked from $25 to $10,000. It ought to be 25 cents.

— Two weeks ago Ferdinand Kirchner brutally murdered Henry Henning, a soldiea, in Buffalo, to secure a one hundred dollar bill in his possession. The same night he was arrested, on Tuesday committed, on Wednesday indicted, and last week on Wednesday brought up for trial, on Thursday convicted, and Friday sentenced to be hanged.

— Last week a young man named Crowder, residing in Petersburg, Va., died suddenly, and was regularly laid out and preparation made for his interment. Next morning he got up and dressed himself, and was quite unaware of his decease.

— At Toronto, Canada, Dr. Blackburn, of yellow fever notoriety, has been admitted to bail on his own recognizance to appear when called for, and his sureties have been discharged. This ends the matter, and the rascal goes unwhipt of justice by human hands.

— The Postmaster General authorizes a denial of the widely published statement that when the Southern mail service is fully resumed the deficit in the department will be eight millions of dollars. The contracts now being let are at rates forty per cent. less than those made before the war, the result of which is that the service will be self-sustaining.

A GOOD HIT.—During the discussion between Gen. Kilpatrick and his opponent in New Jersey, Mr. Rogers made a strong point in favor of equal taxation, and drew an affecting picture of the results of exempting Federal bonds from taxation, and the hardship of this policy on the poor, who were obliged to bear the burdens thus got rid of by the rich. To this appeal Gen. Kilpatrick replied by a fair retort that the Democrats of New Jersey were not honest in their opposition to unequal taxation, since no less than four millions of State bonds and fifty-six millions of railroad property were untaxed by the Democratic Legislature. If they were taxed, no man in New Jersey need pay a cent of State taxes.

BASE BALL.—A match took place at Andover, Mass., on Saturday last, between the Active and Conglomerate clubs, which, after a very keen struggle, was won by the latter—the score standing 32 against 31.

On Saturday afternoon the Sophomores and Freshmen of Tufts College played a match on the College grounds. The game lasted three hours, and was bravely contested by both sides. The Sophs. were the winners—the score standing 33 against 30.

—DEALERS IN—

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged, combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.

THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so arranged that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easy that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.

SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

DEAFNESS!

Diseases of the Throat.

Extension of Dr. Campbell's Stay

IN PORTSMOUTH.

DR. CAMPBELL,

At the earnest solicitation of numerous patients and persons desiring treatment, will extend his stay at the

Franklin House, Portsmouth,

Until Saturday, Oct. 28.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that, my son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anybody. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which had existed from infancy, with attendant discharges from my ears, and have suffered intensely from catarrh, and excessively painful noises in my head. I am only too happy to testify that under your skill ful treatment I can now hear as well as any one, the discharge all gone, and I have no to speak, "AN ENTIRE NEW HEAD." The disease is gone entirely. If it can be any benefit to humanity or yourself, I am perfectly willing that you should refer to me, or my husband, Mr. Benj. Seaward of the Navy Yard. Rest assured I shall send all afflicted as myself to you. Wishing you every success, I am, my dear Doctor, very gratefully and respectfully yours.

MRS. MARY A. SEAWARD.

Certificate of Miss Junkins.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 10th, 1865.

When five years old I had the scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant "running" from them, most revoltingly offensive to my self and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I was incurable and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbor (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 27 years' duration by Dr. C., I placed myself in his hands for treatment. At the time of coming to York I could hear the ticking of the drum of one ear, the discharge was more constant and profuse than ever from both, I could not hear a watch tick or write like a person, and difficulty understand conversation unless spoken to close to my ear. I carried out the treatment prescribed by Dr. C. but three months, at the end of which time the discharge from one ear had CEASED ENTIRELY, the perforation of the drum had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick a good distance, and sustain a conversation across the room. My other ear improves very slowly at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to send for more medicine. My hearing in that ear, however, is greatly improved, while the bad smell has entirely gone. I reside with the family of Mr. Young, at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time.

ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS.

Certificate of Mr. Stephen Blanchard.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct 4th, 1865.

Grateful to Dr. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, for being the means of completely restoring me to health. I therefore make this certificate of my case, for the benefit of others similarly affected.

Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh, in its most severe form; my head, throat and nostrils were so badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health completely broken down, so much so that I was obliged to discontinue my work in the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no help, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C. one year ago. In three weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained fifty pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the "fastening department" at Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have remained there steadily ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and am a living evidence that by Dr. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH CAN BE CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, my sense of smell has returned, acute as ever, and I can in this certificate but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I carried on my treatment at home, without any difficulty or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice—Persons who doubt can call on me at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to verify this statement. STEPHEN BLANCHARD,
Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsm.

Certificate of Mr. Davidson.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

I have been for fourteen years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fœtid discharge from it all the time. I have tried almost everything, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campbell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few moments removed a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly, and since then, by the use of the Doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are related upon by thousands of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where wretchedness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. e29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 17.—The household of Dennis Kane, on Monday, was the scene of matrimonial strife, caused in part by a lack of patience on the part of the matron of the house in respect to Dennis's weakness for the "tangle-foot,"—which he keeps in a locker in his dwelling—and in part by the unreasonable demands of the aforesaid Dennis when inspired by rotgut. Mr. Kane made a great mistake when he got married. Not that his wife is not good enough; but the trouble is,—Dennis is a man of nervous temperament, of keen sensibilities and delicate organization, and his wife will speak harshly to him sometimes, which the husband cannot endure, and hence the disturbance. He gets his regular $6.86. It was expected that the announcement of his fine and costs would overpower him, but as it was gently broken to him by the considerate Judge, he still survives, or was alive when we went to press.

John Sterrit, drunk, $6.86.

Benj. Quigley, drunk, fine and costs same as above.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—A term of the Supreme Judicial Court commenced in this city on Tuesday, before Hon. H. A. Bellows, Justice of the Court.

The number of civil actions on the continued docket is 252; and on the State docket 46.

The case State vs Young is understood to be for trial at this term—probably at the beginning of the third week.

The first case in order for trial was No. 1. Erastus F. Dana, J. B. Richardson, S. T. Sanborn, vs Nath'l K. Leavitt—an action involving the title to some property formerly used in a brewery at Exeter, and attached by Mr. Leavitt while a Deputy Sheriff, on writs against James M. Lovering, Wm. Conn, I. S. Brown and others.

The Court came in at half-past 3 o'clock P. M., but the case seemed hard to start from its position occupied on the docket for the past five years and did not proceed farther than the empanelling of a jury for its trial, and the Court adjourned at 5 o'clock to 9 o'clock this morning. Hatch and Wood for pltf., Christie and Bell for deft.

☞ The Philharmonic Society now numbers fully one hundred and twenty-five members and forms a heavy chorus—the largest musical society we have had in the city for many years, except the Old Folks Choir. The regular weekly rehearsal this evening is to commence at 7 1-2 precisely; and the doorkeeper is instructed not to admit visitors. The Society has in rehearsal some very fine music, of which the public may hear by-and-bye.

PERSONAL.—Mr. D. G. Waldron, of this city, with his Company, "The Alleghanians," sail for Europe per steamship Caledonia from New York, on Saturday, Oct. 21st. The troupe will appear in London, Liverpool and Paris, and then return to the Atlantic States about January next. Albert H. Fernald, pianist and tenore, of Boston, accompanies them. We wish our friends unbounded success, which they will undoubtedly receive wherever they appear.

☞ To hear John B. Gough and E. H. Chapin is alone worth the price of admission to the whole ten lectures before the Citizen's Lyceum.

☞ The sample of Jackson White Potatoes, from Bangor, via. Goodwin, Sweetser & Co., were found on trial, to be of superior quality, as we presume the lot to be. See advertisement.

☞ In Alexandria, Va., recently, a fowling piece was taken by a Justice of the Peace from a colored man, on the ground that the statutes of Virginia rendered such possession by a negro illegal. Provost Judge Hambrisk addressed a letter to the Mayor of Alexandria, saying: "In all such and similar cases which may hereafter arise, the colored people will be protected by me, against infringement upon any right guaranteed to white people. Hereafter no colored man will be arrested when found with a fowling piece in his possession, nor will he be liable to arrest, as I understand he now is, if found on the street after the hour of ten. I will further state that this plan will be strictly adhered to. The colored man must be regarded, so far as the right of property and freedom of person is concerned, as precisely on the same footing with a white citizen—no more, no less." The Major General commanding the Department of Washington has directed the gun to be restored, and that the civil authorities be notified of this action of the Provost Judge in all similar cases.

— It is reported that the captain of the Shenandoah gave to the captain of the ship Harvest, of Honolulu, which he destroyed, an order for $60,000 on the Confederate Treasury. Perhaps some of the English cotton bondholders would purchase this valuable order.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Under the Militia Law of the State, passed 1862, and amended 1865, the following organizations, to comprise part of the militia of New Hampshire, are authorized and accepted into the service of the State: namely, I. A company of Cavalry, to be located at Manchester, and designated, First Company Cavalry—James O. Chandler, Captain; Joseph H. Lane, 1st Lieut.; W. D. Perkins, 2d Lieut. II. A section of Light Artillery, to be located at Dover, and designated First Light Battery, Section A. Andrew J. Hough, Captain; William F. Thayer, 1st Lieut.; Frank F. Davis, 2d Lieut.

—— Mr. James Prescott, who died in Concord Sunday evening, aged 66, was a well known faithful Mail Stage Driver between Portsmouth, Dover, and Concord before the days of railroads.

—— Mr. Geo. Williams is to be ordained pastor of the Congregational church at Temple, this month.

—— Rev. Henry V. Emmons was installed pastor of the Congregational church at Lancaster, Sept. 27.

—— Rev. Horace Pratt has become the stated supply of the Congregational church at Oxfordville.

—— Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at South Hampton, Sunday, Oct. 29.

—— The gross receipts of the Ladies Fair in the Second Parish in Exeter, were $525.

FIRE IN STRATHAM. — On Sunday night, October 8, about 12 o'clock, the house and shed belonging to Mr. Stephen Scammon of Stratham were burned, supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Most of the furniture and about a hundred bushels of grain were lost, but by the greatest exertions of Mr. Scammon and his neighbors, the barn was saved. Loss about $3,500. Insured for $1400.

Mr. has also recently lost his valuable and much talked-of cow.

— The Charleston (S. C.) Courier urges emigration from the North to that city and State.

☞ Special attention is invited to the advertisement of Vance's patent Submerged Well Pump, as an article far superior to any other pump ever offered to the public.

☞ One word to our readers. Try DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, whenever you have any distress in stomach or bowels, or symptom of Dysentery or Diarrhea. It is simple, safe and reliable, very pleasant to the taste, and contains no opiates. o16

NATURE'S FURNITURE of the mouth, is far preferable to any that art can supply.—Therefore, keep your teeth clean, and in good repair with that toilet gem, Fragrant Sozodont. Brush them daily with this delicious vegetable preparation, and they will not be likely to crumble or decay. oct1gedtlw 11

"The Secret Service,"
THE FIELD,
THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!
By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.
[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the south in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The Iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave toe-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

HOARDING UNWISELY.—Every person of discernment perceives that prices are unduly inflated.—But all do not see either the causes of the evil, or the remedies for it. The hoarding of produce has gone so far in the West, that the Journal of Commerce learns from one of the leading railroad lines that the tonnage going West by that route is actually greater than that coming East; and it is asked:

"If the weight is greater, how much larger still the value going West? Do not the Western producers see that, at this rate, they are rapidly running in debt to the East, and unless they move a portion of their produce before the close of navigation, they will be a little pressed for exchange? We do not wish to create any alarm, but it seems to us that a financial crash out West can only be prevented by forwarding the produce to this market. If the holders do not choose to sell it, they may ship it in their own name, but they will do well to set it in motion soon."

— A correspondent learns from an authoritative source that the freedmen have subscribed $3,000,000 of the $8,000,000 subscribed for in Eastern Virginia of the several government loans. The remaining $5,000,000 has been subscribed for by northern men doing business in Virginia. Not one dollar has been subscribed by a white native Virginian.

— Miss. Flutter, who teased her father at an inopportune moment for a "waterfall," received two dams instead.

— The Toolumne Courier says that when a copperhead meeting was announced in Sonora, the chickens moved higher to roost.

THE GREAT
CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY!
DR. LAROOKAH'S
Indian Vegetable Pulmonic Syrup!
The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:
Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Hoarseness, General Debility, Liver Complaints, and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.
This well known remedy is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of this never failing Remedy I have only to refer to the written testimonials of hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:
REV. J. C. BEALES, of Malden, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S I. V. P. SYRUP for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."
REV. E. F. HOWARD, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr. Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I would confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."
REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gansevoort, Saw. Co., N. Y., says: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."
DR. FOSTER, of Newfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."
HON. D. W. GOODE, Member of Congress from Nonquisset, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all consumptive complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."
W. R. BOWEN, 86 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 30 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."
Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Bottle.
DR. LAROOKAH'S
SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND!
It is double the strength of any other Sarsaparilla Compound in the market.
For the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Dropsy, Neuralia, Epilepsy, Erysipelas, Boils, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Fever and Sores, Rheumatism, Pain in the Stomach, Side, and Bowels, Debility, and all complaints arising from impurities of the BLOOD.
The trial of a single Bottle of either will gain the confidence of the sick.
PREPARED BY S. SEVERY.
Price $1.00 per Bottle.

What Is It?
Ask the thousands who are using it.
Make the inquiry anywhere from one end of this glorious Country to the other.
Some People Call it the very best
OLD RYE WHISKEY
THEY EVER TASTED; PERHAPS THEY ARE RIGHT.
Try It and See.
It is made from
RYE,
And Nothing Else, and from the Best Rye at that.
NONE OF YOUR
Musty, Mouldy, Heated Stuff,
BUT THE VERY BEST OF RYE THAT GROWS IN THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY.
It is enough to do a Man's soul good to taste it, and see how different it is from the STRONG, FIERY STUFF that people use for
RYE WHISKEY.
It is made different; it retains, by a peculiar mode of Distillation,
The Very Medicinal Qualities
that have made it so popular.
If you want to use a pure, genuine article of Spirit to stimulate a weak Stomach, or to give you renewed health and long life, use the Extract of Rye.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

— Alex attended church last Sabbath, where they have scientific (quartet) singing, that is where all the people praise the Lord, by the voices of four singers in the gallery, and was surprised at the difference betwe:n scientific singing, and that he is accustomed to in the backwoods. He brought to me a specimen of the style which he copied from the original.

Waw-kaw, swaw, daw aw raw,
Thaw saw thaw law law raw;
Waw-kaw law thaw raw vaw vaw braw
Aw thaw raw-jaw saw aws.

Which rendered into English reads as follows:

Welcome, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast
And those rejoicing eyes.

Alex says that in the country they are green enough to think it necessary for good singing, that the words of the hymn should be sung. How very verdant!—Exchange.

THE FENIANS.—The Evening Post of New York, referring to the British scare with respect to Fenianism, says the figure of an obese and badly frightened John Bull firing off a sixty-eight pounder at a mosquito, ought to take the place of the lion and unicorn in the English escutcheon.

— The duties on the cargo of the ship Hyndale, recently arrived in New Orleans from a French port, amounted to $115,000 in gold, all of which had to be paid before the goods could be delivered.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
I trust that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
SID. C. HERRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1865.

GROANS AND SQUEAKS.—Some of the papers claiming to be democratic, are trying very hard to Tylerize President Johnson, by pretended support of what they deem his policy of reconstruction. But the Providence Post, (copper,) says:

"The leaders of the Republican party deliberately cheated the people into the war, and are now as deliberately determined to secure the deprivation of their political liberty."

The Saco Democrat endorses this, and calls it "incontrovertible."

Yet the Republican party, under the same leaders, aided by war democrats, elected Lincoln and Johnson, tho' opposed by the copperheads and McClellan and Pendleton.

But President Johnson says, in his address to the negro soldiers:—

The institution of slavery made war against the United States, and the United States has lifted its strong arm in vindication of the government and of free government; and in lifting that arm, appealing to the God of battles, it has been decided that the institution of slavery must go down.

If President Johnson speaks the truth, then the Providence Post lies dreadfully, and the Saco Democrat attests to it. Do not these items promise a very fine democratic support to Pres. Johnson?

The same Democrat also says:—

To one who watches the set of the current, it is astonishing to see the encroachments of the federal government upon our individual and traditional, as well as constitutionally expressed liberties. In this current, however, there is no ebb tide, the drift is continually and overwhelmingly in favor of absolutism; not by any accident do we recover a lost right, while day by day we see some usurpation, not only attempted but enforced. And not only so, but the apathy of the people is an encouragement to the radicals to exert every power to render this a dissolute and despotic administration, to continue and augment the severity of its tyrannical career.

Isn't that dreadful? the people encourage the radicals. But this is not all: the Democrat continues:

Not even Pres. Johnson with all his efforts to restore the Union, and the people to the protection of the civil authorities, untrammeled by military power, can save us. If the people deserve freedom, they will recover it; the young men and the old men of this State, and especially of this glorious old Democratic County, will arise and take the first step towards it, the first opportunity.

The men of Maine and of York County took a big step toward the radicals and the federal government, in their late election; and so have most of the other States since. The Democrat's closing sentence is more dismal still: it reads thus:

But if not, there are few indications which encourage us to believe that we shall, in this generation, again see a free and republican government in this once so happy land.

"O dear! O dear! I grieve, I grieve
"For the good old days of Adam and Eve."

But they will never come again: Slavery is overwhelmed—and its worshipers howl over it in vain. U. T.

GOV. PIERPONT'S MANNERS.—A Washington letter of Tuesday says: Quite a scene occurred at the Treasury Department yesterday—the curtain falling on the expulsion of Governor Pierpont of Virginia by Hon. Freeman H. Clark, Comptroller of the Currency. It appears that Governor Pierpont, in visiting the office of Mr. Clark, took occasion to give a profanely-emphatic expression on our national policy, denouncing the government in unmeasured terms for expecting that the Southern people would tamely submit to taxation for the payment of the public debt. His conduct at last became so indecorous and violent that it passed the bounds of toleration, and Mr. Clark peremptorily ordered him to leave the office. He responded to the order by slowly retiring to the door, the knob of which he retained for a moment in order to still further define his position. He was again directed to leave the room, and, thinking discretion the better part of valor, complied with the order.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—It will be remembered that Gen. Sherman, on his arrival at Savannah, set apart for the freedmen "the islands from Charleston South, the abandoned rice fields along the river for thirty miles back from the sea." This was a special Field Order, issuing in the execution of his powers as a military commander. The old proprietors are now returning, and do not hesitate to claim their lands. We await with anxiety the result. It cannot be that this experiment will be abandoned and these freedmen be sacrificed.

THE TEST OATH.—Alexander H. Rives of Charlottesville, Va., says that he was informed by Secretary Seward that he wished to make peace between the North and the South; that, as to the test oath, if he had been in Congress he should not have voted for it; but, said he, the oath is a law, and any Congressional district in the South "had better send an idiot or a child to Congress, who can take it, than to send a wise man who cannot."

— A fair at Milwaukee for a home for disabled Wisconsin soldiers got $102,855.

Chronicle Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

A newspaper with correspondents in the three principal cities of the country, Rye, Boston and New York, can hardly fail of success at $2.76 1-2 gold. And we are pleased that you secure so much of that commodity, which like a globule of quick-silver, grasped at, so often only slips away. With this congratulation, I drop a few words into my old-time column, from which of late much business care has kept my pen.

In our streets the fall carnival has commenced. The fashionable world has returned from its summer haunts, the theatres are crowded, parlors lighted and noisy, and gayety everywhere. The dulcet strains of the hand-organs, the piles of luscious purple grapes on the corner stands, and the soft balmy air gives an illusion of Italy quite welcome and agreeable. The Central Park has a balloon open to the public and in high favor; some of the trees stand each the centre of its little heap of bright red leaves, while others are wrapped to the top, like , in a robe of many colors.

The State has an election on the first Monday in November for this year's share of the offices. The Governor holds two years. The officers to be elected are Sec. of State, Comptroller, Canal Commissioner, Inspectors, Judges, and Senators from five Districts, and seventy Assembly Men. It wouldn't be surprising if the Democrats carried the canvass. They certainly run the strongest ticket.

Barnum at his new eum, one block above the St. Nicholas, same side, is doing better than ever,—securing many patrons his old location did not entice, being away from the regular promenade. He and the theatrical managers got into trouble with the Herald, held a convention, and voted to snub the Herald. The paper loses $150,000 per year—advertising, hush money, private boxes, complimentary tickets, &c. It black-mails every performance, and says the houses are "stuffed with paid claquers to applaud at regular intervals." Bennett thought he was too much for the theatres, but they are too much for Bennett, and never were so well attended. It's a jolly row, and the Herald isn't the top dog.

The tendency of business up town is just now especially evident. Wholesale boot and shoe, hat, and grocery establishments are following the dry goods, toward Canal street. Church street is being renovated nearly its entire length. The only remaining corner of Leonard, and three corners of Franklin and Church, and White street, also, are now being covered with immense six-storied brown stone and marble stores. The trade which twelve years ago was in Pearl and South streets, and six years ago between the City Hall and Trinity Church, will in one year be in the main between Chambers street and Canal.

New York is just beginning to use horses on her steam engines. 491,000 copies of the song, "Who will care for mother now," have been sold. I can't find out whether they ever had any answer to the question or not.—The new three-cent coin are a nuisance. (This is not intended for a pun.)—The owners of the "Dexter" horse claim that he can make 2.17. His last mile was in 2,18 1-5.—The impression is becoming general here that Jeff. Davis will be released.

It is a noticeable incident that two personal letters, one mailed at each end of the route, miscarried on the same day, week before last. The first occurrence of the kind in a correspondence extending back ten years, and averaging three letters per week.

St. Bartholomew Church, corner of Houston street and Broadway, have sold their property there, two lots, 25x100 feet each, for $175,000 (one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars.) They cost only $1100 each in 1824. This evidences the marvelous appreciation of New York (and especially Broadway) property. Last week, four lots, in all 100x100 feet, on 48th street, sold for $65,000. Four lots on 53d street, 100x125, for $80,000. And four lots on 43d street, measuring all together 100x100, for $85,000. One small lot corner of Church and Franklin streets sold two weeks ago for $47,500. Size 20x80 feet. $30 a foot for dirt! The Herald has bought and will build upon the old Museum property.

It is intimated that Fernando Wood will again be run for Mayor. N.

MEXICO.—The N. Y. Herald's City of Mexico correspondence says matters grow worse and worse for the Empire. The Republicans are increasing in numbers and boldness, and have defeated the Imperial troops in a number of recent engagements. Republican detachments swarm all over the country, and one has appeared 36 miles from the capital. In the State of Vera Cruz they defy all efforts to expel them. In Zacatecas and Jalisco they are sweeping all before them. It is said that the rebel officers in Mexico have refused to enter Maximilian's army.

— Twenty thousand Government overcoats were bought at auction in St. Louis the other day for $50,000 and afterwards resold for $200,000 to go to Texas.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal says, Attorney General Speed, in a yet unpublished opinion upon the right of colored troops to the bounty granted to volunteers, decides that a slave owes paramount allegiance to the Government; that he is bound to fight for the Government against the public enemy—against his master, if a rebel; that such service to the government itself dissolves the relation of master and slave; that the relation once dissolved can never be restored, and that, independent of any act of Congress, or proclamation of emancipation, the soldier of the loyal army is a freeman—is capable of contracting with the Government for pay and bounty, and, without respect to color, is fully entitled to all the benefits and rewards of the service he performs, and, therefore, entitled to the bounty offered by Congress to volunteers. This opinion puts slaves of Kentucky, fugitives from the South, and colored soldiers of the free States within the general provisions of the acts of Congress concerning the volunteers and enlisted soldiers of the Federal armies.

RICHARD COBDEN, in a letter to a French friend, speaks of the inherent weakness of a slave community, "owing to the want of that mechanical development which constitutes the great power of modern society, as compared with former ages." This is a democratic idea which, if the Democratic party has any good feeling towards mechanics, it might with benefit impress on the minds of Southern politicians. The trouble perhaps is that "mechanical development" does not tend to increase the power of the Southern Davises and the Northern Vallandighams in the same degree in which it increases the power, resources and well-being of communities, and consequently their only hope to keep themselves up is to keep the workmen down.

IS IT SO?—The New Orleans Tribune, owned and edited by colored persons, relates the following incident:

When Carl Schurz arrived in this city he happened to become the guest of Gen. Canby. It was in the evening. The next morning, after breakfast, Gen. Schurz said he would like to look at a loyal city paper. "There is none," replied Gen. Canby, "except the Tribune, which is a negro paper."

MARION COUNTY, INDIANA, which so disturbed the friends of McClellan, last year, with its Republican majorities, has so advanced in the same direction during the past twelve months, that there was no opposition to the Republican party, at the election on Tuesday last.

☞ Connecticut, in consequence of her late anti-negro suffrage vote, is the victim of many compliments from the Southern papers. The Mobile Tribune says:

Connecticut, it seems to us, is the wisest of all the New England States—has less of the fanaticism which has made them so pernicious to the peace of the country. We shall pray that the souls of her people may not come under the ecclesiastical ministrations of any of the Beecher family.

SUNKEN LAKE.—The great Sunken Lake, twenty miles long and ten miles wide, in Oregon, is supposed to lie two thousand feet below the mountains, which form a perpendicular wall all around. A party recently visiting it fired a rifle several times into the water at an angle of forty-five degrees, and were able to note several seconds of time between the report of the gun and the moment when the ball struck the water. It does not appear that anybody has yet made the descent to its shores.

☞ Frank H. Ramsey, landlord of the Mansion House in Charlestown, Mass., was stabbed on Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock, by two marines, named Kennedy and Henchy, who had been drinking freely at the saloon all the evening, and called for liquor at the Mansion House, but were refused. The marines were arrested, and Ramsey will probably die.

— John Reardon, 24 years of age, a driver on the Cambridge Horse Railroad, in attempting to pick up his trace chains Tuesday evening, fell over the dasher and beneath the wheels, which passed over and nearly cut his body in two. He was instantly killed.

— At New York on Monday night, the cotton warehouse of Harrison & Ostrey, on Bridge street, was burned. It was filled with cotton from the ground floor to the fifth story, and the cellar was filled with liquors. The loss will not be far from $1,000,000.

— Rev. Mr. Burton of Hartford, who filled the pulpit of Plymouth Church with such success last summer, has received a call from the First Congregational Church in San Francisco. Salary $5000 in gold, and traveling expenses out paid by the church.

— At Fitchburg on Saturday afternoon, Benjamin Franklin (colored) went into the loft of Mr. Doyle's livery stable, for the purpose of filling a bed with straw. He fell from the loft to the floor, striking on his head, broke his neck, and died instantly.

— A convention of the democratic party, at Lawrence, Mass., have nominated Rev. T. J. Greenwood, of Malden, as their candidate to run against Gen. Banks, for Congress.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE REBEL WAR DEBT.—The holders of United States securities will find it for their interest to narrowly scrutinize the proceeding of the Southern conventions which have attempted, or are attempting, to reconstruct the Confederacy in some presentable shape for admission into the Union. If these conventions do not settle the question against any future payment of the war debt incurred by the rebel States, succeeding legislatures will, almost certainly, be forced to provide some method for paying the obligations assumed in behalf of treason. Let Southern legislatures acknowledge the validity of such claims, and the untold amount of rebel expenditure during the war immediately ceases, as one of the most controlling elements, into national politics. The steps are easy: First—legislative assumption of the rebel war debt; then the attempt to transfer the responsibility to the General Government. The only safe course for those who would preserve the national credit unimpaired, is to demand that the constitutional conventions of the South shall forever render it impossible to hereafter place the war expenditure of that section within the category of legal obligation. This will be a pretty severe test for most of the former rebel States, judging from the squirming which a similar proposition has already produced in that "conservative" Confederate State, North Carolina.—Transcript.

—DEALERS IN—

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP,

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction, and the fact that it is always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.

THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and these galvanized. It can in no way corrode, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.

SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

☞ Manufactured by S. VANCE & CO., No. 31 Liberty Street, Newburyport, and for sale in Portsmouth by the Sole Agents for N. H.,

☞ We are permitted to refer to Mr. MONROE HOLMES and to Mr. FRANK W. MILLER of the Daily Chronicle, who have these new Pumps in use on their premises,—for testimony to their excellence.

Extension of Dr. Campbell's Stay IN PORTSMOUTH.

DR. CAMPBELL,

At the earnest solicitation of numerous patients and persons desiring treatment, will extend his stay at the

HOME TESTIMONY.

Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. E. Campbell, now at Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anybody. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at the time of commencing Dr. C.'s treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on: the skeptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H. My son faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time he was rewarded by A FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING.
SIMON J. TORR, South Dover.

KITTERY POINT, Me., Oct. 5, 1865.

DR. CAMPBELL, Franklin House—Dear Sir: I have been deaf from earliest infancy, with at times discharges from my ears, and have suffered excessively from catarrh, and excessively painful noises in my head. I am only too happy to certify that under your skilful treatment I am now as well as any one, the discharge all gone, and I have so to speak, "AN ENTIRE NEW HEAD." The distress is gone entirely. If it may be of any truth to humanity or yourself, I am perfectly willing that you should refer to me, or my husband, Mr. Benj. Seward of the Navy Yard. Rest assured I shall send all afflicted as myself to you. Wishing you every success, I am, my dear Doctor, very gratefully and respectfully yours,
MRS. MARY A. SEAWARD.

Certificate of Miss Junkins.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 10th, 1865.

When five years old I had the scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant "running" from them, most revoltingly offensive to myself and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I was INCURABLE, and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr. Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbor (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 27 years' duration by Dr. C., I placed myself in his hands for treatment. At the time of doing so there was a perforation of the drum of one ear, the discharge was more constant and profuse than ever from both, I could not hear a watch tick or without the greatest difficulty understand conversation unless spoken to close to my ear. I carried out the treatment prescribed by Dr. C. but three months, at the end of which time the discharge from my ears had CEASED ENTIRELY, the perforation of the drum had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick a good distance off, and sustain a conversation across the room. My other ear discharges a very little at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to call for more medicine. My hearing in that ear, however, is greatly improved, while the bad smell is entirely gone. I reside in the family of Mr. Young, at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time.
ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS.

Certificate of Mr. Stephen Blanchard.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct 4th, 1865.

Grateful to Dr. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, for being the means of completely restoring me to health, I cheerfully make this statement of my case, for the benefit of others similarly affected.

Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh, in its most severe form; my head, throat and nostrils were badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health completely broken down, so much so that I was obliged to discontinue my work at the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no help, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C., on my return home, three weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the fitting department of the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have remained there steadily ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and the strong evidence that Dr. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH CAN BE CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, and I can in this place, two weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the fitting department of the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have remained there steadily ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and the strong evidence that Dr. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH CAN BE CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, and I can in this place, two weeks acute as ever, and I can in this certificate but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I shall, after my treatment at home, without any difficulty or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice.—Persons who doubt my health can call at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to verify this statement. STEPHEN BLANCHARD,
Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsm.

Certificate of Mr. Davidson.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

I have been for fourteen years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fœtid discharge from it all the time. I have tried every remedy I could, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few moments removed a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly, and since then, by the use of the Doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no Kingdom have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. s29dawlm

[Communication.]

In relation to the disparity which exists between the pay of mechanics at the Portsmouth and Charlestown Navy Yards, referred to in the Chronicle of Tuesday, it should be remembered that by the law of Congress, passed July 16, 1862, the rate of wages on the Navy Yards was made to conform, as nearly as is consistent with the public interest, with those of private establishments in the immediate vicinity of the yards, to be determined by the Commandants of the Navy Yards, &c.

Now it should be remembered that near Charlestown, mechanics are engaged in shipbuilding in several cities and towns, and receiving the highest pay per day that is paid anywhere; but in this vicinity little shipwork is done, by the day, outside of the Navy Yard,—as much of the work in private yards is let out by the job, and underlet to men who join together to do a certain part of the labor on a vessel. For this reason, the act of Congress in its provisions is unjust towards our mechanics, who ought to be paid the same rate of pay received at Charlestown,—and the matter is fully understood by the Member of Congress from this District, who has urged upon the Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks an increase of pay for our mechanics, but the Chief insists that the act of Congress must govern in this case. A petition for the repeal or modification of this act was drawn at the request of a Committee of workmen upon the Yard, and forwarded to Washington last winter, to be presented to Congress, and doubtless will be acted upon early in the session of the new Congress. H.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 18th.—Wm. Parks, drunk, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

Charles Libbey, drunk, fine and costs same as above. Libbey doubtless realizes the force of the injunction of the wise man, "Look not upon the wine when it is red, &c., for at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

Daniel Cotton is a sad example of the woful habit of liquor drinking. His whitened locks, bowed form, decrepit gait and haggard countenance speak words of stronger import than all the well studied temperance essays that have been prepared since the flood. He is fined $6.86, and in default of the payment thereof is sent to the House of Correction.

☞ The Christian Society of this city, of which Rev. I. F. Waterhouse is pastor, proposes making an effort to raise funds wherewith to build a new house of worship, their present place being too small to accommodate the increased numbers wishing to make that their meeting. There will be a public meeting to consult and make a move in the matter, in their Chapel on Court street, near Middle, this (Thursday) evening at half-past 7 o'clock. An earnest, cordial invitation is extended to all persons, male and female, having any desire for the success of the enterprise, to attend and by their presence, words and deeds encourage and help forward the movement.

MEMBER.

☞ Prof. Gunning's Introductory Lecture on Geology, at the Christian Chapel on Tuesday evening, was a production of unsual interest;—and the unanimous opinion of all present was, that the course must be encouraged and completed. He is to speak next Sunday evening in the North Church, where he would have spoken last Sunday evening, but for the storm; and he will undoubtedly interest a large audience at that time, should the weather be suitable.

☞ Mr. Walter B. Hill advertises a good assortment of Groceries, for sale at his new store on Water street, corner of Court—a very appropriate place for him, by the way, as an old cold water man, and one of the most courtly and polite of salesmen. This will be a convenient arrangement for many, and we hope some of his old friends will be willing to go a little out of their way to patronize him.

S. J. COURT.—The case Dana and others vs Leavitt was settled on Tuesday afternoon, and the action entered "Neither Party." On Wednesday the Court could find no case ready for trial, and adjourned to Thursday morning, when the case State vs Staples, for larceny of goods in Exeter, will be in order for trial.

☞ The tickets for the Lyceum, we understand, are selling rapidly; and as there will be no evening tickets for sale, at least at present, those who intend purchasing course tickets should secure them at once, as there is a limited number offered for sale.

☞ Rev. J. W. Dodge is to be installed at Hampton this day, as pastor of the Congregational Church.

— On Tuesday, a large sale of Government rolling stock and railroad iron took place at Alexandria. Twenty-three locomotives, most of which have been used for three years past by the Government, sold at prices 25 per cent. above their original cost. Old railroad iron brought $65 per ton, new $77.

— Eight men, dressed some in Confederate and some in Federal uniform, entered Mount Pleasant, Maury County, Tennessee, a few nights since, and, placing every one they found astir under guard, stole some three thousand dollars' worth of clothing from some Germans.

— The following appears in Flake's Bulletin (Galveston, Texas,) of September 29:

"We learn that John H. Reagan, late Postmaster General of the so-called Confederate States, has written a letter which will, no doubt, astonish some of his associates. Among other things he favors negro suffrage."

— Fever and ague have reappeared to an unprecedented extent in that part of the country known as "Tide Water Virginia." The people are everywhere shaking, and the mortality is largely increasing. The cause of the disease is attributed to the loss of labor by the civil war, which has left the rank vegetation to grow up untilled and unchecked, and without proper drainage.

— The South Carolina Leader, owned and edited by colored men, is the name of a new weekly paper which has just appeared in Charleston.

— A man in Philadelphia lately cut a wart off his foot and bled to death.

☞ Special attention is invited to the advertisement of Vance's patent Submerged Well Pump, as an article far superior to any other pump ever offered to the public.

☞ One word to our readers. Try DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, whenever you have any distress in stomach or bowels, or symptom of Dysentery or Diarrhea. It is simple, safe and reliable, very pleasant to the taste, and contains no opiates. o16

NATURE'S FURNITURE OF the mouth, is far preferable to any that art can supply.—Therefore, keep your teeth clean, and in good repair with that toletogen, Fragrant Sozodont. Brush them daily with this delicious vegetable preparation, and they will not be likely to crumble or decay. octlgeod1w 11

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for those discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

"The Secret Service,"
THE FIELD,
THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.
[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

SINGER'S LETTER "A"

FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

THIS SPLENDID MACHINE COMBINES all the good qualities of our well known manufacturing machines, with many new and valuable improvements. It is swift, quiet and positive in its operation; sews the very lightest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in a beautiful and substantial manner. It Hems, Fells, Cords, Braids, Tucks, Gathers, Stitches, &c., and will generally do a greater range of work than any machine heretofore offered to the public. We respectfully invite all in want of a Superior Family Sewing Machine to pay us a visit.—Every machine warranted, and full instructions given by competent and courteous attendants. Send for pamphlet. THE SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, 66 Hanover Street, Boston, 458 Broadway, New York.

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-inse. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoes much lower than hand-made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

From the Round Table.

THE NATION'S DEAD.

Four hundred thousand men,
The brave—the good—the true,
In tangled wood, in mountain glen,
On battle plain, in prison pen,
Lie dead for me and you!
Four hundred thousand of the brave
Have made our ransomed soil their grave,
For me and you!
Good friend, for me and you!

In many a fevered swamp,
By many a black bayou,
In many a cold and frozen camp
The weary sentinel ceased his tramp,
And died for me and you!
From Western plain to ocean tide
Are stretched the graves of those who died
For me and you!
Good friend, for me and you!

On many a bloody plain
Their ready swords they drew,
And poured their life-blood, like the rain,
A bounte—a heritage to gain,
To gain for me and you!
Our brothers mustered by our side,
They marched, and fought, and bravely died,
For me and you!
Good friend, for me and you!

Up many a fortress wall
They charged—those boys in blue—
'Mid varying smoke, and volleyed ball,
The bravest were the first to fall!
To fall for me and you!
These robin men—the nation's pride—
Four hundred thousand men have died
For me and you!
Good friend, for me and you!

A debt we ne'er can pay
To them is justly due;
And to the nation's latest day
Our children's children shall say,
"They died for me and you!"
Four hundred thousand of the brave
Made this our ransomed soil their grave,
For me and you!
Good friend, for me and you!

Cures all diseases caused by self-abuse, viz:—Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Night Emissions, Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all diseases that follow as a sequence of youthful indiscretions.
The Cherokee Cure will restore health and vigor, stop the emissions, and effect a permanent cure after all other medicines have failed. Thirty-two page pamphlet sent in a sealed envelope, free to any address.
Price $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5. Sold by all druggists; or will be sent by express to any portion of the world, on receipt of price, by the sole proprietor.
Dr. W. R. MERWIN, 37 Walker St., N. Y.

Cherokee Remedy,
Cures all Urinary Complaints, viz: Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder, Diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of Urine, Stricture of the Urethra, Dropsical Swellings, Brick Dust Deposits, and all diseases that require a diuretic, and when used in conjunction with the CHEROKEE INJECTION,
does not fail to cure Gonorrhœa, Gleet and all Mucous Discharges in Male or Female, curing recent cases in from one to three days, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in Females. The two medicines used in conjunction will not fail to remove this disagreeable complaint, and in those cases where other medicines have been used without success.
Price, Remedy, One Bottle, $2, Three Bottles, $5.
" Injection, " $1.
The Cherokee "Cure," "Remedy," and "Injection" are to be found in all well regulated drug stores, and are recommended by physicians and druggists all over the world, for their extreme merit and merit. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds—in order to make a money—in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, carefully packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. Address all letters for pamphlets, medicines, or advice, to the sole proprietor.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.
The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

A COOL CUSTOMER.—The following, too good to be lost, occurred some years ago in a provincial town, in a hotel not many miles from the railway:

"Will you give me a glass of ale, if you please?" asked a rather seedyish-looking person, with an old but well-brushed coat, and a most too shiny hat.

It was produced by the bar-tender, creaming over the edge of the tumbler.

"Thank ye," said the recipient, as he placed it to his lips. Having finished it at a swallow, he smacked his lips and said:

"This is very fine ale—very. Whose is it?"

"It is Dawson's ale."

"Ah! Dawson's, eh? well give us another glass of it."

It was done; and holding it up to the light, and looking through it, the connoisseur said:

"Pon my word, it is ale—superb! clear as Madeira. I must have some more of it. Give me a mug."

The mug was furnished; but, before putting it to his lips, the imbiber said—

"Whose ale did you say this was?"

"Dawson's," repeated the bar-tender.

The mug was exhausted, and also the vocabulary of praise; and it only remained for the appreciative gentleman to say, as he wiped his mouth and proceeded towards the door—

"Dawson's ale, is it? I know Dawson very well—I shall see him soon, and will settle with him for the glasses and a mug of his incomparable brew! Good mawning!"

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinlis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUES,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,
New-York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1865.

NEW RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.—A singular religious movement was begun in England a few weeks ago. It is proposed to unite the members of the English, Roman Catholic and Greek churches in friendly communion, and the public journals report that three churches in England have assented to the measure. From a statement made by Rev. F. G. Hall, formerly of St. Edmund Hall, Oxford, we gather the following indications of the character and purpose of this movement:

"An institution has been formed under the title of 'The Association for the promotion of the Unity of Christendom,' to unite in a bond of intercessory prayer, members both of the clergy and laity of the Roman Catholic, Greek and Anglican communions. 'To all,' it is said, 'who, while they lament the divisions amongst Christians, look forward for their healing mainly to a corporate reunion of those three great bodies which claim for themselves the priesthood and the name of Catholic, an appeal is made. They are not asked to compromise any principles which they, rightly or wrongly, hold dear; they are simply asked to unite for the promotion of a high and holy end.'"

The names of the members are to be kept strictly private, and the only obligation imposed upon those who join the association is the daily use of a short form of prayer, to which is added, in the case of priests, the offering, at least once in three months, of the Holy Sacrifice.

MEXICO.—The Liberal or Republican victory, reported on Wednesday, is contradicted on Thursday. It is stated from the City of Mexico, Oct. 1, that Gen. Alatorre did not defeat the Austrians, the latter being several hundred miles from where Alatorre is located. As last advices the latter was represented, by Mexican and Cuban papers, as engaged in capturing the city of Mizantla, and having roasted alive a portion of its inhabitants. All the ground held by the forces of Juarez in Oajaca is a mountain pass, and they are not in possession of any stronghold, city, village or fortified position in any part of Mexico, and the only forces the Republicans now have are several bands of guerrillas, amounting to 7000 in all, who are roaming all over the country.

The Herald's Mexican letter of the 1st inst. states that the U. S. Consul presented himself three days in one of the palace offices in order to make a claim in favor of a Frenchman. He sent his card and was informed that he was unknown there and the best he could do was to quit the palace unless he wanted to be put out by the palace guard.

Maximilian's secretary of war offered to muster into the Emperor's service all the Confederate officers in Mexico, but they refused the proposition, saying that they could serve only under the United States flag.

☞ In the U. S. Episcopal Convention on Wednesday, at Philadelphia, it was voted to establish a Freedmen's mission. The canon that no clergyman, whether bishop, priest or deacon, shall voluntarily enter the the army or navy, was adopted by a vote of 52 against 50. A declaratory resolution was agreed to, that it is the sense of the church that the duty, position and sacred calling of the clergy make it incompatible for them to bear arms.

VALLANDIGHAM.—In a recent speech at Dayton, Ohio, Mr. Vallandigham admitted that the "Sons of Liberty" had a bona fide existence. He went further, and confessed that the grand object of the order was to establish a Northwestern Confederacy. He attempted to season his confession by asserting, on the strength of some anonymous party, that Gov. Morton of Indiana was implicated with the order. This is absurd. All that Vallandigham's testimony amounts to is, that the "Sons of Liberty" existed and cherished the treasonable purposes attributed to them, and which have been denied by many of Vallandigham's friends in this part of the country.

☞ By the latest news from England and Ireland, we learn that the Fenian arrests continued. Eight more of the brotherhood had been committed for trial at Dublin. It is said that Lord Bruce has asked an explanation of Mr. Seward of the movements of the Fenians.

Parties alleged to have been connected with the Confederate loan continue to publish denials. Mr. Lindsay confesses to a small loss.

— In Boston, Tuesday, a special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department, the distillery and vinegar factory of Fred. S. Hills, on Warren street, also ten barrels of whiskey stored on Commercial street, all of which are held for alleged violation of the Internal Revenue Law. Parties engaging in the illegal distillation of whiskey are subject to heavy penalties, in addition to the forfeiture of all their goods.

— Gen. Saxton writes from Charleston that 35,000 blankets and large supplies of clothing, &c., will needed this winter in South Carolina, Georgia and the South Sea Islands for suffering refugees, freedmen, &c.

☞ Gen. Sickles has written a good letter to his friend, Gen. Kilpatrick, respecting the gallant manner in which the last named is charging upon the Copperheads of New Jersey. In the course of the letter, Gen. Sickles says:

I would not have you suppose, my dear General, that I am not duly grateful for the kind offer of "sympathy" tendered by the Democratic Convention of New Jersey to the officers and soldiers engaged in the late war. I presume they are sorry for us that we did not keep out of the war, as they did; and, of course, we ought to seize with avidity that compliment to "white" courage and "white" patriotism paid to us at the expense of the black troops. "The credit of the victories won by the Union armies are due alone to the white officers and soldiers." This quotation from the seventh resolution is as generous as it is grammatical. You and I know, as all our comrades know, that the exclusion of the black troops from a fair share of praise is as unjust as it is mean. They performed their duty with courage and fidelity and zeal. They have proved their fitness to enjoy the freedom which their valor helped to win. If, as the Copperheads say, the war was waged for emancipation, was it not right that the race which was to be enfranchised should share the perils of the conflict? If, as we say, the war was prosecuted to defend the Union and Constitution of our fathers, need the Copperheads complain that the negroes took their places in the ranks? Let them grumble—no one else is hurt.

A PRINCIPLE SETTLED.—A young New York lawyer was ejected from Wallack's Theatre for improper behavior, and appealed to the courts, which settled this principle—an important one for young men to consider. The court decided:—

"That an individual on entering an assemblage surrendered a good deal of his personal liberty; that it was a part of his contract to keep perfectly quiet; that the right of an audience to perfect silence was as distinct as that of an individual to personal liberty; and that any unnecessary infringement of it could as properly be taken cognizance of in the one case as in the other.

SKEDADDLERS PUNISHED.—Those who emigrated to Canada to avoid the draft in Michigan are coming to grief. A number of them who have returned, now that "the cruel war is over," have been tried by Court Martial at Detroit, and two of the fraternity, named William Jones and Geo. Giddings, have been found guilty of "desertion," and sentenced to confinement at hard labor for three years, and to be dishonorably discharged, to be forever deprived of citizenship, and the sentence to be published in at least two papers printed nearest their homes. These sentences have been approved, and the State Prison at Columbus, Ohio, designated as the place of confinement.

COSTLY LIQUORS.—In Boston on Wednesday, the wines and liquors of the late Thomas C. Amory, comprising some 2500 bottles, were sold at auction for from $20,000 to $25,000. Port wine sold from $5 to $19 per bottle. Scotch whiskey brought $8 per gallon. A quantity of brandy sold at $26 to $30 per bottle. Seventy-six bottles of wine which had been in the family over fifty years, brought $4.25 per bottle.

SIGN FROM THE SOUTH.—At the election in Savannah for the choice of three delegates to the Georgia State Convention, three unpardoned rebels were chosen by a vote of about 1000, to 130 for the Union ticket.

WHAT SHE WOULD DO.—An engineer tells the following story of Western life: We had been busy during the day, running a line through a dense piece of woodland. An old woman gazed on us for some time in silence. We all saw she wanted to enter into conversation; and none, with the exception of myself, wished to gratify her. I soon commenced a dialogue on various subjects and things, and, as a matter of course, I put my best foot forward. Struck with my language, she exclaimed in a tone quite flattering to my vanity, "La, how learned ye are!" But the compliment received a death blow. "If I was as high learned a scholar as you," continued she, "I'd quit engineerin', and go to keepin' a little grocery!"

JOHN P. HALE, U. S. Minister to Spain, was received by the Queen, Sept. 30.

— The Washington Republican emphatically denies that Mr. Seward or the Government had furnished the British any information in regard to Fenian movements, and pronounces the whole story as "false as it is foolish."

— The official count of the vote of Vermont for Governor shows 27,586 for Dillingham, Union, and 8857 for Davenport, Democrat: Union majority, 18,729. The relative gain from 1864, on the Union ticket, was five per cent., and the relative loss on the Democratic ticket was fifteen per cent.

HEART DISEASE AND TOBACCO.—A scientific man in France, M. Decaisne, in a communication to the Academie des Sciences, states that in the course of three years he has met among eighty-three inveterate smokers, twenty-one instances of marked intermences of the pulse, occurring in men of 37 to 47 years, and not to be explained by organic lesions of the heart. The absence of lesion or other conditions of health capable of inducing intermission of the action of the heart, and the fact that in nine of these instances, in which the use of tobacco was abandoned, the normal action of the system was restored, M. Decaine believes will justify him in concluding that in certain subjects the abuse of tobacco may give rise to a condition which may be termed "narcotism of the heart," characterized by intermission in the movements of the organ and in the pulsation of the radical artery; and that in some cases, a suspension or even diminution of the practice of smoking is sufficient to cause an entire disappearance of this irregularity.

THE CROWN OF MEXICO.—It may not be forgotten that a member of the Bonaparte family was offered, forty years ago, the crown of Mexico. The whole of the story is told by the Emperor himself in his sketch of Joseph, eldest brother of the first Napoleon:

"It was while Joseph was living as a philosopher on the banks of the Delaware, thinking of nothing but of doing good to those around him, he received a proposal which surprised and touched him. A deputation of Mexicans came to him to place at his disposal the crown of Mexico. The Ex-King of Naples and Spain answered the deputation in nearly these terms: 'I have borne two Crowns, and I would not take a single step for a third. Nothing can be more flattering to me than to see men who, when I was in Madrid, refused to recognize my authority, come now in my exile to ask of me to put myself at their head. But I do not believe that the throne you wish to raise up can make you happy; and every day I spend upon the hospitable soil of the United States proves to me only more and more the excellence of republican institutions for America. Preserve them, then, as the precious gifts of Providence. Put an end to your intestine quarrels; imitate the United States, and look out among your fellow citizens for some one more capable than I am to play the great part of Washington."

— Napoleon was inordinately addicted to the luxury of snuff-taking. On one occasion, being called suddenly out of Paris, he left the salle d'audience somewhat abruptly, forgetting his favorite snuff box, which was lying on the mantlepiece. Business of importance detained him at Fontainebleau for several days, and on his return to the Tuileries the first object that attracted his attention was the forgotton snuff-box, which lay precisely in the same spot where he had left it. He took it up, seemed to hesitate a little, and then, turning to an aide de-camp who was standing a few paces behind him, requested that officer to open the box, alleging inability to perform the act himself.

The officer complied with alacrity, and upon its lid flying open, he fell dead upon the floor. A subtile poison, known only to the most abstruse and experienced chemists, had been introduced for the purpose of destroying the life of the Emperor, who only escaped the snare by the inhuman sacrifice of an innocent person. After that memorable occasion, Napoleon was never known to carry a snuff box, but invariably used his vest pocket as a depository for the pulverized article.

HEADING OFF A LAWYER. — Rufus Choate in an important Marine assault-and-battery at sea case, had Dick Barton, old mate of the clipper-ship Challenge, on the stand, and badgered him so for about an hour, that at last Dick got his salt water up, and hauled by the wind to bring the keen Boston lawyer under his batteries.

At the beginning of his testimony Dick had said that the night was 'dark as the devil, and raining like seven bells.'

Suddenly Mr. Choate asked him—

'Was there a moon that night?'

'Yes, sir.'

'Ah, yes! a moon—

'Yes, a full moon.'

'Did you see it?'

'Not a mite.'

'Then how do you know there was a moon?'

'Nautical Almanac said so, and I'll believe that sooner than any lawyer in this world.'

'What was the principal luminary that night, sir?'

'Binnacle lamp aboard the Challenge.'

'Ah, you are growing sharp, Mr. Barton.'

'What in blazes have you been grinding me this hour for—to make me dull?'

'Be civil, sir. And now tell me in what latitude and longitude you crossed the equator?'

'Sho! You are joking.'

'No, sir! I am in earnest, and desire you to answer me.'

'I sha'nt.'

'Ah, you refuse, do you?'

'Yes—I can't.'

'Indeed! You are chief mate of a clipper ship, and unable to answer so simple a question?'

'Yes; 'tis the simplest question I ever had asked me. Why, I thought every fool of a lawyer knew there aint no latitude on the equator.'

That shot floored Rufus Choate.

MONEY.—This indispensible article has been declared to be the "root of all evil."—Portland Press.

Won't our friend of the Press please tell us when, where and by whom?

REPORTING A SHOT.—When the Alabama pirate checked a big shell into the sternpost of the Kearsarge, Mat Marshal, signal-quartermaster of the U. S. craft being aft, and hearing the third of the great iron globes as it whelted into the solid oak, looked over the stern to see what was hit. Espying the shell half buried in the wood, and the fuse ablaze, away he went to Captain Winslow, and reported:

'That picaroon chap's been plantin' one of his secesh nuts right slap in the sternpost, sir!'

'Never mind it, my man,' replied the intrepid commander, just as cool as if he'd been running down channel under five-knot steam—'Never mind his Alabama seed, quartermaster; they'll never grow in Kearsarge soil.'

'No sir; but the fuse is burnin', and if the thing pops off, I guess there won't be no Kearsarge soil left for anything to grow in.!'

'Likely enough, my man; let us drive the drops into the rascal, and have the pleasure of seeing him go down before we go up!'

'Well, if ever I seed anybody take a shot in his starn quite so coolly as that 'ere I' muttered Mat, as he went aft to his duty.

—DEALERS IN—

S. Vance's Submerged Well PUMP.

This unsurpassable invention, now being first introduced, will, it is believed, supersede all other Well Pumps now in use.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

FIRST, SIMPLICITY.—This Pump is composed of but three parts, and is so simple in its construction that any one can easily put it together.

SECOND, DURABILITY.—Its peculiar construction and the fact that it always submerged combine to make it the most durable of all Pumps yet invented.

THIRD, NEVER FREEZES.—The valves are so constructed that, when not in motion, they allow all the water above to pass down into the well, and thus prevent freezing.

FOURTH, POWER.—For the amount of power applied, this Pump excels anything known. It throws one-third part more water than ordinary pumps, and works so easily that even a child can pump without fatigue. It is in this way the greatest labor-saving pump now offered to the public.

FIFTH, IT IS INVALUABLE.—For a well pump it is invaluable, as all the iron which is submerged consists of but three small pieces, and being protected. It can in no way corroded, consequently it brings up pure water at every stroke.

SIXTH, CHEAPNESS.—This Pump is so made that it costs but a trifle, and is warranted to keep in use for years. No repairs at all are needed. It is very light, and thus the cost of transportation is very small.

DR. CAMPBELL,

HOME TESTIMONY.

Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anyone. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at the time of commencing Dr. C's treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on; the skeptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H., where I shall faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time he was rewarded by a FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING.

SIMON J. TORR, South Dover.

KITTERY POINT, Me., Oct. 5, 1865.

DR. CAMPBELL, Franklin House—Dear Sir: I have been deaf from earliest infancy, with at times discharges from my ears, and have suffered intensely from pertinacious catarrh, and severely painful noises in my head. I am only too happy to certify that under your skillful treatment I can now hear as well as any one, the discharges all gone, and I have no to speak, "AN ENTIRE NEW HEAD." The distress is gone entirely. If it can be any benefit to humanity or yourself, I am perfectly willing that you should refer to me, or my husband, Mr. Benj. Seward of the Navy Yard. Best assured I shall send all afflicted to myself to you. Wishing you every success, I am, my dear Doctor, very gratefully and respectfully yours,

MRS. MARY A. SEAWARD.

Certificate of Miss Junkins.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 10th, 1865.

When five years old I had the scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant remnants from them, most revoltingly offensive to myself and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I was INCURABLE, and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr. Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbor (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 20 years duration, by Dr. C., I placed myself in his hands for treatment. At the time of doing so there was a perforation of the drum of one ear, the discharge was more constant and profuse than ever from both, I could not hear a watch tick or without the greatest difficulty understand conversation spoken close to my ear. I carried out the treatment prescribed by Dr. C. but three months, at the end of which time the discharge from the one ear had CEASED ENTIRELY, the perforation of the drum had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick a good distance; and sustain a conversation across the room. My other ear discharges a very little at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to use the tube prescribed. My hearing in that ear, however, is greatly improved, while the bad smell is entirely gone. I reside with the family of Mr. Young, at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time.

ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS.

Certificate of Mr. Stephen Blanchard.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 4th, 1865.

Grateful to Dr. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, for being the means of completely restoring me to health, I cheerfully make this statement of my case, for the benefit of others similarly afflicted.

Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh, in its most severe form; my hearing was affected and noises were badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health completely broken down, so much so that I was obliged to discontinue my work at the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no relief, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C. one year ago. In three weeks after commencing his treatment I had gained four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the "fastening department" at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have remained there constantly ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and am a living evidence that by Dr. Campbell's system of treatment, CATARRH is not a CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me months ago, my sense of smell has returned, acute as ever, and I can in fully this certificate but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I carried out my treatment alone, without any difficulty or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice.—Persons who doubt can call on me at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to verify this statement.

STEPHEN BLANCHARD,

Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsm.

Certificate of Mr. Davidson.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

I have been for fourteen years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fetid discharge from it all the time. I have tried almost everything, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few months I received a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly, and since then, by the use of the Doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; pure watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

The genuine BRANDRETH PILL BOX has upon it a UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT STAMP with B. BRANDRETH in White Letters in the same. s29dawlm

Duran's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the disease arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

THE BLOOD HOUNDS.—It will be seen by referring to the advertisement, that these celebrated rebel dogs will be on exhibition at Washington Hall, 24 1-2 Market street, to-day and to-morrow. We have heard much about these hounds, which were kept by the rebels for the inhuman purpose of hunting down escaped Union prisoners, and now we have an opportunity to see them for the small fee of 20 cents. We clip the following notice from the Portland Daily Press, of Oct. 16th:

Go see the Blood Hounds.—All those who have not seen the Celebrated Blood Hounds Hero and Jack, now on exhibition at Old City Hall, should improve the present opportunity as they remain only through Tuesday and Wednesday. They are great curiosities and should be seen by all. Hero, of Castle Thunder renown, is an immense dog, weighing nearly 200 pounds, and measuring over seven feet from tip to tip. He is the finest specimen of the canine species we ever beheld. He seems pleasant enough to look at, but the least irritation turns him to a savage brute, and we are told that in those moods he will bite even his master. He is treacherous and cannot be trusted a moment. He was kept at Castle Thunder Prison, in Richmond, by the rebels, as a fit subject to guard Union prisoners. Jack is a smaller hound, of the Cuban species, and was one of seven kept by Capt. Werz at Andersonville prison for the purpose of capturing escaped Union prisoners, and many are the unfortunate soldiers that can testify to his having done his duty well. No one should fail to go and see them, as this will be the last time they will ever be exhibited in this city.

From the Portland Argus, Oct. 10th.

The Blood Hounds.—Old City Hall has been crowded with visitors for the last two days to see these famous dogs. The history connected with them is interesting, Hero having at the breaking out of the rebellion been placed at Castle Thunder, Richmond, to guard the prison. He is pure Russian Blood-hound of enormous proportions, weighing about 200 pounds, and standing forty-two inches high. Jack is well known as having been kept by the infamous Capt. Wirz, at Andersonville Prison, for the purpose of chasing and returning Union prisoners. They will leave the city Thursday, and will not be exhibited here again, and those who do not see them will certainly regret it. They are rare relics of the late rebellion and great curiosities.

Hero and Jack.—We visited the hall last evening, and saw Hero take his lunch, which consisted of about ten pounds of meat, which he ate with a fine relish. This evening Major Wright of the 6th Mass., recognized Hero at once, he having been severely bitten by him in attempting to escape from Libby Prison. This is only one case in many since their stay in this city, where returned soldiers have recognized both Hero and Jack as old and not very agreeable associates. To-day and to-morrow will be the last chance to see them, as they leave the city Thursday. School children should not fail to visit them on Wednesday afternoon for a very small admission fee. See advertisement in another column.

MEETING OF NAVY YARD WORKMEN. The mechanics on the Navy Yard, to the number of 400, held a meeting in this city on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of appointing a committee to visit Washington to endeavor to place the rate of wages back to the old standard. Chas. Remick was elected President, and D. B. H. Holman Secretary. Gen. Gilman Marston being in the city, he was invited to address the meeting, which he did, somewhat at length. His remarks were applauded. A committee of three, viz: Elbridge Peirce, Joshua Stackpole and E. P. Parcher were appointed to wait upon Admiral Bailey and consult with him as to the proper method of procedure in relation to the matter; and the meeting adjourned until the call of the Committee.

☞ Circumstances prevented our attending the Cornet Band's Concert, the other night; but they did not prevent our buying (and paying for) a dollar's worth of tickets on the occasion. But we are sorry to learn that instead of being a "benefit" to the Band, or their leader, the receipts were not sufficient to cover the expenses, which were unavoidably considerable. Not very encouraging to an association of young men who have worked so hard and so long to provide good music for the public; and a community who so neglect the just claims of such a Band deserve to lose it, as we understand there is considerable probability of their doing.

GRAND VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT.—It will be noticed that Mr. W. L. Warren proposes to give a grand Operatic Concert in this city next week. As it is seldom such an opportunity is offered except to the audiences of the large cities, there will undoubtedly be a good turn out on the occasion.

S. J. COURT, Oct. 19th.—On Thursday morning the trial of the indictment against Jos. R. Staples of Exeter was commenced. The respondent is charged with entering the house of Charles E. Warren, Nov. 30, 1864, at Exeter, and stealing a frock coat, a pair of child's leggings, a scarf, enamelled cloth bag and other articles. It is the second trial of the case, the jury at the last term being unable to agree.

CALL ACCEPTED.—Mr. Charles C. Salter, of Portsmouth, N. H., has accepted the unanimous call of the First Parish in West Cambridge.

☞ Prof. Gunning is to deliver a Lecture on the Mosaic and Geological accounts of Creation, on Sunday evening, at the North Church.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 19.—John Rook, drunk, fined $3, and costs $3.86.

John McCran, drunk, same fine and costs.

☞ Murray & Wilson's Dramatic Company at the Temple again to-night. They opened last evening with fair success.

☞ Any person desiring a splendid piano-forte at a low price, should consult Mr. Pearson's advertisement, and himself.

☞ As the Lyceum tickets will certainly all be sold, and no more than the 1000 issued—all who wish to attend, will save disappointment by securing tickets in season.

REV. HENRY D. MOORE preached his last sermon previous to his departure for Pittsburg, Pa., last Sunday. He did not give a sad parting discourse, as himself and all members of the society felt sad enough at severing the ties that have bound them so long and so pleasantly, without any unnecessary increase of sadness. He mentioned as a fact that during his ministry of ten years in this city, one hundred and fifteen Sabbath School scholars had united with the church, together with between three and four hundred adults. Last evening a social gathering of the society and friends met Mr. Moore at the vestry of his church, at which a parting address was made by a scholar of the Sunday School, and feelingly replied to by Rev. Mr. Moore, together with other interesting and affecting exercises. This evening Mr. Moore will officiate here for the last time at the weekly prayer meeting. May success attend Mr. Moore in his ministry in the new field of labor now opening before him.—Portland Press, Oct. 17.

It is expected that Rev. Mr. Moore will spend the next Sabbath in Portsmouth.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mrs. Emma Parker of Goffstown was found drowned in Piscataquog river, Tuesday afternoon; supposed suicide from ill health and depressed spirits. She was the wife of Mr. D. A. Parker, and daughter of Stephen Palmer of Manchester; and an amiable and beloved woman. She leaves two young children.

—— Moore's Bakery, at Rochester, was burnt on Tuesday. He will keep on baking, however, as he saved most of his machinery.

THE EXPERIENCE OF A TENNESSEE PARDON SEEKER.—Mr. John Hoppy of the Nashville Banner, gives the following humorous description of his journeyings after a pardon:

Had a personal interview with the Chief Magistrate, and asked him for a small pardon if he had any left. Chief Magistrate wanted to know what position I held in the rebel army. The answer was faint, somewhat hesitating, and a little shaky. I said "Quartermaster." Chief Magistrate chuckled and turned his head to conceal a sardonic smile. "My ancient and venerable friend," he said, "if you think that your department of the rebellion endangered the Union cause, your innocence is a pardon in itself."

☞ Special attention is invited to the advertisement of Vance's patent Submerged Well Pump, as an article far superior to any other pump ever offered to the public.

☞ One word to our readers. Try DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, whenever you have any distress in stomach or bowels, or symptom of Dysentery or Diarrhea. It is simple, safe and reliable, very pleasant to the taste, and contains no opiates. o16

NATURE'S FURNITURE of the mouth, is far preferable to any that art can supply.—Therefore, keep your teeth clean, and in good repair with that toilet gem, Fragrant Sozodont. Brush them daily with this delicious vegetable preparation, and they will not be likely to crumble or decay. octlgeodiw 11

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of size and shape. The bars is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best American shoes. The bars are rolled down with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-lace. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make more of many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished Shoes much lower than hand-made shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

"The Secret Service,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more new facts, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

OCTOBER.

The year grows splendid. On the mountain steep
Now lingers long the warm and gorgeous light,
Dying, by slow degrees, into the deep,
Delicious night.

The final triumph of the perfect year,
Rises the woods' magnificent array;
Beyond, the purple mountain heights appear,
And slope away.

The elm, with musical, slow motion, laves
His long, lithe branches in the tender air;
While from his top the gay Sordello waves
Her scarlet hair.

Where Spring first hid her violets 'neath the fern;
Where Summer's fingers oped, fold after fold,
The odorous, wild, red rose's heart,—now burn
The leaves of gold.

The loftiest hill, the lowliest flowering herb,
The latest fruit of season and of clime:
All wear alike the mood of the superb
Autumnal time.

Now Nature pours her last and noblest wine:
Like some Bacchante beside the singing streams,
Reclines the enchanted Day, rapt in divine,
Impassioned dreams.

But where the painted leaves are falling fast,
Among the vales, beyond the farthest hill,
There sits a shadow, dim and sad and vast,
And lingers still.

And still we hear a voice among the hills,
A voice that mourns among the haunted woods;
And the dense mystery of its sorrow fills
The solitudes.

For while gay Autumn gilds the fruit and leaf,
And doth her fairest festal garment wear,
Lo! Time, all noiseless, in his mighty sheaf
Binds up the year,—

The mighty sheaf which never is unbound:
The reaper whom our souls beneath lie vale;
The loved lost years that never may be found
Or loved again.

THE GREAT
CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY!
DR. LAROOKAH'S
Indian Vegetable Pulmonic Syrup!

The best preparation ever made for the following complaints:

Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, Liver Complaints and Throat and Lung Complaints tending to Consumption.

This well known remedy is offered to the public sanctioned by the experience of many years, and when resorted to in season, seldom if ever fails to effect a speedy cure of any of the above complaints. Those who have not already made use of this never failing Remedy I have only to refer to the written testimonials of Hundreds of our most distinguished citizens: Clergymen, Doctors, Congressmen, Lawyers, Singers and Public Speakers, and last but not least, many hundreds of Private Citizens, both Male and Female, who have been restored to Health, when all expectation of being cured was a "forlorn hope." My limited space will only admit of the following extracts of Unsolicited Testimonials:

REV. J. C. INGALLS, of Melrose, Mass., says:—"LAROOKAH'S N. V. P. SYRUP, for Pulmonary Diseases, stands unrivalled by any medicine yet discovered. It has completely cured me of Bronchitis of six years standing."

REV. B. F. BOWLES, of Manchester, N. H., says: "Dr. Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup I would confidently recommend for Hoarseness and Severe Colds."

REV. G. C. SIMMONS, Gansevoort, Sar. Co., N. Y., says: "I feel it my duty to say Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine we ever used in our family."

DR. POWERS, of Northfield, Vt., says: "Larookah's Syrup is the best medicine for Colds, Coughs, &c., he knows of in the market."

HON. D. W. GOOCH, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, says: "I have used Dr. Larookah's Syrup in my family for six years, and have found it an excellent remedy for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all Consumptive Complaints. I have recommended it to several friends, who have received great benefit from its use."

W. R. BOWEN, 56 Hanover St., Boston, a well known druggist of 20 years experience, says: "I am prepared to say, Larookah's Syrup is superior to any medicine I have ever known, for the positive cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and all similar complaints."

Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Bottle.

DR. LAROOKAH'S
SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND!

It is double the strength of any other Sarsaparilla Compound in the market.

For the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Dropsy, Neuralia, Epilepsy, Erysipelas, Boils, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Pain in the Stomach, Side, and Bowels, Debility, and all complaints arising from impurities of the BLOOD.

The trial of a single Bottle of either will gain the confidence of the sick.

PREPARED BY S. SEVERY,
Price $1.00 per Bottle.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Cherokee Remedy,

Cures all Urinary Complaints, viz: Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Retention of Urine, Stricture of the Urethra, Deposited Sediments, Brick Dust Deposits, and all diseases that require a diuretic, and when used in conjunction with the

does not fail to cure Gonorrhea, Gleet and all Mucous Discharges in Male or Female, curing recent cases in from one to three days, and is especially recommended in these cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in Females. The two medicines used in conjunction will not fail to remove this disagreeable complaint, and in those cases where other medicines have been used without success.

Price, Remedy, One Bottle, $2, Three Bottles, $5.
" Injection, " $2, $5.

The Cherokee "Cure," "Remedy," and "Injection" are to be found in all well regulated drug stores, and are recommended by physicians and druggists as the best, safest, and most reliable remedies for the cure of the above named diseases, and are universally known and appreciated for their intrinsic worth and merit. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds,—in order to make money—in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. —TO—
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!

DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Stomach, &c.

His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.

Office, No. 23 Endicott street.

Persons at a distance can consult DR. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.

Address DR. BRISCOE, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.

Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secresy observed in every case.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Boston, July 15, 1865. ThSly

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinlis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rhematic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1865.

SENATOR SUMNER AND GOV. PIERPONT.—We were informed by telegraph Thursday that Gov. Pierpont was turned out of Freeman Clarke's office because he said "we people of the South never will submit to being taxed to pay the Union War Debt." In the light of this remark we should read the following report, from the Lynchburg Virginian, of a conversation between him and Senator Sumner:

When Gov. Pierpont was about to set out for Richmond, Sumner said to him: "Your scheme will be a failure. There is no loyalty in Virginia, and nothing but a military government and negro suffrage will do for those people." This, it may be no breach of confidence in us to say, we received from one who had the best means of knowing that the conversation took place, and that Gov. Pierpont denied the allegation of Sumner, and declared that "the people of Virginia should neither have military government nor negro suffrage, if he could help it."

— The Savannah Herald reports cotton in demand, with holders firm. For some time past the market has been gradually advancing at the rate of from one to three cents per pound, and since last Wednesday the advance on uplands has been from ten to twelve and a half cents a pound, thus effecting an advance on all grades of uplands of from sixteen to eighteen cents per pound. Within the last thirty days the quotations are nominally for middling from 53 to 57 cents. From 20,000 to 30,000 bushels of rice, the product of the labor of freedmen on abandoned plantations, were to be sold at auction on the 18th.

— A mass of testimony is elicited by the examination of the arrested Fenians in Ireland, but it comprises little of general interest. One officer testified to finding two boxes of cartridges which "appeared to have been manufactured at Springfield, Massachusetts, in America." A paper was read declaring that $200,000 worth of linen, manufactured by the Ulstermen, was at the mercy of the Irish citizens of New York, unless the people of Ulster aided the Fenian movement.

☞ The Transcript says of Mr. Gough, that "this distinguished orator has lectured more than three hundred times in Boston, yet he is to-day more popular than ever. His new lecture on "Habit," to be delivered in the Tremont Temple, for the first time in Boston, before the Christian Association, will draw an immense crowd, if we can judge by the rapid sale of tickets. Let those who delay purchasing not complain if, in a few days they find the tickets are all gone.

REV. HENRY GILES.—It is reported that the state of this eminent lecturer's health will prevent his reading his lectures before lyceums and private circles during the present season, and that Mrs. Giles, a lady of talent, education, and general literary accomplishment, will take his place. She will read her husband's lecture. Mr. Giles' address is "Quincy, Mass."

GONE UP.—The building known as the Star Saloon on West street, near the Camp, at Concord, was burnt Wednesday evening. The alarm was given about ten o'clock, but the distance caused the fire department to arrive just in time to be too late to save anything. Altogether it was a very cheerful fire. The position of the building and weather was such that there was nothing else in danger, and the large and appreciative crowd that gathered to witness the conflagration seemed to enjoy the destruction immensely. At the conclusion they gave three hearty cheers, and voted the thanks of the community to the unknown but public spirited incendiary. We understand that a fight had been going on all the evening at the saloon. There may have been a loss to the proprietor, but there was certainly a great gain to the public.—Monitor.

—— The wife of James Weaver, residing at the old tavern stand on the road between Amoskeag and Piscataquog villages, was burned so badly on Tuesday afternoon that she died the next morning at 3 o'clock. She was on a bed asleep, which took fire from a pipe which she had smoked. She was sixty years of age.

—— William Baldwin, some time since convicted by court martial for stealing Government horses, has been sentenced to our State Prison. He is to pay the government $1000, and to be confined at hard labor for the period of seven years, wearing a ball and chain, and in case the fine is not paid at the expiration of seven years, that he be confined for the additional period of three years.

—— It is said Gen. Grant and Sec. Stanton have agreed to discharge all the N. H. volunteers, at Gov. Smyth's request.

— Steamer Atlanta, from New Orleans for New York, sprung a leak on the 14th Oct., and on the 15th, in a heavy gale, broke in three pieces. Of 52 persons on board, 5 are saved: all the others are supposed to be lost.

— An iron foundry in Providence, belonging to the Barstow Co., was burnt Friday morning.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Peace and Independence, 1783—Celebration of the event.—Universalist Society—Storms 1784.

Early in 1783, the provisional articles of peace, between the United States and his Britanic Majesty, had been ratified by Congress; who directed that they should be made public, by the supreme executive power of the several states. The President and committee of safety of New Hampshire appointed Monday the 28th day of April, 1785, for proclaiming the same. The day in Portsmouth, was ushered in by the ringing of the bells. At six o'clock salutes of thirteen guns were fired at the fort, at Liberty Bridge, and at Church-hill, to which his most Christian Majesty's ship, the America, responded in joyful harmony. At ten o'clock religious services were performed in the north meeting house, before a crowded audience. After a sublime anthem was sung by a select choir, the Rev. Doctor Haven addressed the throne of grace in the most pathetic strains of gratitude for all the mercies bestowed upon this infant nation, for supporting us through a long and distressing war, and for the happy termination of it in our independence. Another anthem was performed, and the Rev. Mr. Buckminster made the concluding prayer in a style of grateful eloquence, suitable to the solemn but joyful occasion. The services were closed by singing another anthem.

At noon the President of the State, attended by several officers of government, and a number of respectable gentlemen proceeded to the State-house, where the proclamation was read by the Sheriff of Rockingham, from the balcony to a large concourse of people, assembled on the parade, who heard it with the most lively demonstrations of joy. An elegant dinner was provided at the Assembly-room, at which the President, all strangers of distinction, and nearly one hundred gentlemen of the town were present. Several other gentlemen partook of a cold collation at the Council-chamber, and at both places a number of patriotic toasts were drunk. In the evening a splendid ball was given. The Assembly-room and State-house were beautifully illuminated, and fire works were displayed in a superior style.

A number of persons, who had embraced the doctrine of universal salvation, frequently met for mutual instruction. In 1784, they formed a society, and Mr. Noah Parker began his religious ministrations. They met at first in Mr. Dearborn's School Room, on the east side of Paved street, now Market street, near where the Mechanics and Traders Bank now (1865) stands. After their numbers increased, they bought and occupied the house, which had been built for the Sandemanians, on Brimstone Hill. The society afterwards purchased a lot in Vaughan street, and erected a meeting house there. Mr. John Murray, of Boston, first preached the doctrine of universal salvation in this town about the commencement of the revolutionary war.

Friday, November 26, 1784. A violent storm of rain commenced in the night, and continued until noon. The wind blew strongly from the southeast, and forced in the tide from the sea, which being met by a great freshet, swelled the river higher than it was ever known to rise before, and caused great damage to the wharves and the warehouses, which stood on them. The water flowed into several of them and destroyed considerable property. The wood and lumber which lay on the wharves were generally swept away; but what is more extraordinary, a large warehouse which stood on Boyd's wharf, was launched from the wharf, and floated across the creek to the opposite shore.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY. — Mount Holyoke, Mass., Oct. 17, 1865.—So much has been said and so much has been written about this spot, and by tongues and pens capable of doing justice to its charms, that 'tis with no hope of improving the public appreciation of this popular resort that I resort to the pen. Here, a thousand feet above the Connecticut river, which winds its glittering coil around the base of the mountain, I seat myself to tell a more than twice-told tale.

Crossing the long bridge from Northampton to Hadley, we enjoyed a drive in West street, the historical broad way of the latter town. This street, a mile long and about sixteen rods wide, contains over 800 trees, large and small; while the river, which here makes a bend and touches both ends of the street, traverses a distance of seven miles betwixt those two points. Bright in their autumnal coloring stand some of the leafy patriarchs that probably witnessed the regicide Goffe's appearance from his hiding place, when he defeated the Indians and saved the village 190 years ago. This street also claims the honor of being the avenue upon which Fighting Joe Hooker entered life's jour . . . . certainly his pugilistic qualities must have been developed elsewhere.

Through fertile meadows, showing traces of great crops of tobacco and broom corn, we made our way to the foot of the mountain, and thence, through a chestnut forest, to within 600 feet of the summit. There entered the car, in which we were drawn up into the hotel by an engine stationed at the top. It is all very well to say that the romance is taken out of a mountain trip by such a method of ascent, but I think I am fond of hills as the majority of people, and I don't think I appreciate the charming landscape spread out before me a whit the less because I am still fresh.

Beautiful rather than grand, the view from this spot will afford an unlimited amount of study, from the fact that while almost innumerable objects of interest are spread out before us, the elevation is not so great as render everthing in distinct.

The mountains that hem the horizon in nearly every direction are dressed in a royal purple haze; their retainers, the lesser hills, wear a livery of gorgeous hues; nestling among the trees, perched upon the hillsides or clustering about the watercourses, we see nearly forty towns; while below, almost directly under us, lies the valley of the Connecticut, with its winding stream of burnished metal, curiously inlaying the landscape of russet and green,—the great level known as the "meadows," on both sides of the river, divided into long parallelograms by the different hues of various crops, and dotted here and there with noble elms, one of which, near the ferry, is thirty-one feet in circumference. But all necessary statistics and information are furnished to visitors on their arrival at the summit by the Mt. Holyoke Pathfinder, a neat little paper obtained gratis at the hotel, which latter is well-kept and very moderate in its charges. IOX.

SUNDAY LAWS.—I notice the following item going the rounds of the papers:

A meeting to denounce Sunday trains was held in Edinburg, Scotland, presided over by a baronet who regularly every Sunday drives into town from his seat, some five or six miles off, in a carriage and pair, with coachman and footman, to attend church.

To me it has ever appeared a singular moral distinction that a man of sufficient wealth to own a private conveyance should be held blameless for travelling therewith, while those to whom a public carriage is the only possible vehicle of travel should be debarred therefrom by a strong arm of the law. Perhaps, in view of the extreme difficulty of a rich man's obtaining ingress to Heaven, it is not considered worth while to attempt to save that class. The St. John Globe, in reply to a correspondent whose sensibilities were shocked by the movements of the towboats on Sunday, says:

It does appear to us, that there is not the slightest necessity for doing what he declares is so "necessary." Where is the necessity? He says they engaged some poor laboring men to work on that day.—If the men were very poor, they did well to embrace the opportunity. * * * Our advice to him is to attend to his own concerns, and let those of his neighbors alone. * * * He urges that a law should be passed to heavily fine those who urge poor men to work on the Sabbath. We are entirely opposed to any such laws, as we believe that every man should be at liberty to follow the dictates of his own conscience in these matters.

This seems to me a very sensible way of looking at the matter. Compulsory Christianity is a poor counterfeit of the example given us nearly nineteen centuries since. *

[Compulsory Christianity is not Religion in the sense of the New Testament. Neither do we expect Penal Statutes of any sort to promote Virtue by direct action,—but only indirectly by suppressing or diminishing vice and punishing the vicious. For example, we put into the State Prison the man who set fire to the town, not to make him a conservator of property, but as a terror to evil doers, and in this way to preserve our remaining property:—and so of the potato thieves, they are to be punished, in order to save next year's garden sauce from theft,—not that we expect to compel them to be honest,—which is simply impossible.

The Sunday laws, like all others of the same class, are very imperfect efforts to suppress vice, not to create virtue. A large portion of the people desire the public worship of God on the Lord's Day,—and our Constitution says every man may do it according to the dictates of his own conscience, provided he does not thereby disturb or molest his neighbor. The Sunday laws aim to secure this quiet,—and to some extent they do so. Whenever they have aimed at more than this, they have usually been failures. The Sunday gruggery is a nuisance, for it makes noise, brawl and murder:—but the Sunday morning's oven, pouring out brown bread and pots of beans, makes no disturbance, but saves work and promotes comfort. Sunday laws, like all other human laws, are very far from perfection. But the devout Christian, who loves the Sabbath, needs no law but that of love to make him keep and enjoy it.]

— A fire in Charlestown, Mass., at 5 o'clock Friday morning, burnt a livery stable and 11 horses, stores, shops, and a dozen houses. Loss $50,000.

— "Rev. Mr. Nasby" says—"The utter and abject state uv cussitood into which the Dimocrisy find theirselves, North and South, makes a day uv fastin' appropriate. Ef the Lord is ever a goin 2 help us, now's his time."

— The human race is divided into two classes—those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit still and inquire, "Why wasn't it done the other way?"

I have the honor to announce to the Public of Portsmouth, that having effected a brief engagement with the following eminent Artists, I hope to present them in a

Grand Instrumental and Vocal Concert in this city:

MISS AMANDA BAILEY,

The American Prima Donna;

MR. JAMES WHITNEY,

The greatest living American TENOR, who comes to this city direct from Portland, where he makes his Debut in America since his return from Europe.

BY INTRODUCING

Mr. Geo. W. Dudley,

The renowned American BASSO, I anticipate a welcome to him in Portsmouth such as his talent deserves.

In presenting these celebrated Artists (together with a Grand instrumental Concert, the particulars and Artists of which will be hereafter announced) in one entertainment, I have labored without regard to expense to establish beyond controversy that unpronounceable foreign names are not necessary to talent, but on the contrary that America can excel in Vocalism as well as in every other art.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Certificate of Simon J. Torr, Esq.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

TO THE DEAF.—I wish to state that my son Andrew, now 18 years of age, has been deaf in both ears since three years old, and by a steady perseverance in the treatment prescribed by Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, he has been entirely, wholly and permanently CURED, and now hears, and has done for a long time, as well as anybody. I placed him in the care of Dr. C. when he was in Dover, and although from the fact that he had been deaf from so early an age, I then had no hope that he could be helped, I am now delighted to say I have been most happily disappointed. Although at times he has suffered from very severe colds, his hearing has always been good during their continuance, and the catarrh which greatly afflicted him at the time of commencing Dr. C.'s treatment has entirely disappeared. This statement may be relied on: the skeptical can write to me or call at my residence in South Dover, N. H. My son faithfully persevered in the treatment six months, at the end of which time he was rewarded by A FULL AND COMPLETE RESTORATION OF HIS HEARING.

SIMON J. TORR, South Dover.

KITTERY POINT, Me., Oct. 5, 1865.

DR. CAMPBELL, Portsmouth—Dear Sir: I have been deaf from earliest infancy, with at times discharges from my ears, and have suffered intensely from catarrh, and excessively painful noises in my head. I am only too happy to certify that under your skillful treatment I can now hear as well as any one, the discharge all gone, and I have so to speak, "AN ENTIRE NEW HEAD." The distress is gone entirely. If it can be any benefit to humanity or yourself, I am perfectly willing that you should refer to me, or my husband, Mr. Benj. Seaward of the Navy Yard. Rest assured I shall send all afflicted as myself to you. Wishing you every success, I am, my dear Doctor, very gratefully and respectfully yours,

MRS. MARY A. SEAWARD.

Certificate of Miss Junkins.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 10th, 1865.

When five years old I had the scarlet fever, which left me almost totally deaf in both ears, and with constant "running" from them, most painfully affecting my peace and acquaintances. Twelve years ago my friends consulted the best physicians in York and Portsmouth in relation to my case, but they all come to the conclusion that I was INCURABLE, and would do nothing for me. Hearing of Dr. Campbell's great success in similar cases, through a friend and neighbor (Mr. Wm. Grant) who had been entirely cured of total deafness of 20 years standing by Dr. C., I placed myself in his hands for treatment. At the time of doing so there was a perforation of the drum of one ear, the discharge was more constant and profuse than ever from both, I could not hear a watch tick or without the greatest difficulty understand conversation unless spoken to close to my ear. I carefully and constant prescribed by Dr. C. but three months, at the end of which time the discharge from one ear had CEASED entirely, the perforation of the drum had healed over, and I could then and can to-day distinctly hear a watch tick a good distance, and sustain a conversation across the room. My other ear discharges a very little at times, but that is owing to my neglecting to send for more medicine. My hearing in that ear, however, is greatly improved, while the bad smell is entirely gone. I reside with the family of Mr. Young, at York, Me., where I can be seen at any time.

ELIZABETH P. JUNKINS.

Certificate of Mr. Stephen Blanchard.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct 4th, 1865.

Grateful to Dr. Campbell, now at the Franklin House, for having the means of completely restoring me to health, I cheerfully make this statement of my case, for the benefit of others similarly affected.

Prior to consulting Dr. C. I had for eight years been an acute sufferer from chronic catarrh, in its most severe form; my head, throat and nostrils were badly affected, my sense of smell entirely gone, and my general health completely broken down, so much so that I was obliged to discontinue my work at the Navy Yard, and for seven weeks had been confined to my father's house. I consulted the best physicians, but got no help, and was rapidly failing. I placed myself in the hands of Dr. C. one year ago. In three weeks after commencing his treatment I got on my four pounds in flesh, and resumed my work in the "fastening department" at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and have continued there steadily ever since. I am now, and have been for months, a WELL MAN, and am a living evidence that by Dr. Campbell's system of treatment CATARRH can be CURED. Every vestige of catarrh has left me, months ago, my sense of smell has returned, acute as ever, and I in this certificate but faintly express my grateful feelings to the Doctor for what he has done for me. I carried out my treatment at home, without any interruption or inconvenience, and only saw the Doctor twice.—Persons who doubt can call on me at the Navy Yard, where I shall be happy to confirm this statement. STEPHEN BLANCHARD,

Of Alfred, Me., now at the Navy Yard, Portsm.

Certificate of Mr. Davidson.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 9th, 1865.

I have been for fourteen years totally deaf in my right ear, and have been greatly troubled and annoyed by a profuse fœtid discharge from it all the time. I have tried almost everything, but nothing seemed to do any good. I went to Dr. Campell when he first came to Portsmouth. He said he could cure me of both the discharge and deafness, and in a few moments removed a large "polypus" from my ear. I could hear directly, and since then, by the use of the Doctor's preparations, the discharge has wholly ceased, and I can hear now as well with that ear as with the other, which has always been good.

Brandreth's Pills,

WHOSE TIMELY USE UNDER PROVIDENCE, HAS OFTEN SAVED LIFE.

These celebrated Vegetable Pills are no new, untried remedy; they have been used and tested in the United States for thirty years, and are relied upon by hundreds of thousands of families as almost their sole medicine when sick. No care or expense is spared in their preparation, and it is certainly true when I assert that no King can have a medicine safer or surer than Brandreth's Pills.

They produce a good effect upon disease almost immediately they are taken. By some wonderful power, perhaps electric or nervous influence, the progress of the diseased action is arrested; where watchfulness and pain have been present, the system becomes quieter, and the patient soon obtains refreshing sleep.

Duroc's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DUROC, P. O. Box 1235, New-York City.

Mrs. WINSLOW

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP
For Children Teething,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammations, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to your selves and Relief and Health to Your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.
Price, Only 35 Cents per Bottle.

☞ By the following correspondence, which we are pleased to publish—it will be seen that an opportunity will ere long be afforded our citizens to hear their talented townswoman Mrs. Whipple, in public readings, or rather recitations, in which she made so successful a debut last year.

PORTSMOUTH, OCT. 12th.

MRS. JULIA V. N. WHIPPLE—Dear Madam: Having learned with regret that you have declined the invitation of the Lyceum Committee, and being unwilling to forego the pleasure of again listening to your admirable recitations, we respectfully beg, that if consistent with your engagements you will give us that pleasure at such time and place as you may see fit to name.

Very Respectfully,
ROBERT O. TREADWELL
J. P. BARTLETT
JOHN N. MACOMB
GEO. W. HAVEN
ALBERT R. HATCH
J. B. UPHAM
THOMAS F. DAVIES.

PORTSMOUTH, OCT. 16th.

Gentlemen: Your flattering communication of the 12th inst. is before me. It will give me great pleasure to comply with your request, and appear again before my Portsmouth friends, at the Temple, Nov. 21st, further particulars of which shall be duly announced.

Thanking you for this mark of your approbation, I have the honor to be, gentlemen, with the highest consideration,

Your Obt. Servt.
JULIA VAN NESS WHIPPLE.

PROF. GUNNING'S LECTURES.—The first lecture of the Course, on Geology, by Prof. Gunning, of Boston, was delivered to a small audience in the Court St. Christian Chapel, as per advertisement, on Tuesday evening last. The few present was a discouraging feature for the lecturer, auguring but little appreciation of the effort being made to inaugurate a course of Scientific Lectures in our city. But those present were disposed to look at the matter in the most favorable light, and charge the slim attendance to the very limited notice which had been given of the Course, rather than to a want of appreciation on the part of the citizens of Portsmouth. We trust that next Tuesday evening will prove that they were correct in the matter, in that it shall bring together a chapel full, to listen to the really pleasant speaker and profoundly thorough scholar. Seventy-five cents for six such lectures as he gives, and given in a style so attractive as he gives them, is purchasing a great deal for a very small sum of money. Let every parent caring for instruction for his children see that he improves the present opportunity, to go himself and take his family with him. And be assured you will not regret the expenditure of your money, nor the manner of spending those few evenings. I. F. W.

☞ The programme for the Lyceum the coming season is superior in variety and worth to the two courses which have preceded it. A rich treat is in store for those who secure tickets. Nine first class lectures from the leading speakers in the country; two varied entertainments of Reading; ten excellent Concerts by musical artists from abroad and our Band at home, are inducements enough to sell every ticket that is offered. This season the public have an enlarged, comfortable and well-ventilated hall, which will accommodate 1200 people. So there will be no jam, as has been heretofore, and a seat can be had without the trouble of going at an early hour.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 19.—George Parks and Albert Tucker, two young sprouts who believe in rum, fast horses, freedom of speech and of action, after filling themselves with the noisiest kind of liquor on Thursday, hired a horse and undertook the pleasant task of driving him to death, but just before they accomplished this manly feat were arrested by the police, taken before the Court, and fined $5 and one half the costs each $2.16.

Frank Garvin, a drunken and importunate marine, for assaulting a gentleman at the Franklin House on Thursday was fined $7 and costs $4.80.

☞ The two government steamers Dawn and Monticello left this Navy Yard on Friday morning for Boston, the former being under the charge of Act'g Vol. Lieut. Chas. C. Ricker, and the latter under Lieut. Commander Thornton. The Monticello got aground in the Narrows from some cause, but the rising tide set her on her way again, and with a good head of steam and a stiff breeze, she must have made Boston harbor in a few hours.

☞ Besides the intellectual feast offered at the Lyceum this season, and which it is expected will be of the highest order—the musical entertainment alone will be well worth the price of the tickets. A series of such splendid concerts are certainly cheap at a couple of dollars.

☞ The Daily Evening Voice, a paper published in Boston by the Workingmen's Association, has obtained quite a circulation on the Portsmouth Navy Yard. It advocates the eight-hour system and the interests of mechanics and laborers generally.

☞ Mr. Wendell's usual sale of Varieties to day; and the great stock of Housekeeping and Woollen Goods is still "going, going"—so if you would secure some of the bargains ere all is "gone," you must be quick.

NAVAL ORDERS.—Commander E. G. Parrott has been ordered to the command of the receiving ship Ohio, at the Charlestown Yard.

Captain Charles Green has been detached from the command of the Ohio, and ordered as Inspector of the 9th Lighthouse District.

Commander G. H. Preble has been ordered as Inspector at the Boston Yard.

Commander Wm. F. Spicer has been ordered to the Portsmouth Yard on special and temporary duty.

The Naval General Courts Martial at Charlestown, of which Commodore Pope presided, has been dissolved.

THE BLOOD HOUNDS, Hero and Jack, at Washington Hall, were visited by a large number of our citizens yesterday who pronounced them great curiosities. We admire Hero especially for his enormous proportions and haughty bearing. He certainly is the finest specimen of the Dog Family we ever beheld. He is very irritable, and so treacherous that he cannot be trusted even for a moment. While Mr. J. D. Newcomb, who has him in charge, was showing off the ferocity of Hero we stood where dit came lent enchantment to the view. We advise all to go and see these rebel dogs, as they are worthy of a visit. To day is the last chance. The Hall is open from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. The price is but twenty cents.

HOURS AT HOME, a popular monthly, for October, 1865,—just received by J. H. Foster.

☞ The big Dogs at Washington Hall for to-day only.

☞ Prof. Gunning is to deliver a Lecture on the Mosaic and Geological accounts of Creation, on Sunday evening, at the North Church.

☞ One word to our readers. Try DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, whenever you have any disease in stomach or bowels, or symptom of Dysentery or Diarrhea. It is simple, safe and reliable, very pleasant to the taste, and contains no opiates. o16

NATURE'S FURNITURE of the mouth, is far preferable to any that art can supply.—Therefore, keep your teeth clean, and in good repair with that toilet gem, Fragrant Sozodont. Brush them daily with this delicious vegetable preparation, and they will not be likely to crumble or decay. octlgeodlw 11

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-erspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

HORSESHOES.

THE WHEELER HORSESHOE COMPANY offer for sale, corner of Portland and Traverse Streets, Boston, Horseshoe Bars and Shapes, and also finished Shoes of every variety of style and size. The iron is made from selected scrap, including old shoes, and is warranted as good as any in the market, and to wear as long as the best hand made shoes. The bars are drawn with a groove and a bevel, and with a seated, a flat, or a concave foot-face. This amount of work on the bars enables the blacksmith to make twice as many Shoes a day as he can make from common shoe shapes, and the Shoes are of better finish and quality when done. The iron in bars is offered at the ordinary price of common shapes, and the finished shoe much lower than hand made Shoes, with which alone they can be compared, and which in reality they are.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.
[ISSUED IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

This work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years traveling through the South in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring events, and contains more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. Ever it is the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

OVER THE WAY.

Gone in her childish purity,
Out from the golden day;
Fading away in the light so sweet,
Where the silver stars and the sunbeams meet,
Paving the path for her waxen feet
Over the silent way.

Over her bosom tenderly
The pearl white hands are prest:
The lashes lie on her cheeks so thin,
Where the softest blush of the rose has been,
Shutting the blue of her eye within
The pure lids closed in death.

Over the sweet brow lovingly
Twineth her sunny hair:
She was so fragile that love sent down,
From his heavenly gems, that soft bright crown,
To shade her brow with its waves so brown—
Light as the dimpling air.

Gone to sleep, with a tender smile
Frozen on her tender lips
By the farewell kiss of her dewy breath,
Cold in the clasp of the angel Death,
Like the last fair bud of the fading wreath,
Whose bloom the white frost nips.

Robin—hushed in your downy bed,
Over the swinging bough—
Do you miss her voice from your glad duet,
When the dew in the heart of the rose is set,
Till its velvet lips with the essence wet,
In orient crimson glow?

Rosebud—under your shady leaf,
Hid from the sunny day—
Do you miss the glance of her eyes so bright,
Whose blue was heaven in your timid sight?
It is beaming now in the world of light
Over the starry way.

Here's where the darling's head hath lain,
Held by love's shining ray—
Do you know that the touch of her gentle hand
Doth brighten the harp in the unknown land?
Oh she waits for us with the angel band
Over the starry way.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private disease, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syhilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system,—are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has secured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of purchasers. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, rendering the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease or management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this very valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

As it runs through the realm of tears;
With a faultless rythm and a musical rhyme,
And a broadening sweep and a surge sublime,
That blends with the ocean of years.

How the winters are drifting like flakes of snow,
And the summer, like buds between;
And the year is the sheaf—so they come and they go,
On the river's breast, with its ebb and flow,
As it glides through the shadow and sheen.

There's a musical isle on the river of time,
Where the softest of airs are playing;
There's a cloudless sky and a tropical clime,
And a song as sweet as vesper chime,
And the Junes with the roses are staying.

And the name of the isle is Long Ago,
And we bury our treasures there;
There are troves of beauty and bosoms of snow,
There are heaps of dust, but we love them so,
There are trinkets and tresses of hair.

There are fragments of songs that nobody sings,
And a part of an infant's prayer;
There's a lute unswept, and a harp without strings,
There are broken vows and pieces of rings,
And the garments she used to wear.

There are hands that are waved when the airy shore
By the mirage is lifted in air;
And we sometimes hear, through turbulent roar,
Sweet voices we heard in days gone before,
When the wind down the river is fair.

Oh! remembered for aye be that blessed isle,
All the days of our life till night;
When the evening comes with its beautiful smile,
And our eyes are closed in slumber awhile,
May our "Greenwood" of soul be in sight!

Communication.

MR. EDITOR: "Le Bon Ton," a fashion Magazine published in New York, has the following paragraphs immediately succeeding one another in one of its articles. Perhaps you can use them in one of your spicy editorials:—

"Le Petit Messager will give monthly a plate for dressing the hair.

"The Episcopal Methodist, published at Richmond, Va., reminds one of by-gone days, when that church tried especially to guard against the combination of politics and religion: its great aim and purpose is to point Adam's race to the old paths and olden times, when men realized the thing called religion. It should have the support of all who love the truth; and may God speed the day when the devil and his agents (politicians) shall be forever ruled out of the churches.

"Then there is The Christian Witness, published in Columbus, Ohio. It has a good face and a clean record; and all good people will pray that it may so continue. One particularity of its origin, some in this city do not object to. It had its beginning among those who were unwilling to shed their brothers' blood for an idea; but the weaker had to give way and seek the Lord where he can be found.

"Gentlemen in want of shirts and collars will find it for their interest to call, &c., &c."

Whatever may be his objections to the union of religion and politics, the editor evidently has none to the union of religion and millinery.

EGGS.—There is much in breed, in egg-laying qualities. But the most is in good treatment—making the hen at home. A crowded place will not do. Too many hens together is bad. Why? Because it interferes with tranquility. The points of success are: Warm quarters; roomy; clean; unmolested; plenty of food; a variety of feed, varied daily with animal food of some kind, it matters little what; water changed often; crushed bones, either burnt or otherwise; pulverized earth or spent ashes to wallow in; light; and as much cheerfulness as possible. Then select good breeds. The Spanish are among the best layers, and are almost anywhere to be found. But remember the good treatment; or dispense with hens for profit.—Coleman's Rural World.

— A mean man never thinks himself mean; only thinks himself cautious, just as a near-sighted person seems to be looking far away.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I deem exposure to be wrong, since gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the tre.tment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally indoced to see, the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
I trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,
New York, June 28th, 1865.
WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of
Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. — The Times' Washington dispatch says that the withdrawal of troops from the South, heretofore loudly demanded by the people there, is now sadly deplored by them, and piteous appeals to retain them are received by the authorities.

Major John A. Haddock has been sentenced to be cashiered and disabled from holding any office in the service of the United States, and pay a fine of $10,000 for fraud, receiving bribes, complicity with bounty-jumpers, etc.

The Heralds dispatch says the Secretary of Treasury has decided to receive deposits of gold and to issue therefor certificates payable on demand in gold. These gold notes will be receivable for customs, and will be largely used in adjusting balances in New York.

Fears of a negro insurrection in the South have been brought to the notice of Gen. Grant, in a memorial asking military protection. These fears are considered groundless, but an eye will doubtless be kept on the matter. Gen. Grant knows there is no danger in doing justice to the working men. The insurrection of rebels against law and order, is much more probable.

NORTH CAROLINA.—A Raleigh paper publishes a telegram from the President to Gov. Holden, declaring that every dollar of debt created in aid of the rebellion should be repudiated finally and forever, and expressing a hope that the people of North Carolina will wash their hands of everything that partakes in the slightest degree of the rebellion, so recently crushed by the strong arm of the government. A later item says the State Convention has adjourned, to assemble again on the fourth Monday of May. The ordinance passed preventing any future legislation for assuming or paying any debt created directly or indirectly for the prosecution of the rebellion. This is a triumph for Gov. Holden and the loyal element, as the secessionists and the enemies of the Government favored the assumption of the rebel State debt.

TEXAS. — Rio Grande correspondence says considerable sensation and apparently a little dissatisfaction had been caused by General Grant's order directing the mustering out of a large number of colored troops. The 25th Corps (Gen. Weitzel) loses eleven regiments, from New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Prominent Texans are arriving at New Orleans. They say that fears are entertained that Gov. Hamilton will delay the Convention and keep the Texas delegation out of Congress. The Governor has organized over one hundred counties. The delay in regulating the mail system has been detrimental to the political organization of the State [If all the ex-rebel States had delaying Governors, they would behave better. "Make haste slowly" is a good maxim for them.]

The Austin (Texas) Intelligencer, the organ of Gov. Hamilton, invites the people not qualified to be members, to elect such members as are qualified, so that a majority of them may be represented when a Convention is called.

The Intelligencer complains bitterly of the conduct of the freedmen.

There is much destruction of stock feared in consequence of the drouth in all the counties of Texas.

VIRGINIA.—Gen. Terry has just had a lengthy interview with the President and Secretary of War in relation to affairs in Virginia. It is understood that Stanton and Terry oppose the withdrawal of the few troops still remaining in that State, while Gov. Pierpont insists that the only way to restore amicable relations between the General Government and Virginia is to withdraw the troops. In the mean time the blacks, who are not consulted in the matter, are in a state of fear and trembling lest the counsels of Pierpont prevail.

IN MISSISSIPPI.—The Legislature has indorsed the course of Hon. Wm. L. Sharkey by electing him U. S. Senator to fill the unexpired term of Jeff. Davis, commencing March 4, 1863, by the overwhelming majority of 100 to 26, over Fulton and Anderson on the second ballot. There has been no election to fill the unexpired term of Albert G. Brown. A majority of the Legislature are in favor of negro testimony.

MISSISSIPPI.—A letter written by Joe Davis, brother of the caged rebel ex-President, to an officer of the Freedmen's Bureau in Mississippi, has been received by Gen. Howard. Davis not only impudently demands the restoration of his own property, but that of his brother Jeff., which, for two years past, has been cultivated by a colony of freedmen. The modest rebel even declines to debase himself by taking the oath.

MEXICO.—From Mexico, we have confused and contradictory accounts. One says, the reported defeat of the Imperials by the Republicans at El Parral is confirmed. Per contra, a man at New Orleans, lately arrived from Brownsville says the cause of Juarez is considered hopeless, and Cortinas is his only energetic leader there, but he injures the cause by his bad character.

Maximilian had refused positively to do any thing for the Confederates more than for other emigrants, but favors emigration, and will soon issue a favorable decree on the subject.

FIRST CLASS BOOTS AND SHOES FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN. — Messrs. T. E. Moseley & Co., Summer street, Boston, are justly and widely celebrated for the superiority of their boots and shoes. Mr. Moseley has, for twenty years, made a specialty of furnishing for ladies and gentlemen the finest quality of boots and shoes, for all purposes, and their customers are always sure of an elegant fitting, well made, desirable article, which is a pleasure and a satisfaction as long as worn. Messrs. Mosely & Co. guarantee perfect satisfaction in all their manufactures; they use nothing but the very best stock, and employ none but the very best workmen. Their prices are as low as any store in the city, and ladies and gentlemen in want of first rate custom-made articles are especially invited to call and examine their stock when in Boston.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The people of Freedom, Carroll County, held a town fair on the 18th of September. The day was bright and beautiful, and a goodly number of people from that and the adjacent towns were in attendance. The show of working oxen was very fine. There were ninety-two yoke of them —all beauties—and, with one or two exceptions, from the town of Freedom, which is somewhat famous for her oxen. So says a correspondent of the Wolfeborough News.

—— The Lebanon Free Press says: Work upon the new factory has been commenced, and is to be pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Its erection will necessitate the erection of several houses, as there is not room to accommodate our present population.

—— Adjutant General Head has received official information from Vicksburg, Miss., that preparations for mustering out the veteran battalion of the 9th N. H. regiment commenced on the 9th inst., and that early next week these troops will probably start for home. Capt. J. H. Landers had been thrown from his horse and very dangerously injured.

—— The Wolfeborough News says: "We recently counted the potatoes dug from a hill of Peach Blooms, and found 105 in the hill, which is doing well for these times."

OFFICIAL CHANGES.—Hon. Wm. Orton, the present Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has received notice of his election as President of the United States Telegraph Company, which position he has decided to accept. Hon. Edward A. Rollins of New Hampshire, for several years past the able Deputy Commissioner of the Bureau, will probably succeed Mr. Orton, who will retire from the office on the 1st of November next. So says a Washington correspondent.

☞ George Francis Train, having engaged himself to speak before the Fenian Convention at Philadelphia last Wednesday night, telegraphed to Secretary Seward inquiring whether he (Train) might deny the assertion that arrests were made in England through Mr. Seward's advice. The Secretary of State replied as follows:

"I cannot depart from my habit of leaving my vindication against calumnies to an intelligent country and a candid world."

The Secretary is too old a bird to be caught with such chaff.

☞ Major Gen. George H. Stannard of Vermont, who was honorably mustered out of service in August, is reinstated in the service by order of the President on the personal recommendation of Gen. Grant. Gen. Stannard is regarded as one of the bravest soldiers of the war. He was very severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, and lost his arm at the battle of Chapin's farm.

— At a meeting of corporators of the Military and Naval National Asylum, General Grant, Admiral Farragut, General Butler, Surgeon General Barnes, Henry J. Raymond, Governor Smyth of New Hampshire and Ex-Governor Todd of Ohio were appointed a committee to report by-laws for the corporation, call the next meeting, and request Congress so to amend the act as to give it immediate effect.

— The steamship Circassian, Cuvedy, from Bremen, for New York, with 650 passengers and 450 tons freight, is ashore at Rocky Bay, Nova Scotia, near Arichat. The vessel lays on a sandy beach. She had sprung a leak and the Captain was obliged to run her ashore to save her. The water was up to the grate bars. The passengers and cargo were saved.

— Dr. Moriarty, port physician of Boston, died on Friday. He was a good natured man, weighed over 400 lbs., and was 69 years of age.

Local.

☞ Well, now, for Lyceum to-night. The train is all laid, and it only remains for Gough to touch it off, which he will do in the match-less way he is in the "Habit" of. So, stand back, and look out he don't hit you.
